Administrative Investigation -- Nepotism, Abuse of Authority, Misuse of Position, Improper Hiring, and Improperly Administered Awards, OI&T, Washington, D. C. Roger W. Baker, 2010 This report confirms that even though the Dept of Veterans Affairs VA had a large budget deficit, managers in its Office of Information and Technology OI&T awarded 24 million in bonuses to thousands of employees in 2007 and 2008. The report criticizes these managers for not being fiscally responsible and notes that one senior manager Jennifer Duncan engaged in nepotism when she improperly advocated for the hiring and advancement within VA OI&T. The report documents evidence of widespread nepotism, abuse of authority, and improper hiring under Former Assistant Secretary Robert Zoward, who left the VA in January 2009.
