Here Before:

Inferno Charles Bowden, 2006-05-01 Charles Bowden has been an outspoken advocate for the desert Southwest since the 1970s. Recently his activism helped persuade the U S government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument in southern Arizona. But in working for environmental preservation Bowden refuses to be one who outlines something straightforward: a manifesto with clear rules and a set of plans for others to follow. In this deeply personal book he brings the Sonoran Desert alive not as a place where well-meaning people can go to enjoy nature but as a raw reality that defies bureaucratic and even literary attempts to define it that can only be experienced through the senses. Inferno burns with Charles Bowden's passion for the desert he calls home. I want to eat the dirt and lick the rock. Or leave the shade for the sun and feel the burning. I know I don't belong here. But this is the only place I belong, he says. His vivid descriptions, complemented by Michael Berman's acutely observed photographs of the Sonoran Desert, make readers feel the heat and smell the dryness, see the colors in earth and sky and hear the singing of dry bones across the parched ground. Written as an antibiotic during the time Bowden was lobbying the government to create the Sonoran Desert National Monument, Inferno repudiates both the propaganda and the lyricism of contemporary nature writing. Instead, it persuades us that we need these places not to remember our better selves or our natural self or our spiritual self. We need these places to taste what we fear and devour what we are. We need these places to be animals because unless we are animals we are nothing at all. That is the price of being a civilized dude.

Memoirs of a Dead Guy Kent Hopkins, 2012-08 Kent has just had a dawning realization. As he slowly turns to face his bed, he wants to hear his daughter laugh one more time, tend to his vegetable garden and pet his cat. As his reverie is interrupted by a dim glow, an apparition appears before him. As his guide reaches out for his hand, Kent wonders who will water his veggies. It is his time to die. It is not long before Kent discovers that equal opportunity exists in the realms beyond our Earth. As his guide forces him to endure an excruciating scrutiny of his soul and motives in life, Kent is able to see the good he performed, the help he tendered, the evil he fell victim to, and the inspiration he provided. Now on a journey curing which he must coexist with strange souls, feel a wide range of emotions, and reconcile his life on Earth, Kent learns that he cannot move forward on his destined path until he finds the part of his spirit that is missing. Memoirs of a Dead Guy delves into realms of truth and wisdom as a rebellious soul attempts to discover the purpose of life and the ramifications of his past deeds.

Manipulation, Money, and Murder Sheryl Jordan, 2014-04-28 Xavier Hudson begins his life of crime at an early age. When he is still a child, his mother teaches him to steal while his father gambles away every penny they had. As he grows up in the small town of Marion, Indiana, in the 1960s, Xavier becomes a cold-blooded criminal filled with rage, arrogance, and greed. Every action, even those that might seem good, carries the ulterior motive of evil intent. His boundless greed for money leads first to store and bank robberies and then to murder. Eventually, a sheriff runs him out of the state, and Xavier finds safe haven in Minneapolis. His lesson has yet to be learned though as he continues his life of crime and abuse in his new city Shannon Wilson is a sweet naive young woman who grew up in the same town as Xavier Their paths surprisingly cross in Minneapolis when she moves there to raise her two children as a single mother When they meet both of their lives are irrevocably changed but Shannon may not be able to settle Xavier down Instead they might both end up with bloody hands

Words from Awaki Bernetha George MD,2014-11-20 Don't believe the hype believe what you see Apocalypse as we have come to fear is not apocalypse as it truly is We live today in the time of apocalypse and for some it is pure torment For those around the world living with bombs raining down on them yes that is apocalyptic torture as we feared For those thousands and millions throughout the universe visited and killed by the deadly flu and flu like diseases SARS swine flu bird flu West Nile virus etc Ebola tuberculosis measles cholera dengue fever EV D68 and HIV AIDS yes those are apocalyptic diseases as we feared For those ravished killed left homeless and totally dispossessed by these record breaking seemingly wicked weather events we are currently experiencing yes they would agree that these are for certain apocalyptic changes as we feared However given there are over seven billion of us on the planet and those apocalyptic events mentioned have only killed millions not billions of us they dont seem to rise to the level of chaos and destruction we have been conditioned to fear as being apocalyptic Nevertheless our over exaggerated deep seated and conditioned fears notwithstanding Armageddon is upon us and the signs of it have been for almost twenty years that we know of Those above mentioned apocalyptic occurrences are the signs we were all told would be by John the Revelator in Revelation November 1995 to May 1996 no fewer than seventy of us were told by an angel Awaki and his Angels of God that the signs had already begun and that Armageddon would begin in the year 2000 Our story no matter how far fetched it may seem is true The evidentiary events of war disease and bizarre weather changes we witness daily provide for us the credibility of what we were told The angel Shakardak told us Some will see and they will believe some will not see and they will believe some will hear and they will believe and some will not hear and they will believe and then there will be those who will see and they will not believe and there will be those who will hear and they will not believe Hearings United States.
