War or Peace Deepak Lal, 2018-05-22 Today's international climate is one of disorder A League of Dictators China Russia Iran is threatening the superpower status of the United States of America and the liberal international order it has underwritten A piecemeal Third World War seems to have begun Eminent economist Deepak Lal argues that the global financial crisis was the proximate cause for a revanchist China and Russia believing that the liberal economic order promoted by the US was on its deathbed and their illiberal systems were the future But Lal argues that reports of the economic woes of the US are greatly exaggerated as are those of China's prospects and Russia's power With a new regime

The Rise and Fall of the European Defence Community K. Ruane, 2000-06-06 Using the European Defence Community EDC as a case study this book examines the competing and often conflicting view of the British and American governments towards European integration in the early 1950s The British fearing an agonizing reappraisal of the American defence commitment to Europe if the supranational EDC failed went to great lengths to ensure the success of the scheme When despite these efforts the EDC finally collapsed in August 1954 NATO was plunged into arguably the most severe crisis in its history The crisis also possessed an Anglo American dimension with London and Washington badly divided on how it should be resolved In the end the British were instrumental in the creation of the Western European Union as a successor to the EDC Their crisis management however had been rooted in fear of the agonizing reappraisal a danger dismissed by many historians as exaggerated but which the British in 1954 were perhaps right to take seriously
