Her Majesty's Wizard Christopher Stasheff, 2011-02-13 CROSS THE VOID OF TIME AND SPACE SEEK AND FIND YOUR PROPER PLACE Matt didn't know the scrap of parchment was a trap So he read the runes and found himself on a world where reciting poetry verses worked magic His first effort got him locked in a dungeon by the evil sorcerer Malingo Trying for light he brought forth a fire breathing drunken dragon who told him Princess Alisande rightful ruler of Merovence was also held in the dungeon Naturally he had to free her himself and the dragon using poetry lifted from Shakespeare And because she was young and beautiful he swore to serve as her wizard Then he learned that his job as wizard was to fix it so the three of them could overcome all the dark magic and armies of Malingo The addition to the party of a lust witch and a priest who became a werewolf now and then didn't seem much help Matt figured he had got himself into quite a predicament For once he was right This 25th anniversary eBook edition includes a new introduction by the author and new cover art

The Wizard's Son (Complete) Margaret Oliphant Wilson Oliphant,2020-09-28 The Methvens occupied a little house in the outskirts of a little town where there was not very much going on of any description and still less which they could take any share in being as they were poor and unable to make any effective response to the civilities shown to them The family consisted of three persons the mother who was a widow with one son the son himself who was a young man of three or four and twenty and a distant cousin of Mrs Methven s who lived with her having no other home It was not a very happy household The mother had a limited income and an anxious temper the son a somewhat volatile and indolent disposition and no ambition at all as to his future nor anxiety as to what was going to happen to him in life This as may be supposed was enough to introduce many uneasy elements into their joint existence and the third of the party Miss Merivale was not of the class of the peacemakers to whom Scripture allots a special blessing She had no amiable glamour in her eyes but saw her friends imperfections with a clearness of sight which is little conducive to that happy progress of affairs which is called getting on The Methvens were sufficiently proud to keep their difficulties out of the public eye but on very many occasions unfortunately it had become very plain to themselves that they did not get on It was not any want of love Mrs Methven was herself aware and her friends were in the constant habit of saying that she had sacrificed everything for Walter Injudicious friends are fond of making such statements by way it is to be supposed of increasing the devotion and gratitude of the child to the parent but the result is unfortunately very often the exact contrary of what is desired for no one likes to have his duty in this respect pointed out to him and whatever good people may think it is not in itself an agreeable thought that sacrifices have been made for one and an obligation placed upon one s shoulders from the beginning of time independent of any wish or claim upon the part of the person served The makers of sacrifices have seldom the reward which surrounding spectators and in many cases themselves think their due Mrs Methven herself would probably have been at a loss to name what were the special sacrifices she had made for Walter The London Gazette Great Britain,1844 The Wizard's Son Vol.I-III Mrs Oliphant,2018-08-27 Walter Methven is an indolent young man of twenty four To the despair of his widowed mother he prefers a circle of friends led by the shifty Captain Underwood to the regular pleasant society of their town It is known that Walter is a distant relation of the Scottish Lord Erradeen but it comes as a shock to him and his mother to learn that due to several deaths in the family he has succeeded to the title He vows to put aside his aimless past and do some real good in his new position Walter travels to Edinburgh to meet his solicitor and learns that one of the conditions of bearing the title is to spend several days each year on Loch Houran in the West Highlands at the ancient castle of Kinloch Houran Centuries ago there was a Warlock Lord of Erradeen an evil man who seemed to have the powers of the Devil and some believe that he still exerts his power over each Lord Erradeen in turn As this sinister figure begins to haunt and influence Walter after his arrival at Kinloch Houran he reaches out to two ladies on a nearby island Mrs Forrester and her daughter Oona Once Walter leaves the Highlands he all too easily falls into bad company again yet at times struggles to rise higher Before this supernatural tale ends he will again return to Kinloch Houran and there will be a final moral struggle between good and evil leading to a dramatic ending     *The Wizard's Son.
