Language as Calculus vs. Language as Universal Medium Maren Kusch, 2012-12-06 I first became interested in Husserl and Heidegger as long ago as 1980 when as an undergraduate at the Freie Universitat Berlin I studied the books by Professor Ernst Tugendhat Tugendhat's attempt to bring together analytical and continental philosophy has never ceased to fascinate me and even though in more recent years other influences have perhaps been stronger I should like to look upon the present study as still being indebted to Tugendhat's initial incentive It was my good fortune that for personal reasons I had to continue my academic training from 1981 onwards in Finland Even though Finland is a stronghold of analytical philosophy it also has a tradition of combining continental and Anglosaxon philosophical thought Since I had already admired this line of work in Tugendhat it is hardly surprising that once in Finland I soon became impressed by Professor Jaakko Hintikka's studies on Husserl and intentionality and by Professor Georg Henrik von Wright's analytical hermeneutics While the latter influence has at least in part led to a book on the history of hermeneutics the former influence has led to the present work My indebtedness to Professor Hintikka is enormous Not only is the research reported here based on his suggestions but Hintikka has also commented extensively on different versions of the manuscript helped me to make important contacts found a publisher for me and last but not least was a never failing source of encouragement
