Flying Carrots S. A. Cornell, 1986 Farmer Rabbit explains his ambitious plans for the flying carrots he is planting

Carrot Rust Fly and Its Control Emmett D. Harris, 1959 Carrot Rust Fly Investigations, 1955 The Carrot Genome Philipp Simon, Massimo Iorizzo, Dariusz Grzebelus, Rafal Baranski, 2019-05-08 This book provides an up to date review and analysis of the carrot's nuclear and organellar genome structure and evolution. In addition, it highlights applications of carrot genomic information to elucidate the carrot's natural and agricultural history, reproductive biology, and the genetic basis of traits important in agriculture and human health. The carrot genome was sequenced in 2016 and its relatively small diploid genome combined with the fact that it is the most complete root crop genome released to date and the first ever Euasterid II genome to be sequenced mean the carrot has an important role in the study of plant development and evolution. In addition, the carrot is among the top ten vegetables grown worldwide and the abundant orange provitamin A carotenoids that account for its familiar orange color make it the richest crop source of vitamin A in the US diet and in much of the world. This book includes the latest genetic maps, genetic tools, and resources and covers advances in genetic engineering that are relevant for plant breeders and biologists alike.

A Home on Vorster Street Razina Theba, 2021-08-12 Who bears witness to our lives? As a young girl, Razina Theba makes her way every day to the tiny family flat on Vorster Street in Fordsburg. It is here, just outside of the Johannesburg city centre, where she grows up playing in the yard with countless cousins, learning to enjoy perfect syrupy paan and the best way to brew chai for her bajee. It is also where she observes her family's harassment by the Security Branch, as well as her parents' determination to make their business at the Oriental Plaza a success. In A Home on Vorster Street, Razina witnesses the ebb and flow of a tight-knit neighbourhood trying to survive the forces of apartheid and ultimately where she learns of the value of family love and the enduring comfort it provides. At times funny and charming and at others painful and tender, this dazzling collection of stories is a spirited exploration of a colourful Indian Muslim family bound by loyalty to their culture, community, religion, and each other.

Getting It Right Viva Bartkus, Ed Conlon, 2008-07-23 To be a successful business leader, executives need to make values-based problem solving a habit of mind, argue management experts and Notre Dame professors Viva Bartkus and Ed Conlon. In Getting It Right, Bartkus and Conlon draw on insights from consulting, management, and academia to deliver a powerful message: no matter how chaotic the marketplace, leaders can still address even the most staggering challenges in a calm and confident manner.

The Gift of Destruction Geoffrey Riddell, 2013 This is the story of a small mind riding alone out on strange skies. He reaches a faraway skyland safely and then, far from home and family, he struggles to rescue himself, his new friends, and ultimately even his enemies, for he is the last of the Tigetti, famous in ancient history for being a happy, forgiving enemy. There are lands in the sky, there are planets on the move, there are huge battleships, and there are aliens big and horrible enough to scare the pants off any normal kid, but Rakkit is tougher, rougher, sillier, and more revolting than anyone else, and in his own
