From Idea To Matter Nine Sculptors:

From Idea to Matter Edward Albee, 2000 From Idea to Matter brings Edward Albee America's foremost playwright to the visual arts stage. The book documents a unique collaboration between Albee and the Anderson Gallery to bring together the work of nine contemporary sculptors: John Beech, John Duff, David Fulton, Barry Goldberg, David McDonald, Richard Nonas, Mia Westerlund Roosen, Jonathan Thomas, and Paul Whiting. Albee has selected the artists, chosen the work, and designed an exhibition installation. From Idea to Matter contains full color images of the artists' work, an introduction by Albee, an insightful conversation between Albee and Harry Rand, art historian from the Smithsonian Institution, and an in-depth discussion of the artists' work by Rand. Edward Albee has been visiting museums, art galleries, art studios, and collecting art for the past 40 years, developing a strong personal visual opinion and aesthetic. His approach to the curatorial process can be compared to the artists' dedication to their sculpture and is equally sure and confident.

The Cambridge Companion to Edward Albee Stephen Bottoms, 2005-07-21 Edward Albee, perhaps best known for his acclaimed and infamous 1960s drama Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? is one of America's greatest living playwrights. Now in his seventies, he is still writing challenging, award-winning dramas. This collection of essays on Albee, which includes contributions from the leading commentators on Albee's work, brings fresh critical insights to bear by exploring the full scope of the playwright's career from his 1959 breakthrough with The Zoo Story to his recent Broadway success The Goat or Who is Sylvia (2002). The contributors include scholars of both theatre and English literature, and the essays thus consider the plays both as literary texts and as performed drama. The collection considers a number of Albee's lesser-known and neglected works, provides a comprehensive introduction and overview, and includes an exclusive original interview with Mr. Albee on topics spanning his whole career.

Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater. Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century, and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago. But aside from a few notable exceptions, gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings. Conversely, most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work. This reference is a guide to their creative achievements. Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists. While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post-Stonewall U.S., some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades. A number of these writers are well known, including Edward Albee, Harvey Fierstein, and Allen Ginsberg. Others, such as Alan Bowne, Timothy Liu, and Robert O'Hara, merit wider recognition. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography, a discussion of major works and themes, an overview of the author's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies.

Historicity Jan-Ivar Lindén,2021-07-19 History stands not only for a narrative or descriptive relation to the past but also for an ongoing process in which we are involved on several levels in ordinary life as well as in our epistemic endeavours natural science and technology included Historicity is thus not only an important question for historians but for everyone interested in understanding what all our civilisation is about The present volume sheds some light on different aspects of this ontological dependence The first part deals with the historicity of understanding Fran oise Dastur Arbogast Schmitt Samuel Weber the second with the limits of making Emil Angehrn Nicholas Davey Jan Ivar Lind n and the third with the future of memory Jayne Svenungsson Christoph T rcke Bernhard Waldenfels      Abraham Lincoln Sculpture Created by Avard T. Fairbanks Avard Tennyson Fairbanks,2002 Documentary of bronze monuments portraits reliefs and statuettes and the process of creating the sculpture      Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood,David Hulks,Alex Potts,2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture s radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenberg Andr Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture s physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer s tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works      Contemporary Art and the Home Colin Painter,2020-05-26 The home is for many people the location for their most intense relationships with visual things Because they are constructed through the objects we choose domestic spaces are deeply revealing of a range of cultural issues How is our interpretation of an object affected by the domestic environment in which it is placed Why choose a stainless steel teapot over a leopard print one How do the images hanging on the walls of our homes arrive there In placing contemporary art in the context of the ordinary home this book embarks on the contentious topic of whether high art impacts on ordinary people What is the size and nature of the audience for contemporary art in Britain Do people really visit more art galleries than attend football matches What is the significance of the home in relation to such questions Indeed what constitutes art in the home This book carefully unpicks these questions as well as the troubled relationship between the home as a place of comfort and reassurance and the often unsettling and challenging images offered by contemporary art Within the art world the home has been addressed as a subject and even used as a temporary gallery and a space for installations and yet it is not common for works by today s avant garde artists to be conceived and marketed to participate in the domestic lives that most people live Handsomely illustrated this book unites contemporary art craft and design with sociology anthropology and cultural studies to provide an unusual and forthright addition to ongoing art and culture debates
