From Crime:

From Crime Policy to Victim Policy Ezzat A. Fattah, 2016-01-07 From Crime Scene to Courtroom: A Comprehensive Guide to Criminal Law Practice Prof. (Dr.) J.S.P. Srivastava ,Mr. Arun Kumar ,Ms. Neha Singh, 2025-07-04 How to Protect Yourself from Crime Ira A. Lipman, United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, 1975 Moving on From Crime and Substance Use Anne Robinson, Paula Hamilton, 2016-09-21 Desistance is one of the big news stories of the criminological world Research suggests that as offenders turn their backs on crime they often change their identities as well as their behaviour Yet we know much less about how reforming or transforming identity might be affected by gender age or ethnicity This book focuses on diversity and showcases research from a wide range of authors in the field It considers the similarities and differences between desisting from crime and recovering from addiction Taking the desistance and recovery debates in unfamiliar directions it examines the experiences of change for individuals seeking healthier and more successful futures Firearm Injury from Crime Marianne W. Zawitz, 1996 Document Retrieval Index , 1976

Facilitating Desistance from Aggression and Crime Calvin M. Langton, James R. Worling, 2022-06-29 In Facilitating Desistance from Aggression and Crime Theory Research Strength Based Practices Drs Calvin Langton and James Worling have gathered together internationally renowned authorities in the fields of psychology psychiatry criminology social work and law to critically examine desistance as a construct process and outcome as well as the place of strengths work in correctional and forensic mental health settings Integrating theory empirical evidence and applied practices this timely volume is an essential scholarly resource with a clear practical emphasis for policy makers researchers practitioners and graduate students Ebook: Urban Economics O'SULLIVAN, 2012-01-16 Ebook Urban Economics From Mafia to Organised Crime Anna Sergi, 2017-07-19 This book presents primary research conducted in Italy USA Australia and the UK on countering strategies and institutional perceptions of Italian mafias and local organized crime groups Through interviews and interpretation of original documents this study firstly demonstrates the interaction between institutional understanding of the criminal threats and historical events that have shaped these perceptions Secondly it combines analysis of policies and criminal law provisions to identify how policing models which combat mafia and organised crime activities are organized and constructed in each country within a comparative perspective After presenting the similarities between the four differing policing models Sergi pushes the comparison further by identifying both conceptual and procedural convergences and divergences across both the four models and within international frameworks By looking at topics as varied as mafia mobility money laundering drug networks and gang violence this book ultimately seeks to reconsider the conceptualizations of both mafia and organized crime from a socio behavioural and cultural perspective Highlights from 20 Years of Surveying Crime Victims Marianne W. Zawitz, United States. Bureau of Justice Statistics, 1993 Graphs The New And Complete Dictionary Of The English Language John Ash, 1775 Understanding Penal Practice Ioan Durnescu, Fergus

McNeill, 2013-10-30 Criminological and penological scholarship has in recent years explored how and why institutions and systems of punishment change and how and why these changes differ in different contexts. Important though these analyses are, this book focuses not so much on the changing nature of institutions and systems but rather the changing nature of penal practice and practitioners. Bringing together leading researchers from around the world, this collection unites studies that aim to describe and critically analyse penal practice with studies that investigate its effectiveness and prescribe its future development. Reversing penology's usual preoccupation with the prison, the book focuses mainly on penal practice in the community, i.e. on probation, parole, offender supervision and community corrections. The first part of the book focuses on understanding practice and practitioners, exploring how changing social, cultural, political and organisational contexts influence practice and how training, development, professional socialisation and other factors influence practitioners. The second part is concerned with how practitioners can be best supported to develop the skills and approaches that seem most likely to generate positive impacts. It contains accounts of new practice models and approaches as well as reports of research projects seeking both to discover and to encourage effective practices. This book explores internationally significant and cutting edge theoretical and empirical work on the cultures, practices, roles and impacts of frontline practitioners in delivering penal sanctions. As such, it will be of interest to researchers in criminology, social work and social policy as well as correctional policy makers and those involved in community supervision.

Routledge International Handbook of Critical Policing Studies Nicole L. Asquith, Jess Rodgers, James Clover, Gary Cordner, Angela Dwyer, Rishweena Ahmed, 2025-06-06

Critical analyses of policing have accompanied accounts of the police since the early days of modern police organisations. More so than ever, police and policing are subject to close and critical scrutiny from governments and the public. It is timely therefore to consider what is critical about police and policing. The Routledge International Handbook of Critical Policing Studies brings together scholars and practitioners to critically explore the full continuum of safety governance from police reforms to the redistribution of policing resources to the replacement of state police. In offering the three Rs of policing: reform, redistribute, replace, we provide a conceptualisation of critical policing studies that acknowledges a continuum of policing that mirrors the different trajectories, priorities and possibilities that exist across different cultural and historical contexts. This collection is composed of 65 scholars and practitioners across 39 chapters, edited by a team of police academics and policing scholars to showcase accounts of policing from outside the Anglo-European metropole, privileging works from First Nations people and from the Global South and presenting contextualised solutions to the problems facing police and communities. This Handbook identifies the key issues facing the police and safety governance across the globe and offers insights into the implications for policing theory and practice, proposing solutions to some of the most intransigent problems facing contemporary societies. Individually and as a collection, this Handbook will be an essential read for scholars, practitioners and activists alike.
