Hidden A Sister And Brother In Nazi Poland:

Hidden Fay Walker, Caren S. Neile, Leo Rosen, 2002-09-04 Of the Rosenbluth family only the older children Faiga and Luzer had gone into hiding before the SS rounded up the Jews of Kanczuga Poland Hidden is Faiga and Luzer's story a memoir whose intimate and quiet particularity makes the incomprehensible enormity of the Holocaust immediate human and devastatingly real In alternating first person narratives Faiga Fay and Luzer Leo take readers into their very different but inextricably linked experiences in Nazi occupied Poland Faiga the once dignified young lady from a good home with servants and a seat by the eastern wall of the synagogue spends two years wandering the perilous countryside hoping to be taken for a peasant Mere miles away knowing nothing of his sister's fate Luzer the leather wholesaler's only son lies silent all day in the stifling dark corner of a barn where the smell of the cows warm hides are a piquant reminder of his lost world Hidden deftly summons that world as the familiar comforts and squabbles of life in a well to do religious Jewish family are slowly overwhelmed by the grim news coming out of Germany We follow Faiga and Luzer through the early forebodings and deprivations of the war into hiding among righteous Poles and erstwhile neighbors turned betrayers and finally at war's end back once more into the world but not necessarily into safety Told in a confident clear and unsentimental prose this is a story of heroism and tragedy writ large and small of two young people coming of age in a world in chaos and then trying to return to normal after experiences as unimaginable as they are unforgettable Hidden Fay Walker, 2002 Jewish Studies and Holocaust Education in Poland Lynn W. Zimmerman, 2014-01-14 This volume examines how people in Poland learn about Jewish life culture and history including the Holocaust The main text provides background on concepts such as culture identity and stereotypes as well as on specific topics such as Holocaust education as curriculum various educational institutions and the connection of arts and cultural festivals to identity and culture It also gives a brief overview of Polish history and Jewish history in Poland as well as providing insight into how the Holocaust and Jewish life and culture are viewed and taught in present day Poland This background material is supported by essays by Poles who have been active in the changes that have taken place in Poland since 1989 A young Jewish Polish man gives insight into what it is like to grow up in contemporary Poland and a Jewish Polish woman who was musical director and conductor of the Jewish choir Tslil gives her view of learning through the arts Essays by Polish scholars active in Holocaust education and curriculum design give past present and future perspectives of learning about Jewish history and culture Peninnah's World Caren Schnur Neile, 2021-10-07 She's an iconic Jewish storyteller She's a widely acclaimed professor and folklorist She's the one and only Peninnah Schram and Peninnah's World A Jewish Life in Stories is her authorized biography told through individual stories What is a biography told through stories Because Schram's art form is storytelling Peninnah's World dramatizes in vivid scenes her extraordinary trajectory from the New London Connecticut born child of immigrant parents steeped in Jewish tradition in the 1930s and 40s to award winning New York based performer writer and scholar The book features landmarks such as the old Mohican Hotel in New London and Stern College for Women in Manhattan Along the way Schram enjoys close encounters with such luminaries as Noble Laureates Elie Wiesel and Isaac Bashevis Singer as well as famed Yiddish theater actress Molly Picon actor Jeff Goldblum singer ethnomusicologist Ruth Rubin and others Written by storytelling studies professor and performer Caren Schnur Neile the stories are in a form tailor made to enjoy and share aloud At the same time they serve as models for all those interested in creating their own life and family stories whatever their background whether on the page on the stage or among neighbors and loved ones Welcome to Peninnah's World Prepare to explore your own

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context

Life, Death and Sacrifice Esther Hertzog, 2008 From out of a world of death and destruction extermination camps ghettos starvation and disease there rises the figure of the woman in the Holocaust the core of the fascinating studies in this collection The importance of these research essays is above all their historical documentation of situations and events related to women in the Holocaust In the face of imminent death there was kindness to be seen self sacrifice and the saving of another's life And from a world that had lost all semblance of humanity came a sense of independence that welled up in the survivors infusing them with the spirit of life as they emerged from the inferno And what is for me the most moving the most exciting thing of all is the ability of those who endured to climb to their feet and shake themselves free of the killing fields to begin a new life to start a family Ayala Procaccia Israel Supreme Court Justice The book contains articles by some of the most prominent scholars in the field They tell the stories of women who were humiliated tortured and murdered their eternally etched in the memory stories of struggle and survival This collection of articles is based on two international conferences on women in the Holocaust held in recent years at Beit Berl Academic College Beit Theresienstadt and the Ghetto Fighters House in Israel Hertzog is a daughter of Holocaust survivors who never spoke about the subject at home She discovered a feminist perspective on the Holocaust at a conference at Oxford she attended almost by chance seven years ago That experience motivated her to speak with her mother and document their conversations in the article that appears herein

Children of the Holocaust Andrea Reiter, 2006 Children of the Holocaust contains the papers delivered at a conference to mark Holocaust Remembrance Day 2004 which was held under the auspices of the AHRC Parkes Centre at the University of Southampton The book addresses questions of representation of the Holocaust by and of children both in text and image While the volume opens with a theoretical discussion of how and where to locate the voice of the child in a text the majority of contributions deal with exemplary texts either by single authors or specific groups of survivors The testimonies at the heart of these essays were written in different European languages mainly in German English and Polish The authors offer a variety of perspectives ranging from the literary to the historical and art critical With its wide range of examples and approaches to the theme this volume proposes to be more than a concise introduction to the theme of children of the Holocaust It documents the breadth of issues of this branch of Holocaust studies which is still largely waiting to be discovered

Shatterzone of Empires Omer Bartov, Eric D. Weitz, 2013 From the Baltic to the Black Sea four major empires with ethnically and religiously diverse populations encountered each other along often changing and contested borders Examining this geographically vast multicultural region through a variety of methodological lenses this volume offers informed and dispassionate analyses of how the many populations of these borderlands managed to coexist in a previous era and why the areas eventually descended into violence An understanding of this region will help readers grasp the preconditions of interethnic coexistence and the causes of ethnic violence and war in many of the world's other borderlands both past and present

The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945 Geoffrey P.
