Things Seen from Above Shelley Pearsall, 2021-02-09 A shift in perspective can change everything This brilliant novel from the author of The Seventh Most Important Thing celebrates kids who see the world a little differently April is looking for an escape from the sixth grade lunch hour which has become a social scene nightmare so she signs up to be a buddy bench monitor for the fourth graders recess Joey Byrd is a boy on the fringes who wanders the playground alone dragging his foot through the dirt But over time April realizes that Joey isn't just making random circles When you look at his designs from above a story emerges Joey's bird's eye drawings reveal what he observes and thinks about every day Told in alternating viewpoints April's in text and Joey's mostly in art the story gives the whole picture of what happens as these two outsiders find their rightful places

Above Ground Sarah Gerdes, 2021-03-26 Under the bright lights of the Strip another world exists one where dancers live beside professionals who can't afford a place to live or don't want to be found in one of the world's most famous cities Corridors of sleeping areas are separated from communal food sections heat and water allocated It is the community of the water sewers nearly three hundred miles of tunnels existing below Las Vegas Attorney Shay Wilson has worked her way from a single wide trailer to UNLV where she graduated top of class taking a job at the top trust and estates firm in town One day she will open her own firm one proudly displaying her name But her dreams aren't forthcoming New clients are taken by the law firms female managing partner her rent has increased and her pride prevents her from asking her surrogate father for money Uncompromising she returns to bartending a few nights a week at the hottest club in town new clients follow as do designer clothes and a luxury apartment on the strip Yet as her success increases so does the number of lawyers dying in roadway accidents Stolen goods money laundering and human trafficking are no longer jokes said at law school but real activities Falling in love with a detective who believes she may be a suspect and avoiding a clothing executive convinced she is fencing his stolen products she must keep her job prove her innocence and learn the truth before she becomes one more dead attorney
