Finding Higher Ground A Life Of Travels:

Finding Higher Ground Catharine Savage Brosman, 2003 Place is not only a metaphor for the self it can be the self objectified including the self of years ago So writes Catharine Savage Brosman who explores the places of her own life in Finding Higher Ground The tour for the reader is one of delight and wonder Brosman's places range from the West Texas desert of her girlhood to a chilly flat in the north of England from the flooded streets of New Orleans to the sublimities of the Colorado Rocky Mountains Even as her meditations reflect on her connections to these places and the ways they have shaped her life they also examine the broader connections between individual and community culture and society experience and memory Her voice is unique combining a poet's sensitivity to nuances of setting and behavior with salty good sense passionate engagement in the world of letters sly wit and a rugged independence of character inherited from generations of her Western ancestors Whether sipping wine in a Parisian cafe partying with the jet set in Aspen or contemplating the arid desert West that she loves so deeply Brosman inhabits these settings and many others with a sense of adventure and discovery To read these essays is to enjoy the company of a lively thoughtful original mind Brosman's higher ground is that place we all seek where we can find and express our own best selves Finding Higher Ground Amy Seidl, 2012-05-01

While much of the global warming conversation rightly focuses on reducing our carbon footprint the reality is that even if we were to immediately cease emissions we would still face climate change into the next millennium In Finding Higher Ground Amy Seidl takes the uniquely positive yet realistic position that humans and animals can adapt and persist despite these changes Drawing on an emerging body of scientific research Seidl brings us stories of adaptation from the natural world and from human communities She offers examples of how plants insects birds and mammals are already adapting both behaviorally and genetically While some species will be unable to adapt to new conditions quickly enough to survive Seidl argues that those that do can show us how to increase our own capacity for resilience if we work to change our collective behavior In looking at climate change as an opportunity to establish new cultural norms Seidl inspires readers to move beyond loss and offers a refreshing call to evolve Louisiana Poets Catharine Savage Brosman, Olivia McNeely

Pass, 2019-04-10 Louisiana has long been recognized for its production of talented writers and its poets in particular have shined From the early poetry of the state to the work crafted in the present day Louisiana has nurtured and exported a rich and diverse poetic tradition In Louisiana Poets A Literary Guide authors Catharine Savage Brosman and Olivia McNeely Pass assess the achievements of Louisiana poets from the past hundred years who Brosman and Pass assert deserve both public notice and careful critical examination Louisiana Poets presents the careers and works of writers whose verse is closely connected to the people's history and landscapes of Louisiana or whose upbringing or artistic development occurred in the state Brosman and Pass chose poets based on the scope abundance and excellence of their work their critical reception and the local and national standing of the writer and work The book treats a wide range of forty poets from national bestsellers to local celebrities detailing their histories and output Intended to be of broad interest and easy to consult Louisiana Poets showcases the corpus of Louisiana poetry alongside its current profile Brosman and Pass have created a guide that provides a way for readers to discover savor and celebrate poets who have been inspired in and by the Pelican State A Journey Through Life Fred S. Hirsekorn,2014 An entertaining and memory jogging collection of short stories and poems fiction and nonfiction for all ages They were written by the 90 year old author over the last six years he attended a creative writing class The individual stories are bundled into a journey from youth to old age and into experiences which tend to shape our personality In his case the experiences in Germany from where he fled and the WWII experiences which shaped his serious nature As we travel along our journey through life we all begin to learn that there is humor even during the dark segments and some sadness even along the brightest scenes We gain insight and wisdom A sense of humor helps overcome the potholes in the road to make the journey more pleasant A sense of humor shines through the stories as does the wisdom and insight he has amassed during his lifetime He continues creative writing which had discovered his sense of humor a joy which is reflected in his short stories International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Southern Review ,2005 Traveling at the Speed of Love Sonia Choquette,2011-03-01 New York Times bestselling author A paradigm shifting guide to moving through fear and embracing what matters most in life love When we travel at the speed of love we choose to live in a frequency of unconditional love Today most of us travel at the frequency of fear and live with a victim consciousness When we re traveling at the fear frequency no matter how fast we go we can never get to our destination The victim consciousness is based on the premise I have no choice Traveling at the speed of love means taking our power back We re actually in a different universe when we travel at the speed of love Our world is not a menacing threatening race geared to cheat death It becomes at any moment so satisfying that if this were our last moment on Earth that would be okay This is not to say that change is easy To travel at the speed of love might require a complete paradigm shift in the way you look at your everyday existence In this fascinating book Sonia Choquette provides a practical in the trenches guide that will reveal how you can reprogram your brain and change your life for the better Ask yourself this question What frequency are you traveling on right now Weber Studies ,2003 Journey to the Center of the Earth (Annotated with Biography of Verne and Plot Analysis) Jules Verne,2013-11-22 Journey to the Center of the Earth was published in 1864 Verne was fascinated with the northern and southern poles of Earth and as Arctic exploration was in its infancy in the mid 19th century the unknown north was an ideal setting for the imaginative forays of science fiction a new literary genre Northern exploration was in the news and Verne was inspired to write a novel based on the premise that the center of the Earth is hollow This annotated edition includes a biography and critical essay International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Travels and Discoveries in North and Central Africa Heinrich

Barth,1896 Sailing Tours Frank Cowper,1894 A Spy's Résumé Marc Anthony Viola,2008 Since the recent attacks of September 11 2001 the intelligence community has been on a hiring binge According to some estimates over half of those currently employed in the agencies and departments that comprise the U S intelligence community have less than six years experience Consequently there are a lot of people learning the ropes on how to become an intelligence professional A Spy's Résumé describes what people can expect when they decide to leave government or military service In this book Marc Anthony Viola assists government and military professionals transitioning into the civilian world using techniques from the U S intelligence community While Viola includes advice on résumé writing and interviewing his book goes beyond how to find a job to the challenge of conceptualizing a new vocation as well as looking at the personal journey from the perspective of a former intelligence professional transitioning to the civilian sector Viola uses experiences and observations from his own military intelligence career in ways that are of interest and of benefit to anyone thinking of changing careers or in transition with his or her own life Summer Holidays, Travelling Notes in Europe Theodore Child,1889 The Complete Works: Novels, Short Stories, Poems, Plays, Memoirs, Travel Sketches, Letters and Essays (Illustrated Edition) Robert Louis Stevenson,2017-07-31 Robert Louis Stevenson 1850 1894 was a Scottish novelist poet essayist and travel writer His most famous works are Treasure Island Kidnapped and Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde A literary celebrity during his lifetime Stevenson now ranks among the 26 most translated authors in the world Travels and Discoveries in North and Central Africa Heinrich Barth, Mr Richardson was waiting in Paris for despatches when Mr Overweg and I reached Tunis by way of Philippeville and Bona on the 15th of December 1849 and having through the kind interference of Mr Ferrier the British vice consul been allowed to enter the town after six days quarantine we began immediately to provide ourselves with articles of dress while in the meantime we took most interesting daily rides to the site of ancient Carthage Having procured many useful articles for our journey and having found a servant the son of a freed slave from Gober we left Tunis on the 30th of December and passed the first night in Hamm m el Enf Early next morning we followed the charming route by Krumb lia which presents a no less vivid specimen of the beauty and natural fertility of the Tunisian country than of the desolate state to which it is at present reduced We then passed the fine gardens of Turki a narrow spot of cultivation in a wide desolate plain of the finest soil and leaving el Khw n to our right we reached el Arb ain Both these places enjoy a peculiar celebrity with the natives El Khw n is said to have been once a populous place but nearly all its inhabitants were destroyed by a spring of bituminous water which according to tradition afterwards disappeared El Arb ain the locality of the forty martyrs is a holy place and Ali our muleteer in his pious zeal took up a handful of the sacred earth and sprinkled it over us It is a most picturesque spot Keeping then along the wild plain covered with a thick underwood of myrtle we beheld in the distance the highly picturesque and beautiful Mount Zaghw n the Holy Mountain of the ancient inhabitants which rose in a majestic form and we at length reached Bir el buw ta the well of the little closet at one o'clock in the afternoon The little closet however had given place to a most decent looking whitewashed kh n where we took up our quarters in a clean room But our buoyant spirits did not allow us long repose and a quarter before eleven at night we were again on our mules I shall never forget this the last night of the year 1849 which opened to us a new era with many ordeals and by our endurance of which we were to render ourselves worthy of success There were besides ourselves our servants and our two muleteers four horsemen of the Bey and three natives from Jirbi When midnight came my fellow traveller and I saluted the new year with enthusiasm and with a cordial shake of the hand wished each other joy Our Mohammedan companions were greatly pleased when they were informed of the reason of our congratulating each other and wished us all possible success for the new year We had also reason to be pleased with them for by their not inharmonious songs they relieved the fatigue of a long sleepless and excessively cold night Having made a short halt under the olive trees at the side of the dilapidated town of Herkla and taken a morsel of bread we moved on with our poor animals without interruption till half an hour after noon when we reached the funduk or caravanserai Sidi B J afer near S sa where we took up our quarters in order to be able to start again at night the gates of the town being kept shut till morning Starting before three o clock in the morning we were exactly twelve hours in reaching el Jem with the famous Castle of the Prophetess still one of the most splendid monuments of Roman greatness overhanging the most shabby hovels of Mohammedan indifference On the way we had a fine view towards the west of the picturesque Jebel Trutsa along the foot of which I had passed on my former wanderings and of the wide out stretching Jebel Useleet

The Top Books of the Year Finding Higher Ground A Life Of Travels The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Finding Higher Ground A Life Of Travels : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Finding Higher Ground A Life Of Travels : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
