Day,2025-02-24 Leadership teams that want their firm to grow faster must excel at innovation This book offers a robust and tested approach that is used by organic growth leaders who have learned to master the four innovation disciplines The first discipline is to demonstrate a sustained leadership commitment to having the best innovation talent and capabilities They use these resources to turn their innovation flywheels faster by capturing better opportunities sooner containing the inevitable risks of innovation and then excelling with the messy and creative work of innovation They are much better at using technology advances such as Gen AI to improve their innovation processes and practices Whether you are a seasoned senior leader an aspiring manager or a contributor to an innovation team you ll learn how your firm can get and keep a growth advantage Making Data Work Edosa Odaro,2022-04-04 If you care about AI transformation empowering people or advancing organisational success in an increasingly digital world then you should read this book Yomi Ibosiola Chief Data and Analytics Officer Union Bank A retail giant already struggling due to the Covid 19 pandemic was faced with a disastrous situation when at the end of a critical investment in an artificial intelligence project that had been meant to save money it suddenly discovered that its implementation was likely to leave it worse off An entire critical service stream within an insurer s production system crashed This critical failure resulted in the detentions of fully insured motorists for allegedly not carrying required insurance Making Data Work Enabling Digital Transformation Empowering People and Advancing Organisational Success details these two scenarios as well as others illustrating the consequences that arise when organizations do not know how to make data work properly It is a journey to determine what to do to make data work for ourselves and for our organisations It is a journey to discover how to bring it all together so organisations can enable digital transformation empower people and advance organisational success It is the journey to a world where data and technology finally live up to the hype and deliver better human outcomes where artificial intelligence can move us from reacting to situations to predicting future occurrences and enabling desirable possibilities

The Connectivity of Innovation in the Construction Industry Malena Ingemansson Havenvid, Åse Linné, Lena E. Bygballe, Chris Harty, 2019-04-01 The construction industry is currently experiencing accelerating developments concerning societal demands along with project complexity internationalization and digitalization In an attempt to grasp the consequences of these demands on productivity and innovation this edited book addresses how innovation is likely to take place with a more long term perspective on the construction sector While existing literature focuses on organizational discontinuity and fragmentation as the main reasons for the apparent lack of innovation in the industry this book highlights the connectivity of construction actors resources and activities as fundamental for understanding how innovation takes place Through 15 empirically grounded chapters the book shows how innovation is part of construction processes on various levels including project firm and industry and that these innovation processes are characterized by organizational and technological connectivity over time Written by European business management scholars the chapters cover empirical cases and examples from both a multi organizational and a multi international perspective in terms of covering the viewpoints of different industry actors and the contexts of several different European countries including Sweden Norway the UK Italy France Hungary and Poland By illustrating how connectivity is part of innovation processes in the creation of single product innovations of various innovations within and across projects as well as a fundamental aspect of the processes in which innovations cross nations the book provides a new angle on how to understand construction innovation and where the industry might or needs to be heading next This book is essential reading for anyone interested in construction management project management engineering management innovation studies business and management studies

Raising Venture Capital Rupert Pearce, Simon Barnes, 2006-02-22 Offering a deep insight into the venture capital deal making process Raising Venture Capital also provides valuable introduction to the subject The book is practical in focus but based on sound academic theory research and teaching materials gathered over the last 4 years at Tanaka Business School Part one covers the history of the venture capital industry shows why entrepreneurs need venture capital finance and looks at how venture capitals raise and structure their funds It also covers valuation methods for venture capital investments and portfolio management Part two illustrates how successful entrepreneurs raise finance from venture capitals and gives details on how to approach venture capitals how to choose the right venture capital firm and how venture capitals and entrepreneurs work together after the deal is done Part three gives a blow by blow account of the structure of a venture capital deal Justice Denoted Terry White, 2003-09-30 White provides the most comprehensive scholarly compilation of fictional work of legal suspense in existence. Primarily a bibliography of novels, it also annotates plays, scripts for film and television, novelizations, and short story collections about lawyers and the law. The idea behind the principal of selection is to disdain labels that reduce the variety of the legal thriller to a subgenre of mystery fiction. Novels that range from suspense thrillers through science fiction to the philosophical novel are included if justice is thematically important. It is therefore an eclectic reference source beyond a compilation of books about lawyers as protagonists. Its biographical and scholarly information about authors, major and minor, and their novels or works is traditionally encyclopedic and objective regardless of whether the work has been genre defined or worse deified as a classic or denigrated as a bestseller. Many novels included are long out of print but historically interesting for their contribution to the lineage of the courtroom drama, showing that the history of the legal thriller is one of the major branches of modern literature since the Age of Reason. The criterion of Justice Denoted moves beyond the fact of lawyers and courtrooms to select seminal novels like Robert Travers' Anatomy of a Murder as well as the romantic potboiler. Among the more than 2,000 works are the Perry Mason novels of Erle Stanley Gardner, John Mortimer's Rumpole series, along with a staple of fiction by major authors of the genre like John Lescroart, Lisa Scottoline, Margaret Maron, Scott Turow, and John Grisham. There are also individual works by Shakespeare, Goethe, Kafka, Camus, and Twain delineating humanity's obsession with the law as its shining prop of civilization and alternative le te noire of the common individual caught up in its maw. The appendices include comments by lawyer novelist Michael A. Kahn, a historical introduction to the legal thriller, craft notes by writers and prominent trial lawyers responding to author and lawyer questionnaires, bibliography of critical sources and articles, series characters, and the legal terminology found in courtroom dramas and novels. An essential reference tool for scholars, researchers, as well as the occasional reader of legal thrillers.

The Computer Revolution in Canada John N. Vardalas, 2001-07-27 The forces that shaped Canada's digital innovations in the postwar period. After World War II, other major industrialized nations responded to the technological and industrial hegemony of the United States by developing their own design and manufacturing competence in digital electronic technology. In this book, John Vardalas describes the quest for such competence in Canada, exploring the significant contributions of the civilian sector but emphasizing the role of the Canadian military in shaping radical technological change. As he shows, Canada's determination to be an active participant in research and development work on advanced weapons systems and in the testing of those weapons systems was a cornerstone of Canadian technological development during the years 1945-1980. Vardalas presents case studies of such firms as Ferranti Canada, Sperry Gyroscope of Canada, and Control Data of Canada. In contrast to the standard nationalist interpretation of Canadian subsidiaries of transnational corporations as passive agents, he shows them to have been remarkably innovative and explains how their aggressive programs to develop all Canadian digital R & D and manufacturing capacities influenced technological development in the United States and in Great Britain While underlining the unprecedented role of the military in the creation of peacetime scientific and technical skills Vardalas also examines the role of government and university research programs including Canada's first computerized systems for mail sorting and airline reservations Overall he presents a nuanced account of how national economic political and corporate forces influenced the content extent and direction of digital innovation in Canada

The Decorated Tenement Zachary J. Violette, 2019-04-30 Winner of the International Society of Place Landscape and Culture Fred B Kniffen Award A reexamination of working class architecture in late nineteenth century urban America As the multifamily building type that often symbolized urban squalor tenements are familiar but poorly understood frequently recognized only in terms of the housing reform movement embraced by the American born elite in the late nineteenth century This book reexamines urban America's tenement buildings of this period centering on the immigrant neighborhoods of New York and Boston Zachary J Violette focuses on what he calls the decorated tenement a wave of new buildings constructed by immigrant builders and architects who remade the slum landscapes of the Lower East Side of Manhattan and the North and West Ends of Boston in the late nineteenth century These buildings highly ornamental facades became the target of predominantly upper class and Anglo Saxon housing reformers who viewed the facades as garish wrappings that often hid what they assumed were exploitative and brutal living conditions Drawing on research and fieldwork of more than three thousand extant tenement buildings Violette uses ornament as an entry point to reconsider the role of tenement architects and builders many of whom had deep roots in immigrant communities in improving housing for the working poor Utilizing specially commissioned contemporary photography and many never before published historical images The Decorated Tenement complicates monolithic notions of architectural taste and housing standards while broadening our understanding of the diversity of cultural and economic positions of those responsible for shaping American architecture and urban landscapes Winner of the International Society of Place Landscape and Culture Fred B Kniffen Award Value-Driven Data Edosa Odaro,2023-08-03 Value Driven Data explains how data and business leaders can co create and deploy data driven solutions for their organizations Value Driven Data explores how organizations can understand their problems and come up with better solutions aligning data storytelling with business needs The book reviews the main challenges that plague most data to business interactions and offers actionable strategies for effective data value implementation including methods for tackling obstacles and incentivizing change Value Driven Data is supported by tried and tested frameworks that can be applied to different contexts and organizations It features cutting edge examples relating to digital transformation data strategy resolving conflicts of interests building a data P L and AI value prediction methodology Recognizing different types of data value this book presents tangible methodologies for identifying capturing communicating measuring and deploying data enabled opportunities This is essential reading for data specialists business stakeholders and leaders involved in capturing and executing data value opportunities for organizations and for informing data value strategies The Crs Team and the Business of Architecture Jonathan King,Philip Langdon,2002 By the 1970s CRS was a master at organizing complicated architectural undertakings and had earned a global reputation for sharing its insights with practitioners worldwide

Pacific Islanders Under German Rule Peter J. Hempenstall,2016-06-01 This is an important book It is a reprint of the first detailed study of how Pacific Islanders responded politically and economically to their rulers across the German empire of the Pacific Under one cover it captures the variety of interactions between the various German colonial administrations with their separate approaches and the leaders and people of Samoa in Polynesia the major island centre of Pohnpei in Micronesia and the indigenes of New Guinea Drawing on anthropology new Pacific history insights and a range of theoretical works on African and Asian resistance from the 1960s and 1970s it reveals the complexities of Islander reactions and the nature of protests against German imperial rule It casts aside old assumptions that colonised peoples always resisted European colonisers Instead this book argues convincingly that Islander responses were often intelligent and subtle manipulations of their rulers agendas their societies dynamic enough to make their own adjustments to the demands of empire It does not shy away from major blunders by German colonial administrators nor from the strategic and tactical mistakes of Islander leaders At the same time it raises the profile of several large personalities on both sides of the colonial frontier including Lauaki Namulau ulu Mamoe and Wilhelm Solf in Samoa Henry Nanpei Georg Fritz and Karl Boeder in Pohnpei or Governor Albert Hahl and Po Minis from Manus Island in New Guinea The Growth of Firms Alex Coad,2009-01-01 Research into firm growth has been accumulating at a terrific pace and Alex Coad s survey of this multifaceted field provides a detailed comprehensive overview of the latest developments Much progress has been made in empirical research into firm growth in recent decades due to factors such as the availability of detailed longitudinal datasets more powerful computers and new econometric techniques This book provides an up to date catalogue of empirical work as well as a coherent theoretical structure within which these new results can be interpreted and understood It brings together a large body of recent research on firm growth from a multidisciplinary perspective providing an up to date synthesis of stylized facts and empirical regularities Numerous empirical findings and theories of firm growth are also surveyed and compared in order to evaluate their validity Drawing on a vast and diverse body of research this book will prove invaluable to students academics policy makers and practitioners with a need to keep abreast of studies in industrial organization firm growth and management
