Cross-Cultural Review: Five Contemporary Dutch Poets , Dutch Interior William Jay Smith,James

Holmes,1984-10-04 Dutch Interior A Literary History of the Low Countries Theo Hermans,2009 What was the written culture behind visual artists like Vermeer Rembrandt and Rubens What made the historical novel in nineteenth century Flanders so different from its counterpart in Holland What was the literary impact of the huge colonial empires run by the Netherlands and Belgium What role did Latin French and Frisian play in the literary culture of the Low Countries through the ages Why is experimental writing so prevalent in modern Dutch literature What has made Cees Nooteboom an internationally acclaimed author And how does Flemish relate to Dutch anyway This first literary history of the Netherlands and Flanders in English since the 1970s answers these and many other questions Written by a team of Dutch and Flemish subject specialists it offers a comprehensive and authoritative account of the literature of the Dutch speaking area from the medieval period up to the present day While it focuses on literature written in Dutch it also assesses the significance of writings in French Latin and Frisian 50 Dutch & Flemish Novelists Joost de Wit,Stanley H. Barkan,1979 A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol.XLII \(Forty-Five Volumes\); Dictionary of Authors \(A-J\) Charles Dudley Warner,2008-07-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Volume 42 is Part One of a dictionary of authors from Alexis Aar to Juvenal that serves as a handy condensed reference to the authors quoted in the first 40 volumes as well as a guide to thousands more authors whose works are notable but not featured in this set Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Modern Dutch Studies M. J. Wintle,2015-11-19 These essays by leading scholars explore the integration of language and literature study in the fields of art history and social sciences exploring as a result the scope and nature of the discipline of Dutch Studies today The Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1836 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1836 Dutch Interbellum Canons and World Literature A. Roland Holst, M. Nijhoff, J. Slauerhoff Theo D'haen,2023-09-15 This text takes a wholly new look at a major early twentieth century Dutch poet and novelist from the perspective of world literature situating his work in both a national and a world literary context as measured against contemporaries and near contemporaries such as Conrad Pound Brecht Segalen and Malraux Exemplifying how an author from a minor literature may be a major world author this book considers the debates within World Literature regarding the classification of literatures as major and minor canon formation within Dutch literature Slauerhoff's position in the Dutch tradition as well as his contribution to world literature particularly focusing on his East Asian poems his East Asian novels and stories and his poetry and prose set in Latin America This book is a key read for scholars and students of comparative literature world literature European literature and Dutch literature Lucid in style innovative in approach surprisingly fresh qua topic this book opens new horizons for literary studies Appletons' Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events ,1880

Appleton's Annual Cyclopædia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1890 The American Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1880 Appletons' Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events ,1886 The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier,Lina Fisher,Hiroko Furukawa,2018-06-26 This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works authors or translators Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry novels memoir and theatre Divided into three sections these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style the author translator reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan Chinese Dutch English French German Hebrew Italian Japanese Nigerian English Russian Spanish Scottish English and Turkish The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory practice link Covering a wide range of topics perspectives methods languages and geographies this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics Languages and Cultural Studies Stylistics Comparative Literature or Literary Studies Dutch and Flemish Literature as World

Literature Theo D'haen,2019-07-25 The recent return of world literature to the centre of literary studies has entailed an increased attention to non European literatures but in turn has also further marginalized Europe's smaller literatures Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature shows how Dutch language literature from its very beginnings in the Middle Ages to the present has not only always taken its cue from the major literary traditions of Europe and beyond but has also actively contributed to and influenced these traditions The contributors to this book focus on key works and authors providing a concise yet highly readable history of Dutch language literature and demonstrating how this literature is anchored in world literature A history of surgery D. de Moulin,2012-12-06 Surgery as a medical discipline has from its beginnings appealed to the imagination of many It is therefore not surprising to find that its colourful past has induced quite a few authors to take up their pens The truth of this in the Netherlands is witnessed by a number of dissertations and monographs and especially by the numerous articles related to the history of surgery which have appeared in the medical weekly

Nederlands Tijdschrift voor Geneeskunde particularly during the two decades preceding the Second World War The memorial volume published in 1977 by the Nederlandse Vereniging voor Heelkunde Association of Surgeons of the Netherlands has thoroughly covered the history of Dutch surgery since the turn of the century but a chronological survey of the earlier events which led to these modern achievements is still wanting This book has been written with a view to meeting this need In it Dutch surgery has by no means been taken as an isolated phenomenon but considered in its context with European surgery as a whole Foreign influences on the one surgery abroad are discussed Netherlands and conversely Dutch influences whilst contemporary medical thinking is set against a cultural and political background It is hoped that this approach will allow the book to exceed the narrow boundaries of campanilismo and make it of interest to non Dutch readers as well
