Heyday An Autobiography:

Hevday Dore Schary, 1979-01-01 Montgomery Clift Michelangelo Capua, 2015-09-16 At the peak of his career in the 1950s Montgomery Clift was the symbol of a very talented yet rebellious generation of movie stars His acting combined the personal and the professional and his seventeen movies show his superb craft and extraordinary sensitivity Yet there was much more to his life than his talents as an actor more than most people knew This book is a biography of the extremely handsome acutely intelligent but tormented Montgomery Clift His life has been described as the longest suicide in the history of Hollywood and this biography shows the accuracy of that description It covers Clift's sheltered childhood his discovery at the age of 12 the early critical acclaim that brought attention from such noted directors as Elia Kazan and Antoinette Perry his development as a professional actor and work with many of Hollywood's greatest directors including Kazan Fred Zinneman Alfred Hitchcock and John Huston and the devastating car accident that disfigured his face and caused him to turn to drugs and alcohol Throughout the book attention is given to Clift's self destructive personality which created problems that even close friends like Elizabeth Taylor could not help him solve and his closet homosexuality which contributed to his intense insecurity Richly illustrated Hollywood Madonna Bernard F. Dick, 2025-05-15 Loretta Young 1913 2000 was an Academy Award winning actress known for devout Catholicism and her performances in The Farmer's Daughter The Bishop's Wife and Come to the Stable and for her long running and tremendously popular television series But that was not the whole story Hollywood Madonna explores the full saga of Loretta Young's professional and personal life She made her film debut at age four became a star at fifteen and many awards and accolades later made her final television movie at age seventy six This biography withholds none of the details of her affair with Clark Gable and the daughter that powerful love produced Bernard F Dick places Young's affair in the proper context of the time and the choices available to women in 1935 especially a noted Catholic like Young whose career would have been in ruins if the public knew of her tryst With the birth of a daughter who would have been branded a love child Loretta Young reached the crossroads of disclosure and deception choosing the latter path That choice resulted in an illustrious career for her and a tortured childhood for her daughter Hevday Dore Schary, 1981 Lady in the Dark: Biography of a Musical bruce d. mcclung Associate Professor of Musicology University of Cincinnati, 2006-12-18 When Lady in the Dark opened on January 23 1941 its many firsts immediately distinguished it as a new and unusual work The curious directive to playwright Moss Hart to complete a play about psychoanalysis came from his own Freudian psychiatrist For the first time since his brother George's death Ira Gershwin returned to writing lyrics for the theater And for emigre composer Kurt Weill it was a crack at an opulent first class production Together Hart Gershwin and Weill with a little help from the psychiatrist produced one of the most innovative works in Broadway history Though Lady in the Dark was a smash hit it has never enjoyed a Broadway revival and a certain mystique has grown up around its legendary original production In this ground breaking biography bruce mcclung pieces together the musical s life story from sketches and drafts production scripts correspondence photographs costume and set designs and thousands of clippings from the star s personal scrapbooks He has interviewed eleven members of the original company to provide a one of a kind glimpse into The Sound of Tomorrow Mark Brend, 2012-12-06 London 1966 Paul McCartney met a group of the backstage story three electronic musicians called Unit Delta Plus McCartney was there because he had become fascinated by electronic music and wanted to know how it was made He was one of the first rock musicians to grasp its potential but even he was notably late to the party For years composers and technicians had been making electronic music for film and TV Hitchcock had commissioned a theremin soundtrack for Spellbound 1945 The Forbidden Planet 1956 featured an entirely electronic score Delia Derbyshire had created the Dr Who theme in 1963 and by the early 1960s all you had to do was watch commercial TV for a few hours to hear the weird and wonderful sounds of the new world The Sound of Tomorrow tells the compelling story of the sonic adventurers who first introduced electronic music to the masses A network of composers producers technicians and inventors they took emerging technology and with it made sound and music that was bracingly Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers An Archaeology of Sympathy James Chandler, 2013-06-17 In the middle of the eighteenth century something new made itself felt in European culture a tone or style that came to be called the sentimental The sentimental mode went on to shape not just literature art music and cinema but people s very structures of feeling their ways of doing and being In what is sure to become a critical classic An Archaeology of Sympathy challenges Sergei Eisenstein's influential account of Dickens and early American film by tracing the unexpected history and intricate strategies of the sentimental mode and showing how it has been reimagined over the past three centuries James Chandler begins with a look at Frank Capra and the Capraesque in American public life then digs back to the eighteenth century to examine the sentimental substratum underlying Dickens and early cinema alike With this surprising move he reveals how literary spectatorship in the eighteenth century anticipated classic Hollywood films such as Capra's It Happened One Night Mr Deeds Goes to Town and It's a Wonderful Life Chandler then moves forward to romanticism and modernism two cultural movements often seen as defined by their rejection of the sentimental examining how authors like Mary Shelley Joseph Conrad James Joyce and Virginia Woolf actually engaged with sentimental forms and themes in ways that left a mark on their work Reaching from Laurence Sterne to the Coen brothers An Archaeology of Sympathy casts new light on the long eighteenth century and the novelistic forebears of cinema and our modern world Projecting Tomorrow James Chapman, Nicholas J. Cull, 2013-01-30 Cinema and science fiction were made for each other The science fiction genre has produced some of the most extraordinary films ever made yet science fiction cinema is about more than just special effects It has also provided a vehicle for filmmakers and writers to comment on their own societies and cultures This new exploration of the genre examines landmark science fiction films from the 1930s to the present They include genre classics such as Things to Come Forbidden Planet and 2001 A Space Odyssey alongside modern blockbusters Star Wars and Avatar Chapman and Cull consider both screen originals and adaptations of the work of major science fiction authors They also range widely across the genre from pulp adventure and space opera to political allegory and speculative documentary there is even a science fiction musical Informed throughout by extensive research in US and British archives the book documents the production histories of each film to show how they made their way to the screen and why they turned out the way they did

Whitfield, 2017-07-05 This is a delightful book a small gem replete with insightful provocative pieces about both American culture and Jewish life I think that Stephen Whitfield is one of the most original essayists on these two topics Few other scholars combine the density of his knowledge with the verve of his prose Hasia R Diner New York University Harland's Autobiography Marion Harland, 1910 Writing the Memoir Judith Barrington, 2002 New revised and updated edition of the bestselling book on writing memoir New Perspectives on James Weldon Johnson's "The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man" Noelle Morrissette, 2017-07-15 James Weldon Johnson 1871 1938 exemplified the ideal of the American public intellectual as a writer educator songwriter diplomat key figure of the Harlem Renaissance and first African American executive of the NAACP Originally published anonymously in 1912 Johnson's novel The Autobiography of an Ex Colored Man is considered one of the foundational works of twentieth century African American literature and its themes and forms have been taken up by other writers from Ralph Ellison to Teju Cole Johnson's novel provocatively engages with political and cultural strains still prevalent in American discourse today and it remains in print over a century after its initial publication New Perspectives contains fresh essays that analyze the book s reverberations the contexts within which it was created and received the aesthetic and intellectual developments of its author and its continuing influence on American literature and global culture Contributors Bruce Barnhart Lori Brooks Ben Glaser Jeff Karem Daphne Lamothe Noelle Morrissette Michael Nowlin Lawrence J Oliver Diana Paulin Amritjit Singh Robert B Stepto The Ethics of Autobiography Angel G. Loureiro, 2000 After laying out these theoretical foundations Loureiro puts them to work in analyzing four of the most fascinating autobiographies written by Spanish exiles The Life of Joseph Blanco White who lived from 1775 to 1841 Memoria de la Melancolia by Maria Teresa Leon 1904 1988 Coto vedado and En los reinos de taifa by Juan Goytisolo born 1931 and Literature or Life by Jorge Semprun born 1923 The lives of these authors all of whom were exiled for political reasons were disrupted by some of the most crucial events in Spain's tortuous road to modernity and democracy The book closes with a discussion of why there have been so few critical examinations of autobiographies written in modern Spain Loureiro proposes that even in today s Spain stifling social and political forces smother ethical responsibility which is an essential ingredient in creating autobiographies that dare to be more than a humdrum inventory of personal recollections Autobiographical Jews Michael Stanislawski, 2012-09-20 Autobiographical Jews examines the nature of autobiographical writing by Jews from antiquity to the present and the ways in which such writings can legitimately be used as sources for Jewish history Drawing on current literary theory which questions the very nature of autobiographical writing and its relationship to what we normally designate as the truth and to a lesser extent the new cognitive neurosciences Michael Stanislawski analyzes a number of crucial and complex autobiographical texts written by Jews through the ages Stanislawski considers The Life by first century historian Josephus compares the early modern autobiographies of Asher of Reichshofen Book of Memories and Glikl of Hameln Memoirs analyzes the radically different autobiographies of two Russian Jewish writers the Hebrew Enlightenment author Moshe Leib Lilienblum and the famous Russian poet Osip Mandelstam and looks at two autobiographies written out of utter despair in the midst and in the wake of World War II Stefan Zweig s The World of Yesterday and Sarah Kofman's Rue Ordener Rue Labat These writers attempts to portray their private and public struggles anxieties successes and failures are expressions of a basic drive for selfhood which is both timeless and time bound universal and culturally specific The challenge is to attempt to unravel the conscious from the unconscious distortions in these texts and to regard them as artifacts of individuals quests to make sense of their lives first and foremost for themselves and then if possible for their readers The Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt, 2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently
