Granddaddys Place:

Grandaddy's Place Helen V. Griffith, 1987 At first Janetta does not like Grandaddy his farm or his animals but they like her and as she gets used to them she likes them too Grandaddy's Place , Grandaddy's Stars Helen V. Griffith, 1995 Janetta's Grandaddy lives on a farm with chickens and a mule and when he comes to visit her in Baltimore Janetta is worried that he'll find the city boring Theme Play Gary Zingher, 2006-06-30 Out of his years of experience in working with children Zingher identifies some of the powerful and evocative themes of childhood and explores why these touch children so deeply He encourages professionals who work with children in school camp club and library settings to consider using these themes to develop thoughtful and creative programs and units of study Included are recommended books and videos that illustrate each theme questions for discussion possible starting points readalouds stories to be told sensory experiences interesting objects etc follow up activities and examples of fully described and developed thematic journeys In this time of standards and accountability this book reminds us of the joy of teaching and learning and the power of the imagination

(Re)imagining the World Yan Wu, Kerry Mallan, Roderick McGillis, 2013-06-18 Re Imagining the world Children's Literature's Response to Changing Times considers how writers of fiction for children imagine the world not one universal world but different worlds imaginary strange familiar even monstrous worlds The chapters in this collection discuss how fiction for children engages with some of the changes brought about by new technologies information literacy consumerism migration politics different family structures cosmopolitanism new and old monsters They also invite us to think about how memory shapes our understanding of the past and how fiction engages our emotions our capacity to empathise and our desire to discover and what the future may hold The contributors bring different perspectives from education postcolonial studies literary criticism cultural studies childhood studies postmodernism and the social sciences With a wide coverage of texts from different countries and scholarly and lively discussions this collection is itself a testament to the power of the human imagination and the significance of children's literature in the education of young people On Grandaddy's Knee Lorraine Wilson, 2014-11-25 On Granddaddys Knee is a collection of poems suitable for young children thus they can be read aloud by parents to their preschool children or introduced by teachers to five or six year old children in classrooms Some of the poems are cause for laughter Water Melon My Little Sisters Voice and Now Go to Sleep while others are written to promote quiet reflection On Granddaddys Knee and Young Child Familiarity with the poems might prompt young children to write their own poems Primaryplots 2 Rebecca L. Thomas, 1993 Grade level 1 2 3 4 k p e t Make Your Way Home Carrie R. Moore, 2025-07-15 Gorgeous resonant and startling Lauren Groff author of The Vaster Wilds Glorious Deesha Philyaw author of The Secret Lives of Church Ladies A debut collection of stories set across the American South featuring characters who struggle to find love and belonging in the wake of painful histories How can you love where you come from even when home doesn't love you back In eleven stories that span Florida marshes North Carolina mountains and Southern metropolitan cities Make Your Way Home follows Black men and women who grapple with the homes that have eluded them A preteen pregnant alongside her mother refuses to let convention dictate who she names as the father of her child Centuries after slavery separated his ancestors a native Texan tries to win over the love of his life despite the grip of a family curse A young deaconess who falls for a new church member wonders what it means when God stops speaking to her And at the very end of the South as we know it two sisters seek to escape North to freedom to promises of a more stable climate Artfully and precisely drawn and steeped in place and history as it explores themes of belonging inheritance and deep intimacy Carrie R Moore s debut collection announces an extraordinary new talent in American fiction inviting us all to examine how the past shapes our present and how our present choices will echo for years to come Story Hour Jeri Kladder,2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children For the librarian it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books But coming up with new ideas that hold the children s attention can be trying Until now Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs barnyard animals the Caldecott Medal colors families a storytelling feast the five senses reptiles and amphibians and around the world There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs All story hours provide ideas for name tags suggested audiovisual materials recommended story poetry and song selections additional titles and a full description of the activity Appalachian White Oak Basketmaking Rachel Nash Law,Cynthia Wieboldt Taylor,1991 In an era when baskets served as basic containers for gathering transporting and storing goods many settlers in the Central and Southern Appalachian mountain region found white oak the best material for basketmaking This book surveys the varied forms and techniques that evolved as basketmakers selected prepared and wove this wood The authors display special appreciation of white oak basketry as an important dimension of regional material culture Drawing on extensive fieldwork including interviews with traditional basketmakers in the Central Appalachian region Rachel Law and Cynthia Taylor establish a framework for classifying comparing and identifying Appalachian basketry forms In demonstrating how details of basket construction technique and style can be linked to specific makers regions and ethnic traditions the authors have created a resource essential for cultural historians collectors and craftspeople The three major types of white oak baskets rib rod and split are carefully delineated in this study Oak rodwork which previously has received little attention is extensively treated here as a specifically American adaptation of European willow basketmaking For all three major types this volume details construction techniques for numerous variants using copious illustrations and clear explanatory text Appalachian Children's Literature ,2010-04-13 This comprehensive bibliography includes books written about or set in Appalachia from the 18th century to the present Titles represent the entire region as defined by the Appalachian Regional Commission including portions of 13 states stretching from southern New York to northern Mississippi The bibliography is

Adopting the Song of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Grandaddys Place

In some sort of eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick interaction, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the published term often fade into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of Grandaddys Place a wonderful literary value full of natural emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant analysis, we can discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
