It's Not Always Easy to Sit on Your Mouth celebrates the 25th anniversary of the esteemed journal Social Work with Groups with a collection of 21 narratives from group work practitioners and educators. These highly personal stories from a range of social workers, young and old, famous and not so famous, reflect each author's development and experience, serving as both instruction and inspiration for practitioners and educators. This unique collection by turns humorous, moving, profound, and down to earth, gets to the heart of what it means to be a member of the social work community. Each chapter of Stories Celebrating Group Work draws on its contributor's area of expertise and interest in a specific topic, chronicling the development of the author's understanding, appreciation, and skill. Authors address the everyday concerns of social work professionals such as maximizing mutual aid, promoting positive norms, maintaining authority in group work, managing conflict, dealing with taboo subjects, building a group work culture in a human services organization, working with a co-leader, tapping the strengths of group members, and addressing social change. The individual stories of working with men, women, and children suffering through abuse, homelessness, addiction, and teenage pregnancy in places as diverse as East Harlem, Maine, Canada, Nebraska, Long Island, Haiti, Uruguay, help form a collegial spirit as group workers gain insight from the theory and practice of those who went before. The personal stories you'll find in Stories Celebrating Group Work include How I Became a Social Worker, The Power of Group Work with Kids, How the Relational Model of Group Work Developed My Love Affair with Stages of Group Development, But I Want to Do a Real Group, Racial Difference and Human Commonality, The Worker-Client Relationship, and many more. Stories Celebrating Group Work: It's Not Always Easy to Sit on Your Mouth is a one-of-a-kind collection of stories at once entertaining and educational. It's an essential read for beginning and seasoned human services practitioners and educators involved with or interested in working with groups.

Group Work In Correctional Rehabilitation: Practitioners' Experiences In Singapore Prison Service Boon Siang Kwek, Troy Jack Thevathasan, Karen Li Ling Wong, 2025-06-17 Group work in the Singapore Prison Service (SPS) started in 2001 and has remained as the main channel for rehabilitation to take place. This book explores the transformative power of group therapy within a correctional setting, offering a comprehensive guide for therapists, psychologists, counsellors, and prison staff who facilitate therapeutic groups for incarcerated individuals. Grounded in evidence-informed practices, this work delves into SPS's progressive and professional approaches in rehabilitation through the lens of specialists and correctional officers who lead intervention groups for prisoners and drug abusers accumulated over the last two decades. The book provides insights into the unique ethical considerations of leading groups in a prison setting and the role correctional officers can also play in leading groups. With real-life case studies, facilitator tips, and guidance on managing group dynamics in a high-security environment, the book provides practitioners with the knowledge and understanding about working with individuals to improve decision-making skills and fostering positive behavioural change.
