From Marx to Mao and Marchais Dan Norman Jacobs,1979      From Marx to Mao and Marchais Dan Norman Jacobs,1979      Bourgeois Liberty and the Politics of Fear Marc Mulholland,2012-10-04 An examination of state building class conflicts revolutions and fear of revolutions from the English Civil War of the 1640s to the invasion of Iraq in 2003 and the Great Recession from 2003 Sheds new light on key topics and events and offers a fully substantiated argument about the interplay of bourgeois liberty and proletarian democracy      Reading Sartre's Second Ethics Elizabeth A. Bowman,Robert V. Stone,2023-03-27 In Reading Sartre's Second Ethics Elizabeth A Bowman and Robert V Stone provide a comprehensive reconstructive and critical interpretation of Jean Paul Sartre's mature dialectical ethics The key Sartrean texts are two posthumously published lectures one delivered at the Gramsci Institute in Rome in 1964 the other scheduled to be delivered at Cornell University in 1965 but cancelled by Sartre in protest of U S foreign policy Though different in content method and intended audience Sartre gave both lectures the shared title Morality and History As Bowman and Stone argue these texts comprise a single systematic ethic in two parts The Cornell lecture focuses primarily on a regressive and phenomenological analysis of normativity and its ambiguous place in lived moral experience the Rome lecture focuses primarily on a progressive and dialectical synthesis of the ends or goals of historical conduct Taken together the two texts demonstrate that integral humanity is always possible because the means to it can always be freely invented      Politics of Ideocracy Jaroslaw Piekalkiewicz,Alfred Wayne Penn,1995-02-01 Expanding upon the concept of totalitarianism this study introduces the concept of ideocracy to encompass all those political systems that legitimize their actions by reference to an all inclusive utopian ideology It distinguishes pluralist systems marked by competing schools of thought from monistic systems in which a utopian ideology is dominant Focusing on twentieth century regimes the authors develop Weberian ideal type models to clarify different forms of ideocracy and pluralism explore the ideal type model of ideocracy and analyze the dynamics of political life using models that allow readers to examine the contradictions and evolutionary paths of specific political systems In addition they examine diverse psychological social and environmental factors in analyzing the emergence of ideocracies and their subsequent evolution and emphasize that although these systems may persist for extended periods they may also evolve into other forms of government through processes ranging from radical transformation to gradual erosion      Understanding Australia's Neighbours Nick Knight,2004-07-06 The East and Southeast Asian region is of immense economic strategic and cultural significance to Australia It has also been important in defining Australia's national identity and is the origin of many of Australia's immigrants Australians therefore need to have some understanding of their northern neighbours and to be able to think about them in an informed way They need to do so not only to be able to understand the region in which they live but also to better understand themselves This book facilitates this process by providing comparisons between Asian and Australian societies The reader is encouraged to think about Australia's neighbours across a wide range of social economic and historical contexts Written in an accessible and informative way this is a book for all Australians who seek a better understanding of Australia s neighbours in East and Southeast Asia     Yearbook on International Communist Affairs ,1980     Encounter Stephen Spender,Irving Kristol,1979     Towson State Journal of International Affairs ,1978

The Bookseller ,1979     Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1979     Revolutions and Revolutionists Robert Blackey,1982     World Union on the Horizon James A. Yunker,1993-06-08 Is the world ready for world government This book presents a restrained yet powerful argument for a supernational federation tentatively designated the Federal Union of Democratic Nations The author argues that as worldwide human civilization approaches the third millennium A D the ideological economic and nationalistic barriers to supernational political unity are weakening and a legitimate state entity beyond the United Nations today is a realistic possibility It would hold the power to tax to maintain military forces and house elected legislative and executive branches in a capital city Contents A New Perspective on International Organization A Proposal for Supernational Federation Prospects for Ideological Harmonization Prospects for Economic Equalization State and World State Summary and Conclusion References Index     New Left Review ,1979     Political Science Neal Riemer,1983     日本経済新聞 (Japan),1987     Civilizations of the World Richard L. Greaves,1993     Slavic Review ,1979 Coverage of Russian Eurasian and East European issues     Economic Justice James A. Yunker,1997 This volume thoroughly examines the case for democratic market socialism in light of both the real world and intellectual history of socialism James Yunker provides a clear and jargon free account of this highly controversial issue Covering the history of the market socialist idea from the precursors of Oskar Lange to the present Yunker examines the subject not only in terms of formal economic theory but in the context of the actual history of communistic socialism as practiced in the U S S R Eastern Europe the P R C and elsewhere The book s historical content and readability will make it of great interest not only to economists and historians of socialism but to any reader seeking to learn more about the place of market socialism in history and its potential for future application     Encounter ,1979
