Eyes in the Attic Nadine McKinney,1994 Grotesque Seamus Harrity,2022-01-28 Grotesque The Morning Of By Seamus Harrity Present day Portland Oregon Supernatural occurrences put the people on edge Doomsday fanatics are on every street corner prophesying the end of the world Then a freak electrical storm called a Carrington hits the city temporarily knocking out the electrical supply and communications The city begins to panic at reports of even more bizarre events Meet four people all suffering in their own way All wanting revenge As they rise so do the dead And the next morning so does a monstrosity from the Willamette River right in the heart of downtown As chaos ensues you follow the quartet of monsters as they tear through the town and begin to discover their powers to grind mankind into dust This is just the morning of Grotesque What will the afternoon bring Uniquely you get to see the tale through the eyes of the monsters as they grow and become more powerful and violent Enjoy a bloody good time The Windsor Magazine ,1920 My Brother's Keeper Daniel Meyer,2024-04-01 There s been enough death in the Hatcher family brother Billy died as a teen in a game gone wrong Now after returning home to settle the family estate brothers Mark and Benjamin discover that some old memories have yet to die And maybe the same goes for Billy After all the body was never discovered Father Frank Timmons delivers the eulogy for Mrs Hatcher and also senses a malignant force in their small community of Kosmosdale Kentucky And it seems to hold more power over him than anyone as if controlled by the devil himself Meanwhile a gorgeous real estate agent wants to sell the vacant Hatcher house just a little too much Townspeople began to go missing Then one after another of the Hatcher s children in town for the funeral go missing And it s up to Sheriff Daniels to solve this mess But how do you catch a ghost And what s in the Hatcher attic Different Aesthetics Annette Gerok-Reiter,Jörg Robert,Matthias Bauer,Anna Pawlak,2025-05-19 What is art What does art offer Why does art move us The CRC Different Aesthetics pursues these questions In doing so and by directing its attention towards the 2000 year history of European culture and art before the 18th century it aims to transform perspectives within aesthetic discussions This volume introduces the research undertaken by the CRC 1391 It outlines the benefits of concentrating on the pre modern period lays out the subsequent adjustments to analytical tools and methods and presents the resulting consequences for the study of aesthetics The contributions which range from philology and literary studies art history archaeology and musicology to historical science theology and the digital humanities offer concrete examples of this approach Athens, Etruria, and the Many Lives of Greek Figured Pottery Sheramy D. Bundrick,2019-02-26 A lucrative trade in Athenian pottery flourished from the early sixth until the late fifth century B C E finding an eager market in Etruria Most studies of these painted vases focus on the artistry and worldview of the Greeks who made them but Sheramy D Bundrick shifts attention to their Etruscan customers ancient trade networks and archaeological contexts Thousands of Greek painted vases have emerged from excavations of tombs sanctuaries and settlements throughout Etruria from southern coastal centers to northern communities in the Po

Valley Using documented archaeological assemblages especially from tombs in southern Etruria Bundrick challenges the widely held assumption that Etruscans were hellenized through Greek imports She marshals evidence to show that Etruscan consumers purposefully selected figured pottery that harmonized with their own local needs and customs so much so that the vases are better described as etruscanized Athenian ceramic workers she contends learned from traders which shapes and imagery sold best to the Etruscans and employed a variety of strategies to maximize artistry output and profit

Greek Vases Dietrich von Bothmer, Otto Wittmann, 1983-12-31 The eloquent beauty of the vases produced in the workshops of the ancient Greeks is represented by a selection of pieces from the superb private collection of Molly and Walter Bareiss that spans more than a thousand years of the craft From a delightful miniature stirrup vase dating ca 1300 B C to prime examples of the molded vases from Augustan Rome the Bareiss collection includes a splendid representative collection guided by a sure instinct for the unique beauty of design and drawing Assembled in this brief catalogue are illustrated discussions of forty seven of the masterpieces from the 258 vases currently on loan to the Getty Museum Dietrich von Bothmer Chairman of Greek and Roman Art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art introduces this most important collection one with which he has been intimately involved since its conception advising studying interpreting and even piecing together shattered vases Following the individual catalogue entries is a full checklist of an additional 205 vases that are on loan to the Getty Museum

Roman Eyes Jas Elsner, 2007-04-15 In Roman Eyes Jas Elsner seeks to understand the multiple ways that art in ancient Rome formulated the very conditions for its own viewing and as a result was complicit in the construction of subjectivity in the Roman Empire Elsner draws upon a wide variety of visual material from sculpture and wall paintings to coins and terra cotta statuettes He examines the different contexts in which images were used from the religious to the voyeuristic from the domestic to the subversive He reads images alongside and against the rich literary tradition of the Greco Roman world including travel writing prose fiction satire poetry mythology and pilgrimage accounts The astonishing picture that emerges reveals the mindsets Romans had when they viewed art their preoccupations and theories their cultural biases and loosely held beliefs Roman Eyes is not a history of official public art the monumental sculptures arches and buildings we typically associate with ancient Rome and that tend to dominate the field Rather Elsner looks at smaller objects used or displayed in private settings and closed religious rituals including tapestries ivories altars jewelry and even silverware In many cases he focuses on works of art that no longer exist providing a rare window into the aesthetic and religious lives of the ancient Romans

Taking Root Diana Kleyn, 2019-12-21 The picture of a plant taking root is used in the Bible to teach us the idea of conversion When someone s heart is turned from himself and his sinful ways to faith in Jesus and devotion to God it is like a plant which starts to shoot out roots into rich soil so that it can live and take nourishment There is no way for a plant to have life unless it takes root and there is no way for a person to have spiritual life unless God turns him or her out of the way of death and into the way of life The stories in this book have to do with plants taking roots But as you read through them you will not run across tales of flowers leaves and dirt as much as you will about spiritual plants in the garden of the Lord They are stories about how God gives people new spiritual life by rooting their hearts in the grace of His Son Jesus Christ Read these stories and take the time to ask God about causing your heart to take deep root into the life giving soil of Jesus Contents Taking Root 1 A Little Girl s Sin Found Out 2 The Pickpocket s Story

About the Series The Lord's Garden is a series of devotional stories for children. The stories are based on true happenings gleaned from a variety of sources and rewritten for contemporary readers. Each story accompanies a passage of Scripture and is intended to illustrate that particular biblical truth. Some stories are shorter, some longer. However, all will capture the attention of children and hopefully their hearts. Every story begins with a Scripture verse and ends with questions for understanding the story; further points to think about and directions for prayer.

St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1914 Everybody's Magazine, 1900 De Kooning Willem De Kooning, John Elderfield, Lauren Mahony, Jennifer Field, Delphine Huisinga, Susan Lake, 2011. This publication offers an unparalleled opportunity to appreciate the development of the artist's work as it unfolded over nearly seven decades, beginning with his early academic works made in Holland before he moved to the United States in 1926 and concluding with his final sparsely abstract paintings of the late 1980s.
