Het Proces Sneevliet 1917:

Het Proces Sneevliet 1917 A Baars, H Sneevliet, 1991 Het artikel zegepraal een jubelkreet over de Russische Februarirevolutie in het dagblad De Indier in maart 1917 van Henk Sneevliet voorman van de kleine groep linkse socialisten in Nederlands Indië leidde tot het eerste grote openbare politieke proces in de kolonie De officier van justitie te Semarang achtte Sneevliets artikel opruiend op grond van de haatzaaiartikelen uit het Wetboek van Strafrecht voor Europeanen en daagde Sneevliet voor het gerecht De conservatieve Hollandse gemeenschap hoopte dat er eindelijk met de socialistische opruiers en revolutionair zou worden afgerekend Het proces in november 1917 duurde vier dagen Sneevliet voerde zelf zijn verdediging en hield een urenlang betoog tegen het Nederlandse koloniale bestel Hij werd schuldig bevonden maar hiervoor echter niet strafbaar gesteld Sneevliet werd ontslagen van rechtsvervolging In december volgde echter ook door de druk van de reactionaire pers externering uit Nederlands Indië vanwege zijn revolutionaire activiteiten De overvloedig gedocumenteerde verdedigingsrede en het verslag van de procesgang werden door A Baars en Sneevliet in januari 1918 gepubliceerd in een door henzelf beperkte oplage uitgegeven boek Het proces Sneevliet De Sociaal Democratie in Nederlandsch Indië Deze unieke bron waarvan slechts enkele bibliotheken een exemplaar bezitten is in facsimil herdrukt en door Fritjof Tichelman van een uitgebreide inleiding voorzien

Dutch Culture Overseas Frances Gouda, 2008 European colonial expansion led to Dutch notions of civilised society or the Dutch's community's flexible and relatively charitable attitudes toward others being scattered as in the Greek word diaspeirein to the four corners of the earth In some cases the exportation of Dutch cultural values to places overseas like North America endowed Dutchness with subtle new meanings But in colonial Indonesia Dutch political customs and traditions were transformed in the process of migrating to exotic locales In this book Frances Gouda examines the ways in which the Netherlands portrayed its unique colonial style to the outside world Why were citizens of a small and politically insignificant European nation able to represent as natural and normal their dominance over ancient civilizations on islands such as Java and Bali How did Dutch colonial residents explain the cultural differences between themselves and the supposedly primitive peoples of the Indonesian archipelago In trying to understand the gendering practices of colonial governance in the Netherlands East Indies Gouda also explores the interactions of Dutch and Indonesian women with European men FRANCES GOUDA earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of Washington in Seattle in 1980 She is currently professor of history and gender studies in the Political Science Department of the University of Amsterdam

Communication against Capital Rianne Subijanto, 2025-02-15 Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication including political associations assemblies printed matter schools and shipping lines Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance In this process communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization Subijanto s innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication

The Lion and the Gadfly Paul van der Veur,2021-12-28 This political biography reveals the turbulent life of Ernest Francois Eugène Douwes Dekker son of a Dutch father and a German Javanese mother born on Java in 1879 Vignettes flow in novel like fashion from the battle fields of South Africa and internment camp in Sri Lanka to a career in journalism in Java Radical thoughts then enter Douwes Dekker s mind such as demands for racial equality and national independence These made him write presciently that this road might take him to the executioner s hand or to the victory of revolution In exile from 1913 on his bravado allowed him to enter a doctoral program at the University of Zurich but also to entanglement with Indian revolutionaries operating from Berlin Returning to Java at the end of World War I he once again propagated the virtues of nationalism but soon was forced to relinquish his efforts and start a teaching career Even here constant surveillance and eventual internment in Surinam were his lot Within a decade the Republic of Indonesia had been proclaimed and Douwes Dekker emerged to acclaim as a close friend and political adviser to President Soekarno

Propaganda and the Genocide in Indonesia Saskia Wieringa,Nursyahbani Katjasungkana,2018-10-26 In Indonesia the events of 1st October 1965 were followed by a campaign to annihilate the Communist Party and its alleged sympathisers It resulted in the murder of an estimate of one million people a genocide that counts as one of the largest mass murders after WWII and the incarceration of another million many of them for a decade or more without any legal process This drive was justified and enabled by a propaganda campaign in which communists were painted as atheist hypersexual amoral and intent to destroy the nation To date the effects of this campaign are still felt and the victims are denied the right of association and freedom of speech This book presents the history of the genocide and propaganda campaign and the process towards the International People s Tribunal on 1965 crimes against humanity in Indonesia IPT 1965 which was held in November 2015 in The Hague The Netherlands The authors an Indonesian Human Rights lawyer and a Dutch academic examine this unique event which for the first time brings these crimes before an international court and its verdict They single out the campaign of hate propaganda as it provided the incitement to kill so many Indonesians and why this propaganda campaign is effective to this day The first book on this topic it fills a significant gap in Asian Studies and Genocide Studies
