A Night at the Inns and Other Stories Henry Murphy, 2018-03-01 Wondrak and Other Stories Stefan Zweig, 2009-01-06 Compulsion In the Snow and Wondrak all concern Zweig's strong anti war feelings following the First World War The artist Ferdinand central figure of Compulsion partly reflects Zweig's own experience In The Snow tells of the plight of a group of Jews who freeze to death while trying to escape a medieval pogrom In Wondrak a woman disfigured since birth attempts to save her only child from being drafted into the military In this newly available English translation the reader discovers the essential humanist preoccupations of the author of Amok and Twenty four Hours in the Life of a Woman his compassion towards human suffering his horror of war and his faith in idealism generosity love values that can in an instant illuminate an entire existence Pushkin Collection editions feature a spare elegant series style and superior durable components The Collection is typeset in Monotype Baskerville litho printed on Munkens Premium White Paper and notch bound by the independently owned printer TJ International in Padstow The covers with French flaps are printed on Colorplan Pristine White Paper Both paper and cover board are acid free and Forest Stewardship Council FSC certified The People of the Pit and Other Stories Abraham Merritt, 2016-11-28 The People of the Pit and Other Stories is a collection of Abraham Merritt's short stories and contains seven stories and two fragments These short stories span the entire career of the man who has been called America's foremost adventure fantasist of the 1920s and 30s Several of the tales boast the lush purple prose of Merritt's early period as seen especially in his first two novels The Moon Pool and The Metal Monster but all seven are finely written little gems They run the gamut from full blown fantasy to lost world adventure to outright science fiction and abundantly demonstrate that Merritt was a master of the concise short form as well as the full length novel Requiem for an Unsung Revolutionary and Other Stories Manju Kak, 1996 The Shadows Return (and other stories) Ravi Tennety, 2020-03-20 A teacher who loves to discipline his students a friend who returns to kill a hotel that retains its guests a wife who dreads the return of her husband an educationalist whose spirit remains in his school a pickpocket who finds the wrong victim an unending flight an actress who literally lives her role The Shadows Return and other stories is a compelling collection of short stories They are tightly woven haunting and inevitably carry a sting in the tail The author races the reader to the end and with a deft flick turns him around to face the way he has come Each story is meticulously detailed and knit like a collage The last few lines convert each painting into a hologram where the reader is not sure what the picture really is Won't you enjoy the ride Flowering Judas and Other Stories Katherine Anne Porter, 2014-03-25 The Library of America presents an exclusive e book edition of the astonishing 1930 collection that introduced a major new voice in American literature If Katherine Anne Porter had written nothing but these short narratives observed the New York Times she would be among the most distinguished masters of her craft in this country The German Lieutenant August Strindberg, 1915 It was fourteen days after Sedan in the middle of September 1870 A former clerk in the Prussian Geological Survey later a lieutenant in the reserve named Von Bleichroden sat in his shirt sleeves before a writing table in the Caf du Cercle the best inn of the little town Marlotte He had thrown his military coat with its stiff collar over the back of a chair and there it hung limp and collapsed like a corpse with its empty arms seeming to clutch at the legs of the chair to keep itself from falling headlong Round the body of the coat one saw the mark of the sword belt and the left coat tail was rubbed quite smooth by the sheath The back of the coat was as dusty as a high road and the lieutenant geologist might have studied the tertiary deposits of the district on the edges of his much worn trousers When the orderlies came into the room with their dirty boots he could tell by the traces they left on the floor whether they had been walking over Eocene or Pleiocene formations He was really more a geologist than a soldier but for the present he was a letter writer He had pushed his spectacles up to his forehead sat with his pen at rest and looked out of the window Chelkash and Other Stories Maxim Gorky,2013-03-05 Includes the title story in which a thieving vagrant takes on a young apprentice Twenty six Men and A Girl in which wretched bakery workers destroy their only source of joy and Makar Chudra Aerogrammes and Other Stories Tania James,2012-09-25 From the highly acclaimed author of Atlas of Unknowns Dazzling One of the most exciting debut novels since Zadie Smith's White Teeth San Francisco Chronicle An astonishment of a debut Junot Diaz a bravura collection of short stories set in locales as varied as London Sierra Leone and the American Midwest that captures the yearning and dislocation of young men and women around the world In Lion and Panther in London a turn of the century Indian wrestler arrives in London desperate to prove himself champion of the world only to find the city mysteriously absent of challengers In Light Luminous a gifted dance instructor falls victim to her own vanity when a student competition allows her a final encore In The Scriptological Review A Last Letter from the Editor a young man obsessively studies his father's handwriting in the hope of making sense of his death And in the marvelous What to Do with Henry a white woman from Ohio takes in the illegitimate child her husband left behind in Sierra Leone as well as an orphaned chimpanzee who comes to anchor this strange new family With exuberance and compassion Tania James once again draws us into the lives of damaged driven and beautifully complicated characters who quietly strive for human connection The Attack on the Mill and Other Stories Émile Zola,1999 Contains English translations of sixteen short fiction stories by nineteenth century French author Emile Zola Trent's trust and other stories Bret Harte,1903 Propaganda by Monuments & Other Stories Ivan Vladislavić,1996 The Writings of Bret Harte: Trent's trust and other stories Bret Harte,1903 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 The German Lieutenant, and Other Stories August Strindberg,2019-11-22 In The German Lieutenant and Other Stories August Strindberg delves into the intricacies of human emotions and the socio political tensions of his era This collection showcases Strindberg's distinct literary style characterized by realism infused with psychological depth and emotional intensity The narratives explore themes of love betrayal and the existential struggles of individuals against societal expectations set against the backdrop of late 19th century Europe a period marked by rapid industrialization and shifting cultural paradigms The stories reveal Strindberg's keen observation of human behavior and his ability to craft vivid often unsettling scenarios that challenge the reader's perceptions of morality and justice Strindberg a pivotal figure in Swedish literature was influenced by his tumultuous personal life including his experiences in the military tumultuous relationships and his interactions with the burgeoning modernist movement His works often reflect his ambivalence toward women authority and the traditional structures of society The German Lieutenant serves as a compelling synthesis of these influences allowing readers to glimpse the complexities that shaped Strindberg's worldview This collection is highly recommended for readers interested in the evolution of modern literature and those seeking a profound exploration of the human psyche Strindberg's masterful storytelling and incisive character studies will resonate with anyone intrigued by the darker aspects of human nature and the underlying forces that drive personal and societal conflict

Damage & Other Stories Poornima Manco, 2020-01-04 Are damaged people destined to inflict damage A young boy sidelined for being different an artist unable to distance herself from her past a famed actress past her prime a Casanova who plays women but is acutely aware of his loneliness These are some amongst the various tales of damaged people seeking escape fulfilment or acceptance Some long some short these sixteen stories have common themes of unhappy marriages of secrets and lies pleasure and guilt of children letting down parents and vice versa of women of a certain age and whether they've still got it of entitled and misogynistic men and of the hypocrisy and double standards within Indian society With original and unexpected angles these tales explore the darkness that underpins the often ordinary lives of people Thought provoking intense and evocative these stories will transport you into the heart of India where tradition and modernity collide often with devastating results

The Blue Lattice Network and Other Stories Anna Lisa L. Young, 2017-03-02 The Blue Lattice Network is a collection of short stories that all reside in the Bluebird Territory A man made nation that divides people by talents and personalities

The Age of Infidelity and Other Stories Valerie Sayers, 2020-06-03 In the spirit of Muriel Spark and Walker Percy The Age of Infidelity's eleven stories embrace the comic the absurd and the dead serious Faithless parents betray their children the young betray the old and lovers betray each other but somehow these characters cling to hope Aging white cheerleaders shout through an online megaphone remembering a time when racial equality seemed almost possible a teenager endures her father's abandonment as her mother's psychotic episodes pick up pace an old couple on the lam from the Constitutional Guard of the future hides out in a garage reminiscent of our consumerist past In an age many call post religious these characters want to believe in something but they're not always sure what that something is Set in landscapes from the small town South to New York City from a parched Midwest to a deserted Dublin these stories time travel from our Jim Crow past to an imagined future of warehouses for the aged where robots do the nursing With what the Washington Post describes as her distinctive brutal elegance Valerie Sayers writes playfully powerfully and musically These stories form an album riffing on our age the Age of Infidelity Fear and Other Stories Dalpat Chauhan, 2023-04-24 Chauhan's writing is resistance literature. It echoes the harrowing screams of a people long suppressed. Fear and Other Stories is a reminder of the inherent dangers of the Dalit life, a life subjected to unimaginable violence and terror even in its most mundane moments. In this collection of short stories, veteran Gujarati writer Dalpat Chauhan narrates these lived experiences of exasperation and anger with startling vividness. His characters chronicle a deep history of resistance, interrogating historical, mythological, and literary legends, foregrounding the perspectives of the disenfranchised. Chauhan deftly wields his prose to counter dominant narratives, pointing out gaps and voicing the silences within. In The Payback, for a change, we see famished savarnas begging Dalit families for food that they scorn otherwise. The eponymous Fear follows the heroic but doomed resistance of Dalit youths fighting against savarna men with the right to enter their homes and molest women inside. And the allegorical Cold Blood features a doctor who tries to leave behind his identity with his surname only to be reminded of it when the savarnas accept his blood but not water from his hands. Hemang Ashwinkumar's nimble translation introduces the English reader to Chauhan's heart-wrenching stories while unmasking a rural Gujarat unrecognizable from its supposedly vibrant idylls. His introduction to the book not just contextualises Chauhan's work but is also a touching and thought-provoking commentary on the larger canvas of Dalit literature.
