Hagener,2015-03-12 What is the relationship between cinema and spectator This is the key question for film theory and one that Thomas Elsaesser and Malte Hagener put at the center of their insightful and engaging book now revised from its popular first edition Every kind of cinema and every film theory first imagines an ideal spectator and then maps certain dynamic interactions between the screen and the spectator's mind body and senses Using seven distinctive configurations of spectator and screen that move progressively from exterior to interior relationships the authors retrace the most important stages of film theory from its beginnings to the present from neo realist and modernist theories to psychoanalytic apparatus phenomenological and cognitivist theories and including recent cross overs with philosophy and neurology This new and updated edition of Film Theory An Introduction through the Senses has been extensively revised and rewritten throughout incorporating discussion of contemporary films like Her and Gravity and including a greatly expanded final chapter which brings film theory fully into the digital age Ingmar Bergman Marc Gervais,1999 Ingmar Bergman has long been revered

as a master craftsman of cinema whose works are intensely revealing of himself while resonating powerfully with his audience This book explores how Bergman achieves this cinematic magic through specific choices in the use of film language and the texturing and structuring of his images sounds and rhythms Screen Epiphanies Geoffrey Macnab,2019-07-25

What I remember was that it was the first time a piece of fiction had had such a devastating emotional effect on me A lot of children remember seeing cartoons Pinocchio or Bambi or something that breaks their heart I remember seeing The Blue Angel and it breaking my heart It was the first time I realised there was an adult world that adults could damage each other or destroy each other emotionally It might have fed into a whole series of epiphanies about my own upbringing I was living in a family where my grandparents had separated in quite complex circumstances Perhaps it resonated with some elements of that to do with simply how love can be a rupturing and damaging emotion as well as a healing one Also to see somebody who is in an authority position made so small so diminished by the feeling of having no control Anthony Minghella The Blue Angel In a strange lethal way I was suddenly wildly attracted to the process of filmmaking even though it is described as a nightmare a matter of horror in that film There is a trancelike atmosphere Suddenly I was reminded that you can feel like it's a matter of life and death when you make a film It changed from being a mediocre feeling of emptiness in your life to something that feels necessary I realised that filmmaking can be many things and it can be narcotic in a way You can become addicted to it Thomas Vinterberg Hearts of Darkness Screen Epiphanies brings together 32 leading film makers to discuss the films that inspired them to pursue a career in the movie business or which influenced their own film making practice or which stayed with them because of their depictions of familiar communities intense human relationships or unknown worlds Beautifully illustrated with images from the films discussed Screen Epiphanies is a thought provoking and often moving insight into the creative process and the way in which artists are inspired by each other s work but also into the centrality of cinema in all our lives and its power to change our ambitions and how we see the world around us The Seventh Seal

Melvyn Bragg,2020-10-15 The Seventh Seal is probably Bergman s best known work and the film that most clearly bears the director s unmistakeable signature The opening scene sets the tone a stony beach under a leaden sky the knight alone with his thoughts then the approach of black clad Death whom the knight invites to play a game of chess Bergman s medieval allegory of faith and doubt is dark with the horrors of witch burnings and the plague But it is also shot through with bright flashes of peace and joy symbolised in the milk and wild strawberries offered to the knight by an innocent family of actors In his compelling appreciation Melvyn Bragg describes his own first encounter as a student with this extraordinary film and how it revealed to him another cinema quite different from the Hollywood he had grown up with He recounts too his later meeting with Bergman himself and how the marks of the director s powerful personality are everywhere in this troubling and inspiring masterpiece

The New York Times Film Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews,2001-12 From the Oscar winning blockbusters American Beauty and Shakespeare in Love to Sundance oddities like American Movie and The Tao of Steve to foreign films such as All About My Mother the latest volume in this popular series features a chronological collection of facsimiles of every film review and awards article published in The New York Times between January 1999 and December 2000 Includes a full index of personal names titles and corporate names This collection is an invaluable resource for all libraries

Frames of Minds Eelco F. M. Wijdicks,2024 As a medium that aims to connect people through the communication and interpretation of experiences cinema is uniquely positioned to showcase cultural misunderstandings around issues of mental health Frames of Minds traces a history of psychiatry in film concentrating on the major paradigm shifts in neuropsychiatry over the last century Oftentimes representations of psychiatry mental illness and psychotic breakdown are reduced to tropes and used by filmmakers as a tool for plot progression Conversely films can be used as an avenue to voice common concerns about the missteps of psychiatry including overdiagnosis and mistreatment Dr Eelco Wijdicks provides fresh insights into the minds of filmmakers and how they creatively tackle this complex topic How do filmmakers use psychiatry and what do they want us to see What is their frame of mind psychoanalytically biologically sociologically anthropologically Were they influenced by their own prejudices about the origins of mental illness How does this influence the direction of their films Examining the history of film alongside developments in neuropsychiatry Frames of Minds uncovers a cinematic language of psychiatry By taking chances to portray mental illness filmmakers aim to achieve a sense of reality and provide catharsis for viewers through the act of dramatization Ultimately the history of psychiatry in film is a history of the public perception of medicine and the ways psychiatry is understood by directors writers actors and audiences

Queer Bergman Daniel Humphrey,2013-03-15 One of the twentieth century s most important filmmakers indeed one of its most important and influential artists Ingmar Bergman and his films have been examined from almost every possible perspective including their remarkable portrayals of women and their searing dramatizations of gender dynamics Curiously however especially considering the Swedish filmmaker s numerous and intriguing comments on the subject no study has focused on the undeniably queer characteristics present throughout this nominally straight auteur s body of work indeed they have barely been noted Queer Bergman makes a bold and convincing argument that Ingmar Bergman s work can best be thought of as profoundly queer in nature Using persuasive historical evidence including Bergman s own on the record though stubbornly ignored remarks alluding to his own homosexual identifications as well as the discourse of queer theory Daniel Humphrey brings into focus the director s radical denunciation of heteronormative values his savage and darkly humorous deconstructions of gender roles and his work s trenchant if also deeply conflicted attacks on homophobically constructed forms of patriarchal authority Adding an important chapter to the current discourse on GLBT queer historiography Humphrey also explores the unaddressed historical connections between post World War II American queer culture and a concurrently vibrant European art cinema proving that particular interrelationship to be as profound as the better documented associations between gay men and Hollywood musicals queer spectators and the horror film lesbians and gothic fiction and others
