Heroic Gardens:

Space, Place, and Sex Lynda Johnston, Robyn Longhurst, 2010 This accessible and engaging book explores the ways that space place and sex are inextricably linked from the micro to the macro level from the individual body to the globe Drawing on queer feminist gender social and cultural studies Lynda Johnston and Robyn Longhurst highlight the complex nature of sex and sexuality and how they are connected to both virtual and physical spaces and places Their aim is to enrich our understanding of sexual identities and practices whether they be lesbian gay bisexual transsexual asexual queer or heterosexual They show that bodies are defined and connected through media such as television movies ads and the Internet as well as through real places such as homes churches sports arenas city streets beaches and wilderness Drawing on a diverse array of historical and contemporary examples the authors argue convincingly that sexual politics permeate all places and spaces at every level of geographical scale Thus they illustrate sexuality affects the way people live in and interact with space and place as space and place in turn affect people s sexuality Jewish Topographies Julia Brauch, Anna Lipphardt, 2016-05-06 How have Jews experienced their environments and how have they engaged with specific places How do Jewish spaces emerge how are they contested performed and used With these questions in mind this anthology focuses on the production of Jewish space and lived Jewish spaces and sheds light on their diversity inter connectedness and multi dimensionality By exploring historical and contemporary case studies from around the world the essays collected here shift the temporal focus generally applied to Jewish civilization to a spatially oriented perspective The reader encounters sites such as the gardens cultivated in the Ghettos during World War II the Israeli development town of Netivot Thornhill an Orthodox suburb of Toronto or new virtual sites of Jewish Second Life on the Internet and learns about the Jewish landkentenish movement in Interwar Poland the Jewish connection to the sea and the culinary landscapes of Russian Jews in New York Employing an interdisciplinary approach with a strong foothold in cultural history and cultural anthropology this anthology introduces new methodological and conceptual approaches to the study of the spatial aspects of Jewish civilization

Defiant Gardens Kenneth I. Helphand, 2006 A history of wartime gardens documents how they humanize landscapes and experience even under the direst conditions Sanctifying Slavery and Politics in South Carolina Fred E Witzig, 2018-04-30 A vivid portrait of a Scottish religious leader and the South Carolina colony he helped shape When Alexander Garden a Scottish minister of the Church of England arrived in South Carolina in 1720 he found a colony smoldering from the devastation of the Yamasee War and still suffering from economic upheaval political factionalism and rampant disease It was also a colony turning enthusiastically toward plantation agriculture made possible by African slave labor In Sanctifying Slavery and Politics in South Carolina the first published biography of Garden Fred E Witzig paints a vivid portrait of the religious leader and the South Carolina colony he helped shape Shortly after his arrival Garden a representative of the bishop of London became the rector of St Philip s Church in Charleston the first Anglican parish in the colony The ambitious clergyman quickly married into a Charleston slave trading family and allied himself with the political and social elite From the pulpit Garden reinforced the social norms and economic demands of the southern planters and merchants and he disciplined recalcitrant missionaries who dared challenge the prevailing social order As a way of defending the morality of southern slaveholders he found himself having to establish the first large scale school for slaves in Charles Town in the 1740s Garden also led a spirited and largely successful resistance to the Great Awakening evangelical movement championed by the revivalist minister George Whitefield whose message of personal salvation and a more democratic Christianity was anathema to the social fabric of the slaveholding South which continually feared a slave rebellion As a minister Garden helped make slavery morally defensible in the eyes of his peers giving the appearance that the spiritual obligations of his slaveholding and slave trading friends were met as they all became extraordinarily wealthy Witzig s lively cultural history bolstered by numerous primary sources maps and illustrations helps illuminate both the roots of the Old South and the Church of England s role in sanctifying slavery in South Carolina Barnett Newman Barnett Newman,1992-01-01 Barnett Newman s writings reveal him to be an impassioned and articulate analyst of art and society who never hesitated to make his views known and always stood by them To understand Newman s unique place in the culture of the twentieth century we must know both his paintings and his words a knowledge made possible by this long awaited volume Barnett Newman 1905 1970 was a thinker who chose to develop his ideas both in painting and in writing He was also a citizen who made his acts of painting and writing political And he was an artist Richard Schiff from the Introduction Barnett Newman s writings reveal him to be an impassioned and articulate analyst of art and society who never hesitated to make his views known and always stood by them To understand Newman s unique place in the culture of the twentieth century we must know both his paintings and his words a knowledge made possible by this long awaited volume Barnett Newman 1905 1970 was a thinker who chose to develop his ideas both in painting and in writing He was also a citizen who made his acts of painting and writing political And he was an artist Richard Schiff from the Introduction

Garden-craft Old and New John Dando Sedding,1891 Garden-Craft Old and New John D. Sedding,2020-08-13 Reproduction of the original Garden Craft Old and New by John D Sedding The Gardens of Desire Stephen Gilbert Brown,2012-02-01 The Gardens of Desire is at once a model of literary interpretation and a groundbreaking psychocritical reading of a literary masterpiece Marcel Proust s la recherche du temps perdu Remembrance of Things Past Shedding new light on the origins of the creative impulse in general and on the psychological origins of the Recherche in particular the book illuminates the hidden associations between matricidal suicidal sadistic masochistic homoerotic and creative impulses as manifested in Proust s work The book moves beyond traditional Freudian readings of Proust to consider the theories of Otto Rank Jacques Derrida and others and provides provocative readings of the privileged moments that comprise many of the work s critical cruxes as well as a thought provoking rereading of the novel s ending Both elegant and accessible this book boldly explores the violence of desire as it relates not only to Proust's narrator but also to Proustian criticism itself with its own violent desire to appropriate the essence of Proust's masterpiece

The Garden of Ideas Richard Aitken, 2010 The Garden of Ideas tells an inspiring and engaging story of Australian garden design From the imaginings of emigrant garden makers of the late eighteenth century to the concerns of twenty first century gardeners this book charts its way across four centuries through a handsome and satisfying fusion of images and text The Garden of Ideas is embellished with an unparalleled array of images paintings drawings prints plans and photographs each richly evocative of their time and most never previously published Unearthed from around Australia and many from overseas these images carry the story of Australian garden style down the years in the process criss crossing social and cultural history across the wide extremes of our continent Richard Aitken whose book Botanical Riches was published in 2006 to popular and critical acclaim brings a lifetime of experience to The Garden of Ideas He achieves fresh insights and presents our passion for garden making with wit and flair The Garden of Ideas is a valuable source book for the sophisticated gardener and an indispensable companion for the garden lover

Garden-Craft Old and New John Dando Sedding, 2021-04-26 In Garden Craft Old and New John Dando Sedding masterfully intertwines practical horticulture with philosophical musings on the relationship between humans and nature This work characterized by its rich evocative prose and detailed illustrations invites readers into a world where gardening is seen not just as a pastime but as a profound art form that celebrates the interplay between mankind and the natural environment Sedding advocates for both traditional and innovative gardening techniques emphasizing a holistic approach that respects historical practices while embracing modern sensibilities situated in the context of the late Victorian era's burgeoning interest in aesthetic gardening and landscape design Sedding a leading figure in the Arts and Crafts movement drew upon his extensive knowledge of architecture and nature reflecting a deep seated passion for beauty and functionality in garden design His experiences as a designer and writer in an era defined by rapid social change and mechanization undoubtedly influenced his belief in the importance of handcraftsmanship and the organic connection to the land Sedding's background informs the dualities present in his writing blending technical skill with artistic inspiration making his work a significant contribution to gardening literature Garden Craft Old and New is highly recommended for both seasoned gardeners and novices who seek a comprehensive understanding of gardening as an art form With its insightful blend of practical advice and philosophical reflection this book serves as an invaluable resource that encourages readers to cultivate not just their gardens but a deeper appreciation for the world around them

Greening in the Red Zone Keith G. Tidball, Marianne E. Krasny, 2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems

A World of Gardens John Dixon Hunt,2014-05-14 A Japanese garden is immediately distinct to the eye from the traditional gardens of an English manor house just as the manicured topiaries of Versailles contrast with the sharp cacti of the American Southwest Though gardening is beloved the world over the style of gardens themselves varies from region to region determined as much by culture as climate In this series of illustrated essays John Dixon Hunt takes us on a world tour of different periods in the making of gardens Hunt shows here how cultural assumptions and local geography have shaped gardens and their meaning He explores our continuing responses to land and reworkings of the natural world encompassing a broad range of gardens from ancient Roman times to early Islamic and Mughal gardens from Chinese and Japanese gardens to the invention of the public park and modern landscape architecture A World of Gardens looks at key chapters in garden history reviewing their significance past and present and tracing the recurrence of different themes and motifs in the design and reception of gardens throughout the world A World of Gardens celebrates the idea that similar experiences of gardens can be found in many different times and places including sacred landscapes scientific gardens urban gardens secluded gardens and symbolic gardens Featuring two hundred images this book is a treasure trove of ideas and inspiration whether your garden is a window box a secluded backyard or a daydream

The Disfavored Hero Jessica Amanda Salmonson,2015-04-07 Forced to betray her lord a disgraced samurai fights to regain her honor In the fabled land of Naipon there is no warrior more feared no samurai more respected than the legendary Tomoe Gozen whose twin blades can change the course of any battle After years of service to Lord Shigeno she is about to renew her oath of loyalty when the sky darkens and a cry of rebellion comes from the hills Possessed by an evil wizard the peasants are marching against their master Tomoe holds off the wave of pitchfork wielding farmers for as long as she can Finally the battle overwhelms her and the greatest samurai in Naipon falls dead She awakes in hell on a slope lined with bloody corpses After an eternity of fighting she reaches the summit and finds herself in the chamber of a wizard who restores her to life She is alive but now she must do his bidding Her honor has been shattered but Tomoe Gozen will do whatever it takes to win it back

A Cultural History of Gardens in the Medieval Age Michael Leslie,2015-04-02 The Middle Ages was a time of great upheaval the period between the seventh and fourteenth centuries saw great social political and economic change The radically distinct cultures of the Christian West Byzantium Persian influenced Islam and al Andalus resulted in different responses to the garden arts of antiquity and different attitudes to the natural world and its artful manipulation Yet these cultures interacted and communicated trading plants myths and texts By the fifteenth century the garden as a cultural phenomenon was immensely sophisticated and a vital element in the way society saw itself and its relation to nature A Cultural History of Gardens in the Medieval Age presents an overview of the period with essays on issues of design types of gardens planting use and reception issues of meaning verbal and visual representation of gardens and the relationship of gardens to the larger landscape Everyday Heroism: Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian John Price, 2014-01-16 Heroism in the 19th and early 20th centuries is synonymous with military endeavours imperial adventures and the great men of history There was however another prominent and influential strand of the idea which has until now been largely overlooked This book seeks to address this oversight and establish new avenues of study by revealing and examining everyday heroism acts of life risking bravery undertaken by otherwise ordinary individuals largely in the course of their daily lives and within quotidian surroundings Adopting an interdisciplinary approach John Price charts and investigates the growth and development of this important discourse presenting in depth case studies of The Albert Medal and the Carnegie Hero Fund alongside a nationwide analysis of heroism monuments and an exploration of radical approaches to the concept Unlike its military and imperial counterparts everyday heroism embraced the heroine and this study reflects that with an examination of female heroism Discovering why certain individuals or acts were accorded the status of being heroic also provides insights into those that recognized them Heroism is a flexible and malleable constellation of ideas shaped or constructed along different lines by different people so if you want to identify the characteristics of a group or society much can be learnt by studying those it holds up as heroic Consequently Everyday Heroism Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian provides valuable and revealing evidence for a wide range of social and cultural topics including class gender identity memory celebrity and literary and visual culture In Gardens Udo Weilacher, 2005-05-24 The past decade has witnessed new interpretations of the great themes of traditional European garden art in profusion Drawing on his intensive studies of some 30 influential European projects Udo Weilacher presents a panorama of the most significant developments since the publication of his groundbreaking work Between Landscape Architecture and Land Art in 1996 Examples of the cooperation between landscape designers and architects are given special attention in case studies taken from the United Kingdom the Netherlands France Spain Denmark Germany and Switzerland In addition US landscape designer Kathryn Gustafson artists such as Dani Karavan and the architectural theorist Charles Jencks are featured along with their European works Planet Hero! Lauren Wechsler Horn, 2009 The Last Trojan Hero Philip Hardie, 2014-03-30 The resonant opening lines of Virgil's Aeneid rank among the most famous and consistently recited verses to have been passed down to later ages by antiquity And after The Odyssey and the Iliad Virgil's masterpiece is arguably the greatest classical text in the whole of Western literature This sinuous and richly characterised epic vitally influenced the poetry of Dante Petrarch and Milton The doomed love of Dido and Aeneas inspired Purcell while for T S Eliot Virgil's poem was the classic of all Europe The poet's stirring tale of a refugee Trojan prince torn from Libyan waves to found a new homeland in Italy has provided much fertile material for writings on colonialism and for discourses of ethnic and national identity The Aeneid has even been viewed as a template and source of justification for British and European imperialisms and for American nation building In his major and much anticipated new book Philip Hardie explores the many remarkable afterlives ancient medieval and modern of the Aeneid in literature music politics the visual arts and film The Last Trojan Hero by one of Virgil's leading interpreters put continually fresh and surprising perspectives on one of the outstanding works of civilization Placing the Aeneid on a broad artistic and historical canvas it shows with elegance originality and creative insight how and in what ways this remarkably durable text continues so powerfully to capture the cultural imagination and why it still speaks to us over a gulf of centuries The Jewish Food Hero Cookbook Kenden Alford, 2019-03-12 Beautifully photographed and filled with endearing stories of the author's inspiration behind each holiday menu The Jewish Food Hero Cookbook is not just about the food and the final presentation It's also about how you feel leading up to the holiday and the ambiance one wants to create from day one of preparation It's about experiencing the holiday itself and creating beloved memories with your family Pairing both traditional and modern healthy food the goal of this book is to prove that together we can create a new and healthy food future for the Jewish people one that is connected to the most beautiful of Jewish traditions while being grounded in the present England's Hero and Christian Soldier George Rose Emerson, 188?

Heroic Gardens: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Heroic Gardens : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
