Fire In These Ashes Spirituality Of Contemporary Religious Life:

The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1995 Joan Chittister writes from the perspective of decades of deep involvement in religious life She writes about religious life in the here and now not about the value of its past nor about the possible shape of its future asking a simple question What if anything constitutes the spirituality of contemporary religious life What is the work of religious life now What are the virtues demanded of religious now that take character and test commitment that make the world closer to the reign of God and bring a person closer to the Truth of life Provided by publisher Fire in These Ashes-Study Guide Sister Joan Chittister, 1996-12-01 To find out more information about Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1995 Joan Chittister writes from the perspective of decades of deep involvement in religious life She writes about religious life in the here and now not about the value of its past nor about the possible shape of its future asking a simple question What if anything constitutes the spirituality of contemporary religious life What is the work of religious life now What are the virtues demanded of religious now that take character and test commitment that make the world closer to the reign of God and bring a person closer to the Truth of life The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1996 Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live Catholic Higher Education Melanie Morey, John Piderit, 2010-05-28 Today Catholic colleges and universities are dealing with critical questions about what constitutes Catholic collegiate identity Based on their research Morey and Piderit describe the present situation and offer concrete suggestions for enhancing Catholic identity culture and mission at all Catholic colleges and universities The authors define the critical issues and analyze and address them by using the rich construct of culture particularly organizational culture and they provide four different models of how Catholic colleges and universities can operate and successfully compete as religiously distinctive institutions in the higher education market      History of North American Benedictine Women Laura Swan, 2001 A much needed research and reference bibliography for all who are interested in the history of Benedictine Women in North America Those interested in Benedictine spirituality liturgy and prayer will find useful resources here as well      Anglicanism Andrew Wingate, 1998 The editors have brought together men and women lay and ordained from all over the world to demonstrate the breadth of experience spirituality and thinking that exists within the worldwide Anglican family      Deeper Joy, 2005      The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer, 2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the horizon of communion obedience becomes the singular thread of grace by which vowed religious become who they are called to be      Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that is who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let us take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side      More Than Enough Martha Westwater SC, 2017-11-14 What is it that makes most of us resist change In this book Martha Westwater takes her readers through the tumultuous times after Vatican II when centuries old assumptions about what constituted holiness were challenged The church's call for renewal invited women religious to discover again the roots of their call and the urgency of the needs of that time Martha shares how she and the sisters with whom she lives seek to move into the future with integrity and passion Perhaps in every life there is a single moment of insight that defines the soul's journey more than any other For Martha it occurred on October 9 1997 The twist of fate that allowed Martha to survive a horrific car crash while her two companions died gnawed at her as she wrestled with every survivor's question Why me Why did I live You will discover that the answer is something only the one who asks the question can articulate More than Enough Seeing Change as Blessing challenges each of us to reflect on our own life and recognize that we have always had enough of what we need for happiness The author uses both wisdom and wit to explore how God accompanies us through every change and uses them to bless our lives journey      Religious and Priestly Ongoing Formation with Christ Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow Fr Innocent Mabheka, 2013-07-31 Religious and Priestly Ongoing Formation with Christ Yesterday Today and Tomorrow is surely a powerful religious instrument which can be used to better oneself as a religious or a priest in our today's fast changing society. It helps one as a religious to look back at the values which initially motivated him/her to be a religious. One looks at these values and evaluates oneself to see how such values have helped him/her to develop as a human person and a religious. In this way the book works as an ongoing formation resource which helps one as a religious to grow spiritually and humanly. The book has also some practical case studies which may provoke some serious reflections within oneself. These reflections help one to have an ongoing burning zeal to serve Christ as a religious. Reading this book is a virtue of ongoing self-discovery in one's life as a religious or a priest.

Monasticism in Modern Times Isabelle Jonveaux, Stefania Palmisano, 2016-10-14 This book presents a broad sociological perspective on the contemporary issues facing Christian monasticism. Since the founding work of Max Weber the sociology of monasticism has received little attention. However the field is now being revitalized by some new research. Focusing on Christian monks and nuns the contributors explore continuity and discontinuity with the past in what superficially might appear a monolithic tradition. Contributors speak not only about monasticism in Europe and the United States but also in Africa and Latin America a different landscape where the question of recruitment does not figure among issues considered as problematic.

Double Crossed Kenneth Briggs, 2007-12-18 This groundbreaking exposé of the mistreatment of nuns by the Catholic Church reveals a history of unfulfilled promises, misuse of clerical power and a devastating failure to recognize the singular contributions of these religious women. The Roman Catholic Church in America has lost nearly 100 000 religious sisters in the last forty years a much greater loss than the priesthood. While the explanation is partly cultural contemporary women have more choices in work and life. Kenneth Briggs contends that the rapid disappearance of convents can be traced directly to the Church's betrayal of the promises of reform made by the Second Vatican Council. In Double Crossed Briggs documents the pattern of marginalization and exploitation that has reduced nuns to second even third class citizens within the Catholic Church. America's religious sisters were remarkable adventurous women. They educated children, managed health care of the sick and reached out to the poor and homeless. They went to universities and into executive chairs. Their efforts and successes however brought little appreciation from the Church which demeaned their roles, deprived them of power and placed them under the absolute authority of the all male clergy. Replete with quotations from nuns and former nuns Double Crossed uncovers a dark secret at the heart of the Catholic Church. Their voices and Briggs's research provide compelling insights into why the number of religious sisters has declined so precipitously in recent decades and why unless reforms are introduced nuns may vanish forever in America.

Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace Preaching Through Holy Days and Holidays Roger Alling, David J. Schlafer, 2003 Each volume would follow the pattern of 1 a brief opening introductory essay that would shape the context for that volume 2 a selection of sermons from preachers active in the pulpit organized under headings appropriate to the topic of the volume as well as sub topics within the volume 3 several complementary and reflective essays from professionals of distinction in the field of homiletics 4 sermons from the annual Preaching Excellence Conference as exemplified in the previous Preaching Through the Year of Matthew Mark and Luke

Conversations at the Well Jung Eun Sophia Park, Teresa Maya, 2019-08-29 Are religious women in the United States disappearing and finally dying out Or is there any new way of religious life emerging Conversations at the Well tries to respond to this question In the twenty first century of the global world newly emerging religious life would be rooted with the Jesus Movement and develop in the spirit of collaboration networking and intercultural living As the liminal space religious life is located at the margins subverting the existing social order and creating a new vision for the world This book explores an alternative meaning of religious life within the context of the apostolic mission In this new religious life the concept of community is not limited to living as a community in the convent but extended into collaborating friendship Primarily the apostolic religious life is deeply related to social justice delinking the global capitalism in which many people suffer from human trafficking immigration and exile The new leader of religious women would require skill in handling uncertainty amplifying resources and opening to the new reality In this new religious life spirituality would be articulated as freedom and liberation to let go of the old frame as well as letting the new life become reality In this way as radical disciples religious women in the twenty first century embody the Jesus Movement building bridges between different cultures and people A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P, 2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth

German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being Habits of Change Carole Garibaldi

Rogers,2011-06-01 A collection of extraordinary oral histories of American nuns Habits of Change captures the experiences of women whose lives over the past fifty years have been marked by dramatic transformation Bringing together women from more than forty different religious communities most of whom entered religious life before Vatican II the book shows how their lives were suddenly turned around in the 1960s perhaps more so than any other group of contemporary women Here these women speak of their active engagement in the events that disrupted their church and society and of the lives they lead today offering their unique perspective on issues such as peace activism global equality for women and the clergy sexual abuse crisis The interviewees include a Maryknoll missionary who spent decades in Africa most recently in the Congo an inner city art teacher whose own paintings reflect the vibrancy of Haiti a recovering alcoholic who at age 71 has embarked on her fourth ministry a life long nurse educator and hospital administrator and an outspoken advocate for the gay and lesbian community Told with simplicity honesty and passion their stories deserve to be heard
