I. Lesson IntroductionA. What Are Baptist Distinctives?

1. "Baptist Distinctive, we mean the historical facts and Biblical doctrines that had _____ Baptists as the true people of God from their inception to the present time."
2. Baptist Distinctives are those teachings which _____ us or make us distinct from other church groups such as Catholics, Protestants and the like.
3. These distinctives are _____ the only truths we believe from the Bible but these are the primarily beliefs concerning church policy and practice which distinguish us from other churches.
4. These distinctives have always been true of Baptists historically and may not be held by _____ Baptists churches today.

B. What Are The Baptist Distinctives?

To make it simple to understand, we made it into a B-A-P-T-I-S-T-S Acrostic.

B - _____

We Baptists believe that the Bible is our final authority. No word of man or council of men can ever supersede the Bible. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

A - _____

We Baptist believe that the local church is an independent body accountable to no one but to our Lord Jesus Christ only. There is no person or organization on earth that can dictate what a local church can or should do. (Matthew 18:15-17)

P - _____

Every believer today is a priest and may enter the presence of God directly through our Mediator, our Great High Priest Jesus Christ. There is no need for any human mediator. (1 Peter 2:5-9)

T - _____

The Bible teaches that there are only two ordinances for the local church to practice today - Baptism and Lord's Supper. (Acts 2:41-47;

1 Corinthians 11:23-32).

The Bible teaches that there are only two offices in the church - Pastor and Deacon. There is no Scriptural support for the hierarchy of offices in many churches today. (Colossians 1:18; Ephesians 5:23)

I - _____

We Baptists believe that every individual has the liberty to believe as his own conscience or soul dictates. A person should not be forced to believe anything against his will. Of course, that liberty is not freedom to do wrong or even promote heresy and initiate division among the brethren. (Romans 14:5-12)

Tomson,2005-01-01 Tomson has written an accessible responsible analysis of the biblical accounts of Jesus death demonstrating how through compounded misunderstandings they contributed to anti Jewish sentiment in the early church and later history The Distinctive Identity of the Church Jeppe Bach Nikolajsen,2015-03-20 An increasing number of theologians believe that the Western world has moved from an era of Christendom to an era of post Christendom This book goes to the heart of the debate related to this shift asking How are we to understand the distinctive identity of the church with special reference to its role in a post Christendom society It then presents an analysis of the work of the English Reformed theologian Lesslie Newbigin and the American Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder both of whom reflect on how we should understand this important question At the end of The Distinctive Identity of the Church the charge of sectarianism is discussed It is argued that a missionary God sends the church to the world and consequently this sending should fundamentally determine its existence in the world The book argues that the task that lies before the church in the Western world is not to bypass its distinctiveness with accusations of sectarianism but to recapitulate an understanding of its own distinctiveness that should be seen as a precondition for its engagement in society Such an ecclesiological position holds important potential for an understanding of the role of the church in pluralistic Western cultures The Study of Religion
