featuring female protagonists has increased significantly Many of these films reflect the vast cultural and sociological changes that have taken place since the early 1960s highlighting not only a wide spectrum of female characters depicted onscreen but the creative work of women behind the camera as well In Reel Women An International Directory of Contemporary Feature Films about Women media librarian Jane Sloan has assembled an impressive list of more than 2400 films from nearly 100 countries that feature female protagonists Each entry includes a brief description of the film and cites key artistic personnel particularly female directors producers and screenwriters involved in its production Reel Women also contains a critical survey in which Sloan charts the changes women have undergone both on screen and off as moviemaking and audience sensibilities have evolved in the last forty plus years Listing many more films on the subject of women than can be found in any other source this reference brings together important titles from area studies and genre markets along with titles associated with women s cinema and feminist film In addition to title and actor indexes the book contains a subject index that provides detailed access to place names historical characters time periods and storylines as well as the backgrounds religious racial and ethnic of the main characters This directory is an ideal reference tool for researchers studying the evolution of female characters in films around the world from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe It is also a resource for casual viewers who are looking for films that reflect the diversity of women s roles that can be found in independent and national cinemas as well as commercial blockbusters Moving Image Cataloging Martha M. Yee,2007-10-30 Libraries archives and museums hold a wide variety of moving images all of which require the same level of attention to issues of organization and access as their print counterparts Consequently the people who create collection level records and metadata for these resources need to be equally conversant in the principles of cataloging Martha Yee covers both descriptive AACR2R AMIM and FIAF rules and subject cataloging with a focus on LCSH In the process the reader is encouraged to think critically and to be prepared to make decisions in ambiguous situations where solutions to problems are not always obvious or clearly dictated by specific rules Youssef Chahine Ibrahim Fawal,2019-07-25 A discussion of the frequently controversial film maker Youssef Chahine The book aims to illuminate Chahine s work in the context of modern Egyptian culture and its tumultuous post war history and how such films as Cairo Station 1958 The Earth 1959 and The Sparrow 1973 dramatized the dilemmas of ordinary Egyptians He also argues that Chahine's intensely autobiographical trilogy Alexandria Why 1978 An Egyptian Story 1985 and Alexandria More and More 1989 spoke to the concerns of the broader Egyptian intelligentsia amongst whom he has earned the reputation of being the poet and thinker of modern Arab cinema The final analysis of the book argues that Chahine's work stands comparison with directors such as Fellini Bergman Kurosawa or Sembene but also emphatically draws strength from its links with one of the most vibrant popular cinemas of the world and from the roots and traditions of popular Arabic culture A Short Guide to Writing about Film Timothy Corrigan, 1994 This best selling text is a succinct guide to thinking critically and writing precisely about film Both an introduction to film study and a practical writing guide this brief text introduces students to major film theories as well as film terminology enabling them to write more thoughtfully and critically With numerous student and professional examples this engaging and practical guide progresses from taking notes and writing first drafts to creating polished essays and comprehensive research projects Moving from movie reviews to theoretical and critical essays the text demonstrates how an analysis of a film can become more subtle and rigorous as part of a compositional process Concise explorations of the most important approaches to film analysis and writing about film including auteurs genres ideology kinds of formalism and national cinemas give students a guick course in the fundamentals for film theory A range of film terms and topics including mise en scene point of view composition realism and so on are introduced so students understand and use correct terminology Each chapter concludes with short writing exercises that help students view evaluate and write about film more critically Guidance on working with electronic sources helps students understand the limitations and pitfalls of electronic research A comprehensive Glossary allows students to accurately describe their observations of the details of film practice A wealth of images features captions with pedagogical directions The publisher English Filming, English Writing Jefferson Hunter, 2010-04-05 Jefferson Hunter examines English films and television dramas as they relate to English culture in the 20th century He traces themes such as the influence of U S crime drama on English film and film adaptations of literary works as they appear in screen work from the 1930s to the present A Canterbury Tale and the documentary Listen to Britain are analyzed in the context of village pageants and other wartime explorations of Englishness at risk English crime dramas are set against the writings of George Orwell while a famous line from Noel Coward leads to a discussion of music and image in works like Brief Encounter and Look Back in Anger Screen adaptation is also broached in analyses of the 1985 BBC version of Dickens s Bleak House and Merchant Ivory s The Remains of the Day Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverl ssig Auskunft ber rund 6000 internationale Ver ffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk ber Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia
