F. Scott Fitzgerald, 2025-03-13 F. Scott Fitzgerald's Flappers and Philosophers is a collection of short stories that encapsulates the spirit of the Jazz Age exploring themes of youth disillusionment, love, and social change. Through vivid characters and sharp observations, Fitzgerald captures the essence of a generation grappling with new freedoms and the clash between traditional values and modern sensibilities.

Flappers and Philosophers Francis Scott Fitzgerald, 1921-01-01 This unlikely story begins on a sea that was a blue dream as colorful as blue silk stockings and beneath a sky as blue as the irises of children's eyes. From the western half of the sky the sun was shying little golden disks at the sea; if you gazed intently enough you could see them skip from wave tip to wave tip until they joined a broad collar of golden coin that was collecting half a mile out and would eventually be a dazzling sunset. About half way between the Florida shore and the golden collar a white steam yacht very young and graceful was riding at anchor and under a blue and white awning aft a yellow haired girl reclined in a wicker settee reading The Revolt of the Angels by Anatole France. She was about nineteen slender and supple with a spoiled alluring mouth and quick gray eyes full of a radiant curiosity. Her feet stockingless and adorned rather than clad in blue satin slippers which swung nonchalantly from her toes were perched on the arm of a settee adjoining the one she occupied. And as she read she intermittently regaled herself by a faint application to her tongue of a half lemon that she held in her hand. The other half sucked dry lay on the deck at her feet and rocked very gently to and fro at the almost imperceptible motion of the tide. The second half lemon was well nigh pulpless and the golden collar had grown astonishing in width when suddenly the drowsy silence which enveloped the yacht was broken by the sound of heavy footsteps and an elderly man topped with orderly gray hair and clad in a white flannel suit appeared at the head of the companionway. There he paused for a moment until his eyes became accustomed to the sun and then seeing the girl under the awning he uttered a long even grunt of disapproval. If he had intended thereby to obtain a rise of any sort he was doomed to disappointment. The girl calmly turned over two pages, turned back one, raised the lemon mechanically to tasting distance and then very faintly but quite unmistakably yawned.
