From Apartheid To Nation Building:

From Apartheid to Nation-building Hermann Giliomee, Lawrence Schlemmer, 1993 This book studies apartheid its background ideology implementation and function and reform apartheid the South African government s latest solution to the continuing crisis Part One demonstrates that the apartheid system was not unique rather that it was built upon the segregation order which had developed as South Africa industrialized with the discovery of diamonds and gold Part Two critically examines the current South African situation and addresses possibilities for a resolution to the present conflict The authors explore the emerging political trends the effects of the sanctions campaign the prospects for an internationally backed settlement and the effects of internal pressure for change Drawing on available literature the authors then propose a framework for resolution Language Policy and Nation-Building in Post-Apartheid South Africa Jon Orman, 2008-08-27 The preamble to the post apartheid South African constitution states that South Africa belongs to all who live in it united in our diversity and promises to lay the foundations for a democratic and open society in which government is based on the will of the people and every citizen is equally protected by law and to improve the quality of life of all citizens This would seem to commit the South African government to amongst other things the implementation of policies aimed at fostering a common sense of South African national identity at societal dev opment and at reducing of levels of social inequality However in the period of more than a decade that has now elapsed since the end of apartheid there has been widespread discontent with regard to the degree of progress made in connection with the realisation of these constitutional aspirations The limits to liberation in the post apartheid era has been a theme of much recent research in the elds of sociology and political theory e q Luckham 1998 Robins 2005a Linguists have also paid considerable attention to the South African situation with the realisation that many of the factors that have prevented and are continuing to prevent effective progress towards the achievement of these constitutional goals are linguistic in their origin Modernization, Nation-Building, and Television History Stewart Anderson, Melissa Chakars, 2014-11-20 This innovative collection investigates the ways in which television programs around the world have highlighted modernization and encouraged nation building It is an attempt to catalogue and better understand the contours of this phenomenon which took place as television developed and expanded in different parts of the world between the 1950s and the 1990s From popular science and adult education shows to news magazines and television plays few themes so thoroughly penetrated the small screen for so many years as modernization with television producers and state authorities using television programs to bolster modernization efforts Contributors analyze the hallmarks of these media efforts nation building consumerism and consumer culture the education and integration of citizens and the glorification of the nation s technological achievements Max Planck Yearbook of United Nations Law Armin Von Bogdandy, Rüdiger Wolfrum, Christiane E. Philipp, 2005-09 This publication constitutes the first scholarly periodical to focus on activities of the United Nations in the field of international law It recognizes the recent increased impact of the development of the World Organization its Specialized Agencies and other aspects of the United Nations System as well as their effect on the shaping of international relations Nation Building at Play Marion Keim, 2003 Marion Keim maintains that through properly organized sport South Africans can learn to play together with respect learn to all be on the same team and in the process contribute to the building of a new South Africa The Black and White Rainbow Carolyn Holmes, 2020-10-13 Nation building imperatives compel citizens to focus on what makes them similar and what binds them together forgetting what makes them different Democratic institution building on the other hand requires fostering opposition through conducting multiparty elections and encouraging debate Leaders of democratic factions like parties or interest groups can consolidate their power by emphasizing difference But when held in tension these two impulses toward remembering difference and forgetting it between focusing on unity and encouraging division are mutually constitutive of sustainable democracy Based on ethnographic and interview based fieldwork conducted in 2012 13 The Black and White Rainbow Reconciliation Opposition and Nation Building in Democratic South Africa explores various themes of nation and democracy building including the emotional and banal content of symbols of the post apartheid state the ways that gender and race condition nascent nationalism the public performance of nationalism and other group based identities integration and sharing of space language diversity and the role of democratic functioning including party politics and modes of opposition Each of these thematic chapters aims to explicate a feature of the multifaceted nature of identity building and link the South African case to broader literatures on both nationalism and democracy National Identity and Democracy in A Democratic South Africa? Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-04-28 A Africa Mai Palmberg, 1999 Province of South Africa Democratic South Africa Constitutional Engineering in a Divided Society explores the formidable challenges of building a democratic system in a society as racially and ethnically divided as South Africa The book underscores the complexity of crafting institutions and processes that can foster inclusivity and stability in a deeply polarized setting South Africa's history of apartheid has left a legacy of distrust and ideological division with extreme political forces at both ends of the spectrum threatening the democratic experiment The author addresses critical questions of constitutional design minority rights protection and electoral systems emphasizing the necessity of innovative solutions to counter conflict and promote intergroup cooperation The study situates South Africa's democratization within a broader comparative context highlighting its potential as a case study for other divided societies It examines how democratic processes can transform relationships among political actors even in unpromising conditions By focusing on the interplay between constitutional processes and institutional design the book offers insights into how participation negotiation and decision making shape democratic outcomes Ultimately it presents South Africa as a quintessential challenge to democratic conflict management where success could provide valuable lessons for fostering democracy in similarly fragmented contexts This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds

Narratives of Nation Media, Memory and Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Charmaine McEachern, 2002 Narratives of Nation Media Memory Representation in the Making of the New South Africa The Griqua Conundrum Linda Waldman, 2007 This book offers a reconceptualisation of indigenous people and their political involvement It demonstrates the deep intertwining of constructions of indigenousness and identity with national social and political histories and argues that differences and fractures within the indigenous movement between leaders spokespeople and ordinary men and women shape the nature of indigenous politics both nationally and internationally South Africa's resident population of Griqua provide the context for this exploration of indigenous mobilisation politics and ethnic identity The Griqua people have long sought and only recently acquired official recognition within their country of birth Using qualitative research methodologies and an anthropological approach this book documents negotiation between Griqua leaders organisers and government officials and in so doing details a complex process of mediation and interaction generally overlooked in the discourse of indigenous identity. This exploration of identity is essential to understanding post apartheid South African history politics and society In addressing the marginalisation of Griqua followers and examining the meaning of being Griqua for those quieter poorer people who live in the small town of Griquatown and who are relatively isolated from the Indigenous People's Forum and the United Nations the book also examines the hidden dimensions of political and indigenous mobilisation Traditional Leadership and Democratisation in Southern Africa Sandra Düsing, 2002 What are the impacts of ethnically based traditional political institutions on democratic state and nation building in Southern Africa and how do heterogeneous sources of legitimacy affect the prospects of long term democratic regime consolidation What are the impacts of traditionalism employed for purposes of party political mobilization An indicator for the political influence of traditional leadership in Southern Africa is the fact that a considerable number of democratically elected politicians in high office originate from aristocratic families representing hereditary traditional leadership structures for centuries This is evident for the charismatic founding president of the new South Africa Nelson Mandela as well as for his adversary the prime minister in office Mangosuthu Buthelezi The careful reconsideration of this state behind the state has been identified as crucial in this study to make any realistic assessments of the prospects for sustainable democratization in Southern African countries in the near future Nation Building, Or Democracy by Other Means Hamid Karimianpour, 2011 Despotism fundamentalism and the rise of terrorism have created a puzzling moral question in the twenty first century how far should America go to help press ahead political and cultural change in the world Many Americans believe that we have a moral duty to help change the world for the better In 1965 the US replaced France as the main player on the Western side in the war in Vietnam A few years ago the US took ownership of the Saudi king's fear of Iran's nuclear capability Today the US is trying to replace South Korea in the South North Korean conflict Yet Washington's desire to take ownership of conflicts around the globe generates anti American sentiments in the conflict zones Our actions are often viewed by people in other parts of the world as meddling in their internal affairs This book explores five major historical transformations over the past two centuries and demonstrates the significance of internal leadership for social political and cultural change The reader will discover that while international pressure has often played a pivotal role in encouraging change peaceful democratizations are historically not imposed from outside but are initiated and executed by leaders within the old system Written in easy and thought provoking language the book makes a valuable contribution to the discussion about our obligations and limitations for changing the world Cinematic Portrayals of African Women and Girls in Political Conflict Norita Mdege, 2023-10-27 This book provides an interdisciplinary exploration of the cinematic representations of the experiences of African women and girls in situations of political conflict The role of cinema is important in providing information about the situation of women and girls in situations of political conflict and the main characters often also become signifiers of wider social political and economic ideas at both global and local levels Drawing on fictional and biographical cinematic representations this book considers films covering a range of different regions experiences historical periods and other contexts to draw a nuanced picture of African women and girls who participate in or are affected by African political conflicts The films are analysed using a decolonial feminist cultural approach which combines cultural approaches African feminisms and the contrapuntal method to ensure an inter textual intersectional and decolonial examination The book engages with multiple themes and topics including nationalism nation building neocolonialism memory history women s and girls agency and activism Through these themes and topics the book explores how the films represent African women's and girls agency in relation to their participation in social economic and political activities This book will make a significant contribution to literature focused on African women and girls within politics conflict studies and film studies Re-writing Pasts, Imagining Futures Gomia, Victor N., Ndi, Gilbert Shang, 2018-02-20 The papers in this volume focus on fiction and theatre in their traditional forms as well as in their encounters with novel and innovative forms and avenues of dissemination As a cultural practice that emerged from a process of protest and contestation of hegemony it is understandable that one main concern in African literature and literary criticism is the resistance against the emergence of marginalizing centers in formerly or currently marginalized societies with regard to discourses aesthetics and media of creation These new centers that sometimes undermine the strategic tactical exploitation of the relative advantage procured by each medium run the risk of leading to new forms of stratification that mitigate the import of African and African diasporic literatures The collection of essays therefore seeks to analyze the representation of pertinent socio political and historical questions in a variety of postcolonial texts from Africa and the African diasporas notably the Caribbean islands and the United States of America However far from re writing of history in a way that cedes to conservative worldviews creative writers and critics simultaneously attempt to chart ways forward for socially all inclusive futures In the context of colonial and neo colonial legacies that seem to forestall any sense of individual and collective self fulfillment contributors to this volume examine the pertinence of African fiction and theatre in imagining new vistas of re conceptualizing the postcolonial condition in ways that re galvanize the belief in an enabling Imagining the Cape Colony David Johnson, 2013-09-19 By returning to a pivotal moment in South African history the Cape Colony in the period 1770 1830 this book addresses current debates about nationalism colonialism and neo colonialism and postcolonial post apartheid culture Anthropology Beyond Culture Richard G. Fox, Barbara J. King, 2020-05-18 Culture is a vexed concept within anthropology From their earliest studies anthropologists have often noted the emotional attachment of people to their customs even in cases where this loyalty can make for problems Do anthropologists now suffer the same kind of disability with respect to their continuing emotional attachment to the concept of culture This book considers the state of the culture concept in anthropology and finds fault with a love it or leave it attitude Rather than pledging undying allegiance or summarily dismissing it the volume argues that anthropology can continue with or without a concept of culture depending on the research questions being asked and furthermore that when culture is retained no single definition of it is practical or necessary Offering sensible solutions to a topic of hot debate this book will be essential reading for anyone seeking to learn what a concept of culture can offer anthropology and what anthropology can offer the concept of culture Globalization and Contemporary Art Jonathan Harris, 2011-03-31 In a series of newly commissioned essays by both established and emerging scholars Globalization and Contemporary Art probes the effects of internationalist culture and politics on art across a variety of media Globalization and Contemporary Art is the first anthology to consider the role and impact of art and artist in an increasingly borderless world First major anthology of essays concerned with the impact of globalization on contemporary art Extensive bibliography and a full index designed to enable the reader to broaden knowledge of art and its relationship to globalization Unique analysis of the contemporary art market and its operation in a globalized economy Commissioning and Contesting Post-Apartheid's Human Rights Ulrike Kistner, 2003 The essays compiled in this book take issue with some of the directions of human rights politics in the immediate post apartheid period They look at the relationship between different sets of rights within the political contestations in South Africa To the terms of social struggles for rights and justice this book brings perspectives from narrative psychoanalysis political philosophy and medical history and from the history of national liberation struggles nationalism and citizenship From Colonization to Democracy Alan Lester, 1998-12-31 This account of the development of modern South African society seeks to establish the geographical and historical context in which change has taken place The author describes important historical continuities in South Africa which have shaped present society including social groupings and their stratification policital institutions the patterns of human geography economic structure and external links and influences Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney, 2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid's End Africa's

Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution's solidarity with Africa Cuba's role in the southern African national liberation and anti-colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island's commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement
