Grand Portage Story:

The Grand Portage Story Carolyn Gilman, Alan Roland Woolworth, 1992 This is a history of 300 years of trade and tradition on Lake Superior's North Shore with special interest in Grand Portage where the Grand Portage National Monument was established The Grand Portage story, 1992 A Story of Grand Portage and Vicinity, 1923 The Story of Grand Portage, 19?? North Country Mary Lethert Wingerd, 2010-06-07 In 1862 four years after Minnesota was ratified as the thirty second state in the Union simmering tensions between indigenous Dakota and white settlers culminated in the violent six week long U S Dakota War Hundreds of lives were lost on both sides and the war ended with the execution of thirty eight Dakotas on December 26 1862 in Mankato Minnesota the largest mass execution in American history The following April after suffering a long internment at Fort Snelling the Dakota and Winnebago peoples were forcefully removed to South Dakota precipitating the near destruction of the area's native communities while simultaneously laying the foundation for what we know and recognize today as Minnesota In North Country The Making of Minnesota Mary Lethert Wingerd unlocks the complex origins of the state origins that have often been ignored in favor of legend and a far more benign narrative of immigration settlement and cultural exchange Moving from the earliest years of contact between Europeans and the indigenous peoples of the western Great Lakes region to the era of French and British influence during the fur trade and beyond Wingerd charts how for two centuries prior to official statehood Native people and Europeans in the region maintained a hesitant largely cobeneficial relationship Founded on intermarriage kinship and trade between the two parties this racially hybridized society was a meeting point for cultural and economic exchange until the western expansion of American capitalism and violation of treaties by the U S government during the 1850s wore sharply at this tremulous bond ultimately leading to what Wingerd calls Minnesota's Civil War A cornerstone text in the chronicle of Minnesota's history Wingerd's narrative is augmented by more than 170 illustrations chosen and described by Kirsten Delegard in comprehensive captions that depict the fascinating often haunting representations of the region and its inhabitants over two and a half centuries North Country is the unflinching account of how the land the Dakota named Mini Sota Makoce became the State of Minnesota and of the people who have called it at one time or another home A Story of Grand Portage John B. Arnold, 1933 The Story of the Grand Portage Solon Justus Buck, 1923 Nature's Crossroads George Vrtis, Christopher W. Wells, 2023-01-10 Minnesota's Twin Cities have long been powerful engines of change From their origins in the early nineteenth century the Twin Cities helped drive the dispossession of the region's Native American peoples turned their riverfronts into bustling industrial and commercial centers spread streets and homes outward to the horizon and reached well beyond their urban confines setting in motion the environmental transformation of distant hinterlands As these processes unfolded residents inscribed their culture into the landscape complete with all its tensions disagreements contradictions prejudices and social inequalities These stories lie at the heart of Nature's Crossroads The book features an interdisciplinary team of distinguished scholars who aim to open new conversations about the environmental history of the Twin Cities and Greater Minnesota

Nature, Place, and Story Claire Elizabeth Campbell, 2017-08-09 National historic sites commemorate decisive moments in the making of Canada But seen through an environmental lens these sites become artifacts of a bigger story the occupation and transformation of nature into nation In an age of pressing discussions about environmental sustainability there is a growing need to know more about the history of our relationship with the natural world and what lessons these places of public history regional identity and national narrative can teach us Nature Place and Story provides new interpretations for five of Canada s largest and most iconic historic sites two of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites L Anse aux Meadows Newfoundland Grand Pr Nova Scotia Fort William Ontario the Forks of the Red River Manitoba and the Bar U Ranch Alberta At each location Claire Campbell rewrites public history as environmental history revealing the country s debt to the power and fragility of the natural world and the relevance of the past to understanding climate change agricultural sustainability wilderness protection urban reclamation and fossil fuel extraction From the medieval Atlantic to modern ranchlands environmental history speaks directly to contemporary questions about the health of Canada's habitat Bringing together public and environmental history in an entirely new way Nature Place and Story is a lively and ambitious call for a fresh perspective on natural heritage
