Kimberly A. Redding, 2004-07-30 Drawing on oral narratives and archival sources gathered in Berlin this study explores how some 35 Berliners have woven personal memories their city's divided past and their nation's complex historical legacy into cohesive life narratives and collective identities Redding argues that daily experience during the final years of World War II inadvertently prepared German youth for defeat and occupation While postwar officials lamented youth's apparent apathy young Berliners were in fact applying lessons in pragmatism and self reliance learned as National Socialist society crumbled in 1944 and 1945 Although competing political forces strove to rapidly remobilize German youth young Berliners took advantage of destabilized sociopolitical structures in their war torn city to assert autonomy and pursue personal initiatives Their retrospective narratives reveal creative efforts to claim for themselves the normal pleasures of modern youth in the

Daughter A self recovery guide for all of mothers and daughters by a psychoanalytic expert How mothers can reclaim their lives as independent women and human beings Why do mothers turn more to their daughters than sons when feeling upset or distressed Why do mothers look upon their happily married daughters with not just pride but a hint of jealousy Why do daughters when thinking about their mothers feel gratitude as well as guilt and resentment We need to lose our mothers to find ourselves And we need to find ourselves for our daughters to live their own lives Woo ran Park a psychoanalytic expert who for more than ten years has conducted over 10 000 psychotherapy and dream interpretation sessions reaches deep into psychology research and case studies to unlock the secret behind the love hate relationship between mothers and daughters and explain how we can protect our girls from this emotional wounding across generations Many reasons lie behind the mother s obsession with her daughter and the daughter s inability to break free from this hold But the author pays particular attention to the female tendency to attain self realization by meeting the unmet needs of others Mothers typically see the son or husband as the other and try to satisfy their needs but when it comes to the daughter who they see as their equivalent they re more likely to make demands Likewise daughters identify with the mother and see the mother s emotions as her own This is what makes the mother daughter relationship so complicated the daughter is angry at the mother who is full of demands but gives little love and wants to hate her but can t This deep psychological bond between the mother and daughter starts to show cracks as they become older introducing problems both big and small into their lives Feelings of obsession bitterness resentment longing and gratitude get rolled into one and make the two oscillate between love and hate In short the mother and daughter have failed to create a healthy distance between themselves Then what can we do Park says we should question the social concept of unconditional motherly love and try to bring to the surface the mom s deeply buried wants and desires as a woman Only then can we forge a path different from our mother s and our daughters live a different life from our young selves The author walks us through the main conduits through which the mother s unconscious is passed onto the daughter emotions gaze unmet needs maternal love husband and how we can reclaim ourselves as not just a woman but as a human being This book will help you to learn the Psychology for Mothers Daughters and all of women and recover yourself Feelings of Guilt Resentment and Gratitude About Female Emotions Daughters Grow up Feeding on Mother s Emotions About Mother s Emotions Am I Really My Child s Mother About the Maternal Gaze I Wanted to Be Mom s Loving Daughter About the Mother s Unmet Needs All Mothers are Strong About Maternal Love Moms Be Moms Dads Be Dads About Our Husbands Moms are Human Too About the Mother s Recovery NOW GET THE BOOK and start growing your skills to strengthen your relationships between MOMs and DAUGHTERS Growing Up with Risk Betsy Thom,Rosemary Sales,Jenny Pearce,2007-05-16 This book provides a critical analysis of ways in which risk assessment and management are defined and applied in policy theory and practice in relation to children and young people It explores the complexities of balancing responsibility for protecting the young with the benefits of risk taking and the need to allow experimentation
