Sex, Lies, and Misadventures of Friends J. M. Bruney, 2020-01-03

Sex, Lies, and Misadventures of Friends By J M Bruney Love is the basis of any relationship: family, romance, or friendship. Sometimes relationships fizzle out, but love can be enough if both parties are willing to fight for it. Friendships help us shape ourselves and our personal growth. Sometimes these friendships can evolve into meaningful romance. However, it is important to note that no relationship is perfect, and perfect is defined by each person's point of view. We all have our own love language, and maintaining your language and your partner's is important in a lasting relationship. Often sex is a part of this love language craved by both men and women. Sex, Lies, and Misadventures of Friends illustrates sexuality and tells women that their desires are perfectly normal. Let's break the stigma and keep the conversation alive to remove women from society's box of purity.
