Grillparzers Werke 2vol:

The Turn of the Century Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout, 1995 Rewritten versions of contributions to an international conference held at the University of Antwerp in May 1992 Starting point for the conference was the vagueness of the very terms modernism and modernity In the first section a group of comparatists address the theoretical and terminological problems of modernism Practical readings of modernist writers discussions of different modernist movements and the work of critics who have contributed to debates about modernism make up the second section The third section looks at the problem of modernism from an interartistic and interdisciplinary perspective The Inspiration Motif in the Works of Franz Grillparzer Gisela Stein, 2012-12-06 Franz Grillparzer was not a man of extravagance either in phrase or conduct His life as an individual and artist is marked by a reticence an aversion to the unveiling of the inner SOul 1 that is perhaps best matched by the concise style and expression of his works This art of effective restraint is particularly visible in the dramas where often a single word or indeed an utter silence carries the greatest emotional impact There is an absolute lack of sound and fury signifying nothing even in the frenzy of inspiration 2 Grillparzer carefully chooses words that best convey his thoughts and for purely emotional release he turns to another medium which he sharply distinguished from poetry to music If this poet then who knows no empty phrases applies terms like betrothed of the gods 3 mother of all greatness 4 mighty 5 lever of the universe messenger of divine happiness 6 to one and the same concept at different times we may assume that he here expresses something deeply anchored in his being And indeed the motif of concentration Sammlung and inspiration Begeisterung is one that we meet again and again in the poetry the diaries and the dramas This emotional state is at all times highly revered and greatly sought by the poet it is in fact made a condition of creative productivity and as the years pass finally develops into a condition of life itself in the prophecy of Libussa The Turn of the Century/Le tournant du siècle Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout, 2012-06-21 No detailed description available for The Turn of the Century Le tournant du si cle The Evolution of the Autobiography from 1770-1850 Heidi I. Stull, 1985 Autobiographical writings remained throughout long centuries relatively unaffected by literary modes and changes From 1770 1850 new developments in literature especially the emergence of the novel as well as new trends in philosophy and aesthetics ushered in a new era reflective of a search for greater consciousness and sensibility a revolutionary mode of thought and life that profoundly affected the autobiographical genre This study examines a number of autobiographies which herald or reflect these new trends and developments how these and the autobiographer s changing objectives decisively enriched and modified the genre and how they gradually stir the genre toward an inevitable identity crisis The Urbanization of Opera Anselm Gerhard, 1998-08-15 Why do so many operas end in suicide murder and death Why do many characters in large scale operas exhibit neurotic behaviors worthy of psychoanalysis Why are the legendary grands operas much celebrated in their time so seldom performed today The Beethoven Quartet Companion Robert Winter, Robert Martin, 2023-09-01 While the Beethoven string quartets are to chamber music what the plays of Shakespeare are to drama even seasoned concertgoers will welcome guidance with these personal and sometimes enigmatic works This collection offers Beethoven lovers both detailed notes on the listening experience of each quartet and a stimulating range of more general perspectives Who has the quartets audience been How were the quartets performed before the era of sound recordings What is the relationship between classical and romantic in the quartets How was their reception affected by social and economic history What sorts of interpretive decisions are made by performers today The Companion brings together a matchless group of Beethoven experts Joseph Kerman is perhaps the world's most renowned Beethoven scholar Robert Winter an authority on sketches for the late quartets has created interactive programs regarded as milestones in multimedia publishing Maynard Solomon has written an acclaimed biography of Beethoven Leon Botstein is the conductor of the American Symphony Orchestra as well as a distinguished social historian and college president Robert Martin writes from his experience as cellist of the Sequoia Quartet And the book is anchored by the program notes of Michael Steinberg who has served as Artistic Advisor of the San Francisco Symphony and the Minnesota Orchestra While the Beethoven string quartets are to chamber music what the plays of Shakespeare are to drama even seasoned concertgoers will welcome guidance with these personal and sometimes enigmatic works This collection offers Beethoven lovers both

Gender and Identity in Franz Grillparzer's Classical Dramas Alicia E. Ellis, 2021-06-10 In this provocative work Alicia E. Ellis provides readings of Franz Grillparzer's dramas as proto feminist formulations of female figures who refuse the gendered constraints of the ancient world The revisionist perspectives of the tragedies recover a latent feminist impulse in the stories of Sappho Medea and Hero as identities marked by linguistic refusals Activating new ideas of narrative experience Ellis transports the figure of the female to the seat of language testimony and presence Inflected by a taut impasse with a culture not produced to include female speech Ellis shows how Grillparzer's adaptations of classical materials offer a working theory about the ways in which new forms of language highlight female energy around autonomy and agency providing a corrective to previous cultural practices A failure to comply with social and political norms demonstrates how the three assessed and then resolved exclusionary acts through rebellious discursive performances that frame how contested identities can be thought and reformulated Readings in this study draw from the work of Sara Ahmed and Judith Butler on cultural framing and cultural translation in contemporary feminist critique Ahmed and Butler direct attention to the language of the texts what they mean and how they produce that meaning

Domination, Dependence, Denial, and Despair Charles F. Good, 1993 Familial relationships have been a frequent topic throughout the history of German literature The father daughter relationship is an important example Domination Dependence Denial and Despair combines an analysis of sociological historical and psychological aspects of this relationship and an examination of four eighteenth century German plays with extraordinarily close readings of the nineteenth century dramas The work shows how the fathers attempt to dominate their daughters and force societal norms on them The daughters reactions range from dependence to denial ending their individuation process in despair Culture and Diplomacy Reinhard Eisendle,Suna Suner,Hans Ernst Weidinger,2023-12-22 Diplomats had multiple tasks not only negotiating with the representatives of other states but also mediating culture and knowledge and not least elaborating reports on their observations of politics society and culture Culture according to the studies featured in this book is defined as a complex sphere including aspects like systems of communication literature music arts education and the creation of knowledge This edition containing contributions from six conferences held in Vienna and Istanbul by the Don Juan Archiv Wien focuses on the complex diplomatic and cultural relations between the Ottoman Empire and Europe from the time of the early embassies to Istanbul up to Tanzimat Grundrisz zur Geschichte der deutschen Dichtung. 3 Bde.
