Heritage Management Interpretation Identity:

Heritage Peter Howard, 2003-06-16 Heritage and its preservation is a major concern around the world In order to establish identities as well as attracting visitors the natural and cultural heritage is protected conserved managed and interpreted by families by cities by nation states and at international level Environmental and cultural heritage is now accepted as a major feature in business location as the demand for quality of life becomes insistent This major movement has resulted in the development of Heritage as a field of study both on its own and as elements within many other disciplines such as geography art history archaeology ecology and tourism management While the techniques of conservation remains within specialist disciplines Peter Howard offers a textbook for students approaching heritage as a combined field of study for the first time The fields of heritage under review range from the nature trail to the cathedral and from the family album to the national park viewed at a variety of levels including family and local heritage as well as the national and international dimensions Heritage is seen as a demand led activity with interested stakeholders being academics governments owners school children pilgrims and the media as well as the ubiquitous tourist There is a process by which some things are selected as heritage but others are ignored and it is the practical management of this process which is the focus to which the text constantly returns

The Routledge Research Companion to Heritage and Identity Peter Howard, 2016-03-16 Heritage represents the meanings and representations conveyed in the present day upon artifacts landscapes mythologies memories and traditions from the past It is a key element in the shaping of identities particularly in the context of increasingly multicultural societies This Research Companion brings together an international team of authors to discuss the concepts ideas and practices that inform the entwining of heritage and identity They have assembled a wide geographical range of examples and interpret them through a number of disciplinary lenses that include geography history museum and heritage studies archaeology art history history anthropology and media studies This outstanding companion offers scholars and graduate students a thoroughly up to date guide to current thinking and a comprehensive reference to this growing field

Heritage and Identity Marta Anico, Elsa Peralta, 2008-11-26 Heritage and Identity explores the complex ways in which heritage actively contributes to the construction and representation of identities in contemporary societies providing a comprehensive account of the diverse conceptions of heritage and identity across different continents and cultures This collection of thought provoking articles from experts in the field captures the richness and diversity of the interlinked themes of heritage and identity Heritage is more than a simple legacy from the past and incorporates all elements past and present that have the ability to represent particular identities in the public sphere The editors introduce and discuss a wide range of interconnected topics including multiculturalism and globalization local and regional identity urban heritage difficult memories conceptions of history ethnic representations repatriation ownership controversy contestation and ethics and social responsibility The volume places empirical data within a theoretical and analytical framework and presents an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the representation of the past invaluable for anyone interested in heritage and museum studies Identity, Nationalism, and Cultural Heritage under Siege Fatme Myuhtar-May,2014-04-17 In

Identity Nationalism and Cultural Heritage under Siege Fatme Myuhtar May makes a case for the recognition of Pomak heritage by presenting five stories from the past and present of the Rhodope Muslims in Bulgaria as examples of a distinct Pomak culture The stories range from the Christianisation during the Balkan Wars of 1912 1913 and the forced communist renaming of the Pomaks in the 1970s to their fascinating wedding rituals and historic figures Each of the five narratives contains its own storyline and serves as a prominent example of Pomak heritage from the author s perspective The stories take place in the context of fervent nationalism and the ongoing censorship of Pomakness based on the claim that it is an ethnic Bulgarian not Pomak heritage Heritage, Homemaking, and Identity Formation in Migrant Workers Junmin

Liu,2025-04-10 Liu explores the experiences of Yi migrant workers in Shenzhen China investigating how their cultural heritage influences their search for identity and a sense of belonging This book uncovers the intricate relationship between heritage and homemaking examining how Yi migrants engage in their cultural practices within various settings such as families workplaces restaurants tourist sites and social media platforms Through thorough fieldwork and interviews the book demonstrates how ethnic heritage acts as a means for migrants to establish a feeling of connection during their migration journeys Nevertheless challenges and tensions emerge in the realm of home illustrating the dynamic interplay between heritage and the construction of a sense of place It also enriches our comprehension of the link between cultural heritage and the experiences of migrants shedding light on the complexities of identity development in a globalised world A valuable resource for scholars and researchers in disciplines like anthropology migration studies cultural studies and Chinese studies as well as professionals and policymakers interested in migrant integration cultural heritage preservation and urban development Dynamics of Heritage Management and Tourism Development Surabhi Srivastava,Ruchika

Kulshrestha,2025-04-02 This book explores and elaborates on the concept of heritage tourism and its implications for the tourism industry worldwide The book is unique in that it offers a thorough assessment of the literature on heritage management in order to highlight the significance of conserving and promoting tangible and intangible cultural assets for sustainable tourism development It provides direction for destinations experiencing problems with heritage management and for developing new tourism destinations The chapters focus on what has been learned from previous generations both material and immaterial and what constitutes a cultural heritage Topics include changing dynamics of heritage management through sustainability challenges in conservation of architectural heritage tourism development in urban areas digitization as a tool for conservation and sustainability and more The book makes extensive use of case studies to demonstrate the strategies and impacts related to heritage tourism in different countries Wine and Identity Matt Harvey,Leanne

White,Warwick Frost,2014-01-10 In an increasingly competitive global market winemakers are seeking to increase their sales and wine regions to attract tourists To achieve these aims there is a trend towards linking wine marketing with identity Such an approach seeks to distinguish wine products whether wine or wine tourism from their competitors by focusing on cultural and geographical attributes that contribute to the image and experience In essence marketing wine and wine regions has become increasingly about telling stories engaging and provocative stories which engage consumers and tourists and translate into sales This timely book examines this phenomena and how it is leading to changes in the wine and tourism industries for the first time It takes a global approach drawing on research studies from around the world including old and new world wine regions The volume is divided into three parts The first branding investigates cases where established regions have sought to strengthen their brands or newer regions are striving to create effective emerging brands The second heritage considers cases where there are strong linkages between cultural heritage and wine marketing The third section terroir explores how a sense of place is inherent in winescapes and regional identities and is increasingly being used as a distinctive selling proposition This significant volume showcasing the connections between place identity variety and wine will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism marketing and wine studies

Heritage Marketing Shashi Misiura, 2006 This textbook systematically addresses the principles of marketing as applied to the heritage sector Chapters cover an introduction to heritage marketing environmental factors markets segmentation and target marketing in the heritage industry and company heritage marketing Heritage Tourism Hyung Yu Park, 2013-11-20 Heritage tourism has become an increasingly significant component of the global tourism industry particularly in countries striving to diversify away from sea sand and sun This growth has had profound influences on the presentation and representation of both tangible and intangible heritage within tourism context The concept of heritage continues to evolve with its fast changing political economic and socio cultural surroundings Therefore it is essential that heritage tourism engages with the new form of globalised communities and societies which have become more assimilated to each other but yet strive to sustain their own distinctive locality This book aims to offer a thorough critical examination and systematic evaluation of the unique dynamics of heritage and tourism development from both social sciences and management perspectives It incorporates both global and local perspectives in theorising and managing heritage tourism While focusing on reviewing and analysing key academic concepts and debates including authenticity commodification globalisation and heritage interpretation this book also discusses and evaluates topical issues such as sustainable development marketing strategies and digital technologies including social media It theoretically locates heritage discourses in the analysis of heritage tourism development and management drawing on various perspectives from tourism heritage studies sociology anthropology politics and geography to management and marketing studies Including case studies of topical concerns controversies and challenges it will encourage readers to develop a new and insightful understanding of the dialectical relationship between heritage and tourism development This book is essential reading for students studying tourism heritage studies cultural studies as well as related disciplines Heritage Cuisines Dallen J. Timothy, 2015-11-19 Food is one of the most fundamental elements of culture and a significant marker of regional and ethnic identity It encompasses many other elements of cultural heritage beyond the physical ingredients required for its production These include folklore religion language familial bonds social structures environmental determinism celebrations and ceremonies landscapes culinary routes smells and tastes to name but a few However despite all that is known about foodways and cuisine from hospitality gastronomical supply chain and agricultural perspectives there still remains a dearth of consolidated research on the wide diversity of food and its heritage attributes and contexts This edited volume aims to fill this void by consolidating into a single volume what is known about cuisines and foodways from a heritage perspective and to examine and challenge the existing paradigms concepts and practices related to gastronomic practices intergenerational traditions sustainable agriculture indigenous rituals immigrant stories and many more heritage elements as they pertain to comestible cuisines and practices The book takes a global and thematic approach in examining heritage cuisines from a wide range of perspectives including agriculture hunting and gathering migration ethnic identity and place nationalism sustainability colonialism food diversity religion place making festivals and contemporary movements and trends All chapters are rich in empirical examples but steady and sound in conceptual depth This book offers new insight and understanding of the heritage implications of cuisines and foodways The multidisciplinary nature of the content will appeal to a broad academic audience in the fields of tourism gastronomy geography cultural studies anthropology and sociology The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage, Culture, and Preservation Barry L. Stiefel, Jennifer Clark, 2019-12-06 The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage, Culture, and Preservation explores automotive heritage its place in society and the ways we might preserve and conserve it Drawing on contributions from academics and practitioners around the world and comprising six sections this volume carries the heritage discourse forward by exploring the complex and sometimes intricate place of automobiles within society Taken as a whole this book helps to shape how we think about automobile heritage and considers how that heritage explores a range of cultural intellectual emotional and material elements well outside of the automobile body itself Most importantly perhaps it questions how we might better acknowledge the importance of automotive heritage now and in the future The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage, Culture, and Preservation is unique in that it juxtaposes theory with practice academic approaches with practical experience and recognizes that issues of preservation and conservation belong in a broad context As such this volume should be essential reading for both academics and practitioners with an interest in automobiles cultural heritage and preservation The Protection of Archaeological Heritage in Times of Economic Crisis Elena Korka, 2015-01-12 This volume brings together the proceedings of the conference From past experience to new approaches and synergies The future of protection management for archaeological heritage in times of economic crisis held in the new Acropolis Museum in Athens in 2012 The conference was organised by the Hellenic National Committee of the

International Scientific Council on Monuments and Sites ICOMOS and the International Scientific Committee on Archaeological Heritage Management ICAHM with the participation of United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property ICCROM the International Council of Museums ICOM and the International Committee on Risk Preparedness ICORP Special interest at the conference was directed to the Mediterranean region as the area currently faces a variety of serious man made and natural disasters This book offers a collection of papers presented at the conference which examine existing experiences in various parts of the world in order to offer solutions and new ways of managing the protection of cultural heritage as well as sustaining the preservation of archaeological remains in times of economic crisis which represents a major threat facing archaeological heritage worldwide The current economic crisis has had a significant impact on various sectors of archaeological heritage management and has affected the majority of tangible and intangible cultural assets In this framework some of the main themes that are addressed in this volume include environmental harmonization management and best practices in sustainability management action plans risk mitigation and confrontation research in conservation preservation and technologies shelter protection restoration coordination and site use illicit excavations and trafficking protection of collections and movable finds preservation of intangible heritage at sites and monuments and heritage and the economy The book offers useful documentation for maintaining high standards in the field of archaeological heritage while searching for new ground for synergies and fresh initiatives in order to confront the new challenges archaeology is currently facing such as the economic crisis a factor which is closely connected to the development of society and the sustainability of cultural property

The Routledge Companion to Military Research Methods Alison J. Williams, Neil Jenkins, Rachel Woodward, Matthew F. Rech, 2016-04-28 This new handbook is about the practices of conducting research on military issues As an edited collection it brings together an extensive group of authors from a range of disciplinary perspectives whose chapters engage with the conceptual practical and political questions raised when doing military research The book considers a wide range of questions around research about on and with military organisations personnel and activities from diverse starting points across the social sciences arts and humanities Each chapter in this volume Describes the nature of the military research topic under scrutiny and explains what research practices were undertaken and why Discusses the author s research activities addressing the nature of their engagement with their subjects and explaining how the method or approach under scrutiny was distinctive because of the military context or subject of the research Reflects on the author s research experiences and the specific often unique negotiations with the politics and practices of military institutions and military personnel before during and after their research fieldwork The book provides a focussed overview of methodological approaches to critical studies of military personnel and institutions and processes and practices of militarisation and militarism In particular it engages with the growth in qualitative approaches to military research particularly research carried out on military topics outside military research institutions The handbook provides the reader with a comprehensive guide to how critical military research is being undertaken by social scientists and humanities scholars today and sets out suggestions for future approaches to military research This book will be of much interest to students of military studies war and conflict studies and research methods in general Heritage, Sport and Tourism Sean Gammon, Gregory

Ramshaw, 2013-09-13 Sport heritage is increasingly being recognised as a potent instigator of tourism be it touring a historic stadium visiting a sports hall of fame or participating in a sport fantasy camp tourists now have a vast array of locations and options to experience the sporting past This book provides the first comprehensive resource on sport heritage as a tourist attraction Using theoretical and applied studies from researchers in the United Kingdom the Netherlands Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand this book finds that the sporting past is a key component in tourism s future The convergence of heritage sport and tourism involves many different and diverse fields including sport tourism heritage tourism sport management and sports geography This book will serve the needs of students researchers industry practitioners in these fields as well as those interested in sport heritage as a tourist attraction This book was first published as a special issue of the Journal of Sport Tourism International Perspectives of Festivals and Events Jane Ali-Knight, Alan

Fyall, Martin Robertson, Adele Ladkin, 2009-02-04 International Perspectives of Festivals and Events addresses contemporary issues concerning the potential of festivals and events to produce economic social cultural and community benefits Incorporating a range of international perspectives the book provides the reader with a global look at current trends and topics which have until now been underrepresented by current literature International Perspectives of Festivals and Events includes a broad range of research case studies and examples from well known scholars in the field to form a unified volume that informs the reader of the current status of festivals and events around the world In a fast moving industry where new theory and practice is implemented rapidly this is essential reading for any advanced student or researcher in festivals and events Handbook of Research on Examining Cultural Policies Through Digital Communication Önay Dogan,

Betül, Gül Ünlü, Derya, 2018-11-09 Culture is one of the most important elements for explaining individuals behaviors within the social structure It meets the various social needs of members of a society by directing how individuals must react to various events and how to act in specific circumstances A planned and systematic process is required for disseminating this cultural accumulation as a policy which is produced collectively by all members within their everyday life practices The Handbook of Research on Examining Cultural Policies Through Digital Communication provides emerging research on this aspect of cultural policy which is formed within the framework of this systematic process in a strategic manner and can be defined as various activities of the state intended for art human sciences and cultural inheritance Creating such cultural policies involves the establishment of measures and organizations required for the development of each individual providing economic and social facilities all of which are actions intended for directing society Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as long distance education digital citizenship and public diplomacy this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers advanced level students sociologists international and national organizations and government officials

Heritage Studies Marie Louise Stig Sørensen, John Carman, 2009-09-18 This is the first volume specifically dedicated to the consolidation and clarification of Heritage Studies as a distinct field with its own means of investigation It presents the range of methods that can be used and illustrates their application through case studies from different parts of the world including the UK and USA The challenge that the collection makes explicit is that Heritage Studies must develop a stronger recognition of the scope and nature of its data and a concise yet explorative understanding of its analytical methods The methods considered fall within three broad categories textual discourse analysis methods for investigating people's attitudes and behaviour and methods for exploring the material qualities of heritage The methods discussed and illustrated range from techniques such as text analysis interviews participant observation to semiotic analysis of heritage sites and the use of GIS Each paper discusses the ways in which methods used in social analysis generally are explored and adapted to the specific demands that arise when applied to the investigation of heritage in its many forms Heritage Studies is a seminal volume that will help to define the field The global perspective and the shared focus upon the development of reflexive methodologies ensure that the volume explores these central issues in a manner that is simultaneously case specific and of general relevance

The Second World War and the 'Other British Isles' Daniel Travers, 2018-06-28 What is often held to be Britain's finest hour the Second World War was not experienced so uniformly across the British Isles On the margins the war was endured in profoundly different ways While D Day or Dunkirk is embedded in British collective memory how many Britons can recall that Finns were interned on the Isle of Man that enemy soldiers developed British infrastructure in Orkney or that British subjects were sent to concentration camps from Guernsey Such experiences tangential to the dominant British war narrative are commemorated elsewhere in the other British Isles In this remarkable contribution to British Island Studies Daniel Travers pursues these histories and their commemoration across numerous local sites of memory museums heritage sites and public spaces He examines the way these island identities assert their own distinctiveness over the British wartime story and ultimately the way they fit into the ongoing discourse about how the memory of the Second World War has been constructed since 1945 Heritage and Tourism in Britain and Ireland Glenn Hooper, 2017-02-25 This edited collection examines the natural but sometimes troubled relationship that exists between heritage and tourism Chapters included focus on a selection of topics including literary tourism industrial heritage conservation and care Employing a range of historical and cultural materials as well as an extensive number of case studies the chapters offer an engaging overview of heritage and tourism developments across the Isles especially in terms of recent policy and strategy initiatives new facilities and infrastructure as well as the different and evolving management systems currently in place Interdisciplinary in scope and drawing on the expertise of researchers from within both academia and industry this volume will be of particular importance to those with interests in management and the humanities
