Kansas Breeding Bird Atlas William H. Busby,John L. Zimmerman,2001 The Kansas Breeding Bird Atlas represents the efforts of 180 volunteers who diligently sought out birds over a period of six years observing their behavior and locating active nests and fledged young throughout the state whether in tallgrass prairies riparian forests or wetlands In addition to these efforts Busby and Zimmerman gathered a wealth of information relating the volunteers observations to ecological factors affecting the birds habitat selection

The Green Vine Shannon Borg,2013-08-21 CLICK HERE to download the first two chapters from The Green Vine A charismatic guide to understanding environmentally friendly wines from defining labels to reviewing vineyard practices Features personally tested profiles of sustainable wines that everyone needs to try California Washington and Oregon rank 1 3 nationally as having the most wineries per state Most people don t want to think about their wine too much they just want to enjoy it At the same time more and more people are thinking about where their food comes from Why not ask the same questions about wine It s a product that faces many of the same industry environment and economic issues as that sustainable steak or fresh home grown salad on your plate Traditional wine production is currently under threat from increasingly homogenized commercial processes and suffers from a large carbon footprint from bottle and cork materials to water runoff and erosion Many winemakers are starting to take environmental stewardship very seriously changing how they grow grapes and make wine With The Green Vine wine expert Shannon Borg demystifies the terms of sustainable wine making and lays out a simple guide to West Coast wines and wineries that use both historical and modern sustainable practices She explains why it s important to consider how wine is produced and packaged and why growing methods soil health and water resources matter She then embarks on a wine tasting tour of nearly 200 sustainable wineries in Washington Oregon Northern California British Columbia and Idaho profiling the winemakers and farmers who are leading the green Wine movement Winner of the Nautilus Awards 2014 Better Books for a Better World Silver Award Paddling Virginia and West Virginia Johnny Molloy,2019-06-01 A comprehensive guide to Virginia and West Virginia s best paddling trips with routes for every type of paddler including access points difficulty ratings special points of interest history and more The ministry of the beautiful; or, The Christian's companion for field and forest, sea and shore Burlington B. Wale,1883 The Great Blue Heron Robert William Butler,1997 With its striking plumage the great blue heron is one of the most widely recognized wading birds in North America Riding on kelp beds in the Queen Charlotte Islands wading in coastal streams along the mainland poised motionless at the water s edge on a misty morning or nesting in the limbs of old growth forests this stately bird is a familiar sight on the coast of British Columbia The largest colonies are on the Fraser River delta an area of great ecological significance to the north Pacific Despite a growing body of knowledge regarding many aspects of the species breeding biology and courtship behaviour the foraging and population ecology of this bird remains something of an enigma In his beautifully illustrated book Robert Butler follows the great blue heron through a year on the coast of British Columbia He draws on more than a decade of work to throw light on the adaptability of this magnificent bird to a temperate climate its diet and breeding habits habitat use and conservation Although the great blue heron has become a symbol of wetland conservation in recent years it has had to face new challenges as a consequence of rapid urbanization of its environment In The Great Blue Heron the author also describes the B C coast and shares a vision for the conservation of the Strait of Georgia and the Fraser River delta Proceedings of the Belfast Natural History and Philosophical Society ,1876
