The Children of the Abbey: A Tale Regina Maria Roche,2022-05-28
Regina Maria Roche's The Children of the Abbey: A Tale is a quintessential example of the Gothic novel emblematic of the late 18th century literary movement. The narrative unfurls in a rich tapestry of dark settings and brooding characters intertwining themes of loss, mystery, and moral ambiguity. Roche's eloquent prose captures the essence of the sublime, inviting readers to delve into the tormented lives of her characters as they navigate treacherous emotional landscapes and societal expectations amidst the backdrop of an ominous abbey, a poignant symbol of both oppression and sanctuary. Roche, born in 1764 in Ireland, was a trailblazer for women writers in her time, drawing inspiration from both personal experiences and the cultural milieu that surrounded her. Her own struggles with the constraints of a patriarchal society likely influenced her portrayals of female strength and vulnerability. Emerging from the burgeoning literary landscape that celebrated the Gothic genre, Roche sought to explore deeper psychological complexities, crafting a narrative that reflects both her own life and the societal challenges faced by women of her era. The Children of the Abbey is highly recommended for readers seeking to traverse the realm of Gothic literature or those interested in the evolution of the female voice in literary narrative. Roche's compelling storytelling and richly drawn characters invite readers into a world of intrigue and emotion, making this novel an essential addition to any literary collection.

Women of Color Elizabeth Brown-Guillory,2010-06-28
Interest in the mother-daughter relationship has never been greater, yet there are few books specifically devoted to the relationships between daughters and mothers of color. To fill that gap, this collection of original essays explores the mother-daughter relationship as it appears in the works of African American, Asian American, Mexican American, Native American, Indian, and Australian Aboriginal women writers. Prominent among the writers considered here are Toni Morrison, Alice Walker, Maxine Hong Kingston, Cherrie Moraga, Leslie Marmon Silko, and Amy Tan. Elizabeth Brown-Guillory and the other essayists examine the myths and reality surrounding the mother-daughter relationship in these writers' works. They show how women writers of color often portray the mother-daughter dyad as a love-hate relationship in which the mother painstakingly tries to convey knowledge of how to survive in a racist, sexist, and classist world while the daughter rejects her mother's experiences as invalid in changing social times. This book represents a further opening of the literary canon to twentieth-century women of color. Like the writings it surveys, it celebrates the joys of breaking silence and moving toward reconciliation and growth.
