Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the on going retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival The Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century With contributions from Eileen Bowser Tom Gunning Kristin Thompson Ben Brewster Steven Higgins Richard Koszarski Scott Simmon J B Kaufman Russell Merritt Patrick Loughney Cooper Graham Andre Gaudreault Yuri Tsivian Richard Allen The Origins of the Film Star System Andrew Shail,2019-05-30 Drawing on a wide range of archival sources Andrew Shail traces the emergence of film stardom in Europe and North America in the early 20th century Modifying and supplementing Richard deCordova s account of the birth of the US star system Shail describes the complex set of economic circumstances that led film studios and actors to consent to the adoption of a star system He then explores the film industry s turn from 1908 to making character based series films He details how these characters both prefigured and precipitated the star system demonstrating that series characters and the firmament of film stars are functionally equivalent and shows how openly fictional characters still provide the model for real film stars The Griffith Project, Volume 6 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 1912 is the first golden year in the career of D W Griffith There is still a wealth of treasures waiting to be uncovered in this year Their reappraisal is one of the aims of this sixth installment in the multi year research project commissioned by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival in Sacile The Griffith Project, Volume 9 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works stills await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field The Griffith Project, Volume 2 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 Silent film director D W Griffith is the subject of this study Only a small group of his more than 500 films are subject to analysis The creative output of Griffiths from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 is explored The Griffith Project, Volume 3 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works stills await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the on going retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival The Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century Celluloid Saviours Emily Caston,2020-05-22 In Celluloid Saviours the author analyses a corpus of US films dating from the silent era that she calls film blanc In these fantasy films a guardian spirit with extraordinary powers suspends the ordinary known laws of time and space and a main character reforms himself or herself in life changing ways The author argues that the historical pattern of film blanc relates to the rise and fall of liberal and reform thought in US politics specifically to conceptions of human nature as a tabula rasa This conception is evident both in the early feature films featuring angels such as Chaplin s The Kid and much later examples such as the 1980s box office hit Trading Places She argues that this narrative tradition runs from Hollywood s beginnings to the present day and is foreshadowed in the English ghost stories of Charles Dickens The classic era of film blanc is epitomised in the enduringly popular film It s a Wonderful Life More recent examples of narrative form analysed by Caston include The Truman Show and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The Griffith Project, The Volume 7 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been as extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multivolume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival the Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century This volume covers the year 1913 and includes J B Kaufman s notes on the Griffith supervised Liberty Belles and A Fair Rebel as well as Griffith s first feature Judith of Bethulia A Companion to D. Gauthier Lea Jacobs Joyce Jesionowski Charlie Keil Richard Koszarski Arthur Lennig Pat Loughney David Mayer Russell Merritt Jan Olsson Paul Spehr Yuri Tsivian Linda Williams In early 1996 an international group of 35 specialists in silent cinema volunteered to write commentaries on more than six hundred films directed written produced and supervised by D W Griffith or featuring him as a performer for the eleven volume series The Griffith Project the largest monograph ever assembled on an individual film director in conjunction with the massive retrospective held at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival from 1996 to 2008 All authors involved in The Griffith Project were bound to strict editorial rules most notably the fact that all titles in the series would be assigned to them in pre determined groups rather than as a result of their own individual preference for this or that specific entry The patience and commitment demonstrated by all scholars in this endeavor requires at least a symbolic recognition We therefore invited the members of the project team to write an essay on a D W Griffith related topic of their own choice The papers included in this volume constitute the response to our carte blanche invitation Our offer was also extended to other experts on D W Griffith who for various reasons were unable to participate in The Griffith Project but consistently supported it with their generous advice and insight This volume brings The Griffith Project to completion as 2008 sees the last installment of the D W Griffith program at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival with the screening of his films produced between 1925 and 1931 Not surprisingly twelve years of research on D W Griffith have unearthed an impressive wealth of knowledge but also an equally amazing array of new questions certainly enough of them to fill several more volumes Some of them including the increasingly complex issue of D W Griffith s role as production supervisor are only introduced or barely mentioned here but we are confident that what we have called the Griffith Project will continue at the Giornate and elsewhere with more research and newly found or preserved prints PAOLO CHERCHI USAI is Director of the National Film and Sound Archive of Australia He is co founder of the Pordenone Silent Film Festival and of the L Jeffrey Selznick School of Film Preservation at George Eastman House Rochester New York He directed the experimental feature film Passio 2007 His latest book is David Wark Griffith Editrice Il Castoro 2008 Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi, Michael Green, 2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history

The Griffith Project Paolo Cherchi Usai,1999 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still awaits proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field

American Cinema 1890-1909 Andre Gaudreault,2009-01-13 At the turn of the twentieth century cinema was quickly establishing itself as a legitimate form of popular entertainment The essays in American Cinema 1890 1909 explore and define how the making of motion pictures flowered into an industry that would finally become the central entertainment institution of the world Beginning with all the early types of pictures that moved this volume tells the story of the invention and consolidation of the various processes that gave rise to what we now call cinema By examining the battles over patents production exhibition and the reception of film readers learn how going to the movies became a social tradition in American society In the course of these two decades cinema succeeded both in establishing itself among other entertainment and instructional media and in updating various forms of spectacle

The Griffith Project, Volume 10 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films had been the subject of a systematic analysis Now for the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 is explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival The Griffith Project is now an indispensable guide to his work This is the final volume of the project

Borderland Films Dominique Brégent-Heald,2015-11 The concept of North American borderlands in the cultural imagination fluctuated greatly during the Progressive Era as it was affected by similarly changing concepts of identity and geopolitical issues influenced by the Mexican Revolution and the First World War Such shifts became especially evident in films set along the Mexican and Canadian borders as filmmakers explored how these changes simultaneously represented and influenced views of society at large Borderland Films examines the intersection of North American borderlands and culture as portrayed through early twentieth century cinema Drawing on hundreds of films Dominique Br gent Heald investigates the significance of national borders the ever changing concepts of race gender and enforced boundaries the racialized ideas of criminality that painted the borderlands as unsafe and in need of control and the wars that showed how international conflict significantly influenced the United States relations with its immediate neighbors Borderland Films provides a fresh perspective on American cinematic cultural and political history and on how cinema contributed to the establishment of societal narratives in the early twentieth century

Dickens and the Dream of Cinema Grahame

Smith, 2003-11-08 Taking his cue from Walter Benjamin's concept of each epoch dreaming the epoch that is to follow Grahame Smith argues that Dickens novels can be regarded as proto filmic in the detail of their language as well as their larger formal structures This possibility arises from Dickens creative engagement with the city as metropolis as it emerges in the London of the 1830s plus his immersion in the visual entertainments of his day such as the panorama as well as technological advances such as the railway which anticipates cinema in some of its major features The book offers a new way of reading Dickens through the perspective of a form which he knew nothing of while simultaneously suggesting an account of his part in the manifold forces that led to the appearance of film towards the end of the 19th century
