Helping Children Grieve:

Helping Children Cope with Death Donna L. Schuurman, Dougy Center for Grieving Children, 1997 Publisher description This guidebook offers a comprehensive easy to read overview of how children grieve and strategies to support them Based on The Dougy Center's work with thousands of grieving children and their families you will learn how children understand death how to talk with children about death at various developmental stages how to be helpful and when to seek outside help This book is useful for parents teachers helping professionals and anyone trying to support a grieving child Helping Children Grieve Theresa Huntley, 2002-01-01 Practical suggestions guide parents and children through the grief process When Children Grieve John W. James, Russell Friedman, Dr. Leslie Matthews, 2010-06-22 Once in a generation a book comes along that alters the way society views a topic When Children Grieve is an essential primer for parents and others who interact with children on a regular basis Bernard McGrane Ph D Professor of Sociology Chapman University and U C Irvine The first and definitive guide to helping children really deal with loss from the authors of the The Grief Recovery Handbook Following deaths divorces pet loss or the confusion of major relocation many adults tell their children don't feel bad In fact say the authors of the bestselling The Grief Recovery Handbook feeling bad or sad is precisely the appropriate emotion attached to sad events Encouraging a child to bypass grief without completion can cause unseen long term damage When Children Grieve helps parents break through the misinformation that surrounds the topic of grief It pinpoints the six major myths that hamper children in adapting to life's inevitable losses Practical and compassionate it guides parents in creating emotional safety and spells out specific actions to help children move forward successfully Children Grieve, Too Joy Johnson, Marvin Johnson, 1998 A concise guide that explains how to help one's child through grief during the first few days after a death describing what to expect from children at different age levels from infant to teen providing age specific guidance on how to help a child cope and discussing how to talk to the child about the funeral and wake or visitation Helping Children Cope With Grief Alan Wolfelt, 2013-08-21 First published in 1984 A common myth is that that young children say around three years of age do not understand death or give the death of friend pet brother sister parent grandparent other relative or give it a Raggedy Ann doll meaning However research has indicated that they do If it is difficult for us to think about our death it is the author's hypothesis that to think of the death of our children is an even greater difficulty We dread the thought of our children suffering pain dying and death Similarly the thought of our children suffering grief is difficult for us to comprehend Helping Children Cope With Grief is more universal to more than the area of grief and is a valuable tool for parents teachers and counselors when their goal is to develop happier more loving children Death is No Stranger Cynthia Long Lasher, 2008 In Death Is No Stranger Cynthia Long Lasher offers resources and guidance for aiding in grief ministry to children allowing them to adapt in a healthy manner to the reality of life without a loved one while still allowing them to remain what they are children This is an invaluable resource for parents teachers ministers and others who interact with children during times of loss      Helping Children Grieve Ruth Arent, Ruth P. Arent, 2005 Ruth P Arent presents us with direct yet sensitive guidelines and suggestions for helping in the recovery and healing of children      Helping Children Grieve & Grow Donna O'Toole, Jerre Cory, 199?      The Seasons of Grief Donna A. Gaffney, 1988      Parenting a Grieving Child (Revised) Mary DeTurris Poust, 2015-08-01 Whether it s a fish a friend or a family member nearly every child will experience a loss in their early years and the experience and feelings of a sad event can be confusing and scary And when grief intrudes children look to their parents and the adults in their lives to fix this pain take away what they don t understand and show them how to handle their emotions Parenting a Grieving Child provides practical and approachable resources for Catholic parents and other adult helpers who work with children to use the power and traditions of the Catholic faith to accompany children as they work through their grief in a healthy way As author Mary DeTurris Poust points out too often children are left out of the grieving process and their specific grief issues are not addressed or are addressed in harmful ways Children s grief is real and powerful and it needs to be acknowledged and validated by the adults who are accompanying them through the grieving process Drawing from the traditions and practices of the Catholic faith Parenting a Grieving Child provides the steps parents can take to help their child through one of life s most difficult experiences

Children Helping Children with Grief Beverly Chappell, 2008-01-07 In 1982 Beverly Chappell met Dougy Turno a young boy suffering from an inoperable brain tumor Dougy s wisdom compassion and thirst for life far exceeded his 13 years His death inspired Bev a registered nurse working in the area of death and dying to start support groups for grieving children At the time medical and psychological professionals did not widely acknowledge that children grieve Undaunted and with the help of her mentor Dr Elisabeth Kubler Ross Bev founded The Dougy Center Since its founding the center has served more than 15 000 children and their families and its training program has taught thousands of others how to help children cope with death In this book Beverly Chappell writes about her work and the center and about the many grieving families she s met over the years families who have inspired her to continue her groundbreaking work      When Children Grieve John W. James, Russell Friedman, Leslie Landon Matthews, 2001-05-01 To watch a child grieve not know what to do is one of the most difficult experiences for parents teachers caregivers This book offers guidelines for helping children develop a lifelong healthy response to loss This cutting edge volume will help free children from the false idea that they shouldn t feel bad will empower them with positive effective methods of dealing with loss There are many life experiences that can produce feelings of grief in a child everything from the death of a relative or a divorce to more everyday experiences such as moving to a new neighborhood or losing a pet Whatever the reason or the degree of severity if a child you love is grieving this book can help

Life & Loss Linda Goldman, 2000 With this resource the reader learns to recognize and understand different types of childhood losses while avoiding the stifling cliches that block feeling The reader will also become aware of the myths that hinder the grief process and learn the four psychological tasks for grief The author explains the technique of grief work providing tools ideas and inventories for educators to help kids commemorate loss Life and Loss Linda Goldman,2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child s healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children s grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children s grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it s the book they need to work with it in constructive ways

A Child's View of Grief Alan D Wolfelt,2004-04-01 This concise resource for parents of grieving kids explores several key principles for helping children cope with grief and offers ways to create an emotional environment filled with love and acceptance It answers common questions such as What should I say to children when someone they love dies and Should young children attend funerals This guide also identifies and explains typical behaviors thoughts and feelings of grieving kids and offers adults tips for responding to them Guiding Your Child Through Grief Mary Ann Emswiler,James P. Emswiler,2000 This unique parenting book from the directors of the nation s largest support groups for grieving children and their families offers positive and practical suggestions for helping children cope with their grief over time Parenting Through Grief and Loss: Helping Children Navigate Hard Emotions During Family Tragedies Silas Mary,2025-01-30 Grief and loss are part of life but explaining these complex emotions to children can be challenging Parenting Through Grief and Loss helps parents support their children through difficult times whether dealing with the death of a loved one divorce or another family tragedy This book offers guidance on how to approach conversations about loss validate your child s emotions and create an environment where they feel safe expressing their feelings Learn how to help your child process grief in an age appropriate way and offer the comfort they need during tough moments The book also focuses on the emotional needs of parents showing you how to manage your own grief while supporting your child Parenting Through Grief and Loss provides strategies to help both you and your child heal together strengthening your bond in the process With compassion and practical advice this book equips parents to guide their children through loss with love patience and understanding How Children Grieve Corinne Masur,2024-07-09 Understand how children process grief at every age and stage of development in this accessible guide for parents and caretakers An award winning childhood grief expert shares clinically informed advice for supporting kids and teens through difficult times from family deaths and lost pets to unexpected moves and beyond A necessary and impactful guide to understanding children s grief from the inside and to guiding children through loss from the death of a parent and other family members to the loss of friends pets and even the family home Dr Masur an award winning clinical psychologist specializing in grief and mourning describes how to understand help and guide children at each age and stage of development and uses her own childhood experience with loss through empathetic yet clinically informed advice When Dr Masur was fourteen years old her father died Like most children and teens facing loss Masur didn't know how to handle her grief and she was never encouraged to acknowledge or share what she was feeling with her family teachers or friends Her experience of shock and emotional paralysis around her loss is what led her to become an expert in childhood grief in order to help grieving children and to help others to support the children in their lives who have experienced loss As a psychologist and child psychoanalyst Dr Masur has helped many children recognize and express their feelings after loss In How Children Grieve Masur shares her expertise with caregivers of all kinds giving them the tools they need to help a child or teenager mourn move forward and make meaning of terrible loss
