Fire And Form The Art Of Contemporary Glass:

Fire and Form William Warmus, 2003 South Florida is home to some of the world's premier private collections of studio glass collections whose abundance, diversity and quality are celebrated in Fire and Form. This volume features more than 100 works by 31 of the best known American and European glass artists of our time including Jaroslava Brychtova, Dale Chihuly, Dan Dailey, Stanislav Libensky, William Morris, Tom Patti, Lino Tagliapietra and many others. William Warmus identifies four prominent themes in the relatively recent development of studio glass since 1960 that provide a framework for exploring the rich variety of works presented in this book. The first theme is what Warmus has called the particular affinity between nature and the making of glass. Where nature creates a heart, the glass artist creates a heart-felt vessel. The second is the ability of glass equally to that of painting and sculpture to convey the power of abstraction and color. A third theme is the prevalent use of glass, sometimes called the new bronze, to depict the human figure and animal forms. The final section deals with the theatrical nature of installations and environmental sculptures demonstrating the surprising capability of glass to impose itself physically and emotionally on the space we inhabit, altering our very perception of it. Fire and Form places contemporary glass within the context of contemporary art and theory at large. In addition, the book includes selected artists' bibliographies and a chronological bibliography of contemporary glass that lists key historical events, general trends and developments and important publications. Fire and Form offers a unique perspective on this vital and intoxicating medium and its publication is a welcome event for all lovers of glass: those who make it, those who collect it and those who admire it.

Fire & Form The Long Island Museum of American Art, 2021-08-20 Catalog for an exhibition of contemporary glass artists at the Long Island Museum August 20 - December 19, 2021 Stephen Rolfe Powell Stephen Rolfe Powell, 2010-09-12 A world-class colorist of international standing in modern glass, Stephen Rolfe Powell creates his work in a quiet outpost of rural Kentucky. His art and his life bridge other such divides. The radiant murrini skins of his glass vessels have an old Italian pedigree, yet his making techniques are radically American in their dramatic individuality. He is an award-winning classroom professor and a generous ambassador for glass, yet he is at the same time so uncompromising in his dedication to his creative work that he stands among modern glass's most nuanced seekers after the eternally sensual and elusive mysteries of light and color. An illustrated chronicle of Powell's glass blowing career, this book charts the evolution of Powell's remarkable body of work. Dazzling photographic close-ups detail the luminous murrini patterns that have become Powell's signature and reveal new ways of appreciating the complex interplay of color and texture in his art. Biographical and analytical essays by Mark Lucas, Laurie Winters and James Yood explore such topics as the teamwork that is critical to Powell's unique glass-making process, his teaching and learning experiences on the road from the former Soviet Union to Salt Lake City during the Olympics, and the story of the two freak injuries that deeply affected his work and how he thinks about it. Reflections by Kenn Holsten, Marvin Lipofsky, Dante Marioni, Bonnie Marx, John Roush and Lino Tagliapietra further supplement the book. The book's stunning photographs encourage the viewer to see Powell's work from different viewpoints highlighting the unique interactions of transparent opaque and translucent glass and Powell's bold color combinations Stephen Rolfe Powell Glassmaker vividly portrays the tension and excitement involved in the artist's nontraditional team approach to working with molten glass
