Groote Schuur:

Transformation in Action Iraj Abedian, Brigid Strachan, Tania Ajam, 1998 The health services in South Africa have undergone a major reorientation in an attempt to provide the poorest and most vulnerable segments of society with increased access to affordable quality health care Unfortunately the new policies and health plans have not translated into a commensurate improvement of actual health service delivery and health status A key missing element has been the lack of an appropriate financial planning and budgeting system This book Transformation in Action attempts to fill the void that exists between planning budgeting and implementation in the public health sector Drawing on local and international research and policy experiments it outlines an alternative system called the Performance Budgeting System PBS Unlike the current budgeting system the PBS system integrates financial planning and management with strategic operational performance and quality management objectives to ensure that within budget constraints service delivery outputs have the greatest possible impact on health outcomes In so doing this system can contribute substantially to achieving the objectives of recent public sector reform initiatives and the ideals of the Constitution The Diamond Mines of South Africa Gardner Fred Williams, 1905 Oncology for Health-Care Professionals V. Pervan, L. H. Cohen, T. Jaftha, 1995 Written from a South African perspective by a team of oncology specialists this comprehensive book gives health care professionals an in depth understanding and knowledge of oncology The authors have all made significant contributions to developing oncology nursing as a speciality in the subcontinent They stress comprehensive holistic patient care by a multidisciplinary team The book uses the scientific method to meet its core objectives The Diamond Mines of South Africa Gardner F. Williams, 2011-05-19 First published in 1902 this work describes the discovery and development of diamond mines in South Africa South Africa Marina Ottaway, 2010-12-01 The unbanning of the African National Congress and the release of Nelson Mandela in February of 1990 cleared the way for negotiations toward a new post apartheid political order in South Africa But three years later the main parties have made little progress toward a compromise while violence escalates in the townships In this revealing study Marina Ottaway examines the new conflicts emerging in South Africa the factors influencing them and the probable outcome She shows that the black on white conflict that has made the country a pariah in the past has evolved into a much more complex state of affairs and explains that the transition is likely to take an unprecedented form Beginning with a brief history of the events since Mandela's release Ottaway provides a vivid account of the evolving conflict over apartheid She discusses the complexity of conflict resolution in a country where internal and external currents work against each other and where the struggle for power transcends any strides toward peace Ottaway thoroughly addresses the issues involved in South Africa's transition from apartheid She explains that the abolition of the pervasive system has more far reaching implications than originally thought South Africa explores the effects that the international climate of the 1990s has had on the country's transition Ottaway contends that the international community rejects apartheid but is unsympathetic to black demands for redistribution and has condemned the white government's vision of separate development but accepts ethnic nationalism as inevitable. She describes the dramatic effects the new world order has had on South Africa and assesses what those changes will mean to the country's difficult transition. The Colonialist William Kelleher Storey, 2025-05 Mining magnate, politician and imperialist Cecil Rhodes had a larger than life impact on the development of Southern Africa and the extension of British imperial power. This critical biography of Rhodes elaborates his life and times showing how his racist politics impacted mining, industry, transportation, warfare and society while discussing his controversial and enduring legacies. Statutes of the Union of South Africa South Africa, 1911 Statutes of the Union of South Africa 1910- South Africa, 1911 The Last Afrikaner Leaders Hermann Giliomee, 2013-11-15 Finalist for the Alan Paton Award. In his latest book, renowned historian Hermann Giliomee challenges the conventional wisdom on the downfall of white rule and the end of apartheid. Instead of impersonal forces or the resourcefulness of an indomitable resistance movement, he emphasizes the role of Nationalist leaders and of their outspoken critic Frederick van Zyl Slabbert. What motivated each of the last Afrikaner leaders from Verwoerd to de Klerk? How did each try to reconcile economic growth, white privilege and security with the demands of an increasingly assertive black leadership and unexpected population figures? In exploring each leader's background, reasoning and personal foibles, Giliomee takes issue with the assumption that South Africa was inexorably heading for an ANC victory in 1994. He argues that historical accidents radically affected the course of politics. Drawing on primary sources and personal interviews, Giliomee offers a fresh and stimulating political history that attempts not to condemn but to understand why the last Afrikaner leaders did what they did and why their own policies ultimately failed them. The ASCI Handbook is also a tribute to the many dedicated people who work with spinal cord injured individuals every day, helping them towards a place of healing and independence. Effective teamwork and sharing of responsibilities is the secret to a successful Spinal Cord Injury Unit. There have been numerous requests by doctors, physiotherapists, occupational therapists, nursing personnel and other categories of staff from hospitals in South Africa for information and practical guidelines on the management of acute spinal cord injuries. The ASCI Handbook is one way to provide in this need. Routledge Handbook of Critical African Heritage Studies Ashton Sinamai, John D.

Giblin, Shadreck Chirikure, Ishanlosen Odiaua, 2024-09-06 This handbook is a foundational reference point for critical heritage research about Africa and its diaspora. Foregrounding the diversity of knowledge systems needed to examine heritage issues in such a diverse continent, the contributors to this volume argue for an understanding of heritage that is at once both natural and cultural, tangible and intangible, political and dissonant, going beyond the physical and objective to include subjective heart transplant on Barnard's personal life and South African society at large where apartheid legislation often made the difficulties of medicine even more convoluted. The role of black medical staff like Hamilton Naki is explored as is the intense rivalry that arose between other famous heart surgeons and Barnard. How did Barnard manage to beat them all in this race of life and death? How much did his famous charisma have to do with it all? And in the light of his later years, his subsequent successes and considerable failures, what is Barnard's legacy today? Styan covers it all in this fascinating new account of a real heartbreaker.
