Flying Fox In A Freedom Tree:

Flying-Fox in a Freedom Tree Albert Wendt,1999-09-01 This early collection of eight short stories and a novella is vintage Wendt Stories convey the unease of traditional island community caught up in the rapid changes of the modern world Wendt writes with enviable directness and with deep feeling comedy and tragedy are often hard to distinguish as his characters struggle to come to terms with their changing world Flying-fox in a Freedom Tree Albert Wendt,1980

Albert Wendt and Pacific Literature Paul Sharra,2003-11-08 Albert Wendt is the leading writer and exponent of Pacific literature His work is consistently different in style politically challenging and ranges across essays plays poems stories and novels two of which have been filmed This book is the first full length study of his work There is an introduction to Pacific literature as a whole and Wendt s Samoan background Chapters offer readings of all Wendt s major texts in chronological sequence relating them to his essays to literary movements of the time and to key motifs from Polynesian culture There is an extensive bibliography of works by and about Wendt The Pacific Tale Mandy Treagus,2025-07-01 This book offers a genealogy of short fiction in English set in the Pacific and written by British American and Australian writers Through its analysis of texts by non Islander authors such as Robert Louis Stevenson Louis Becke Jack London W Somerset Maugham and James A Michener this book traces the rise of The Pacific Tale as a popular genre Exploring themes of masculinity and imperialism traders literary mapping and inter racial relationships plantation labour and racial taxonomies tropical breakdown missions and colonial illegitimacy together with militarism environmental destruction and the persistence of the trope of the Polynesian belle this study highlights the role and agency of Pacific Islanders despite the multiple fronts on which their cultures were impacted by colonial powers It concludes with the moment when Pacific writers Albert Wendt and Epeli Hau ofa express that agency in their own fictions moving beyond the tradition of the Pacific tale Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Comparative Literature East and West Cornelia Niekus Moore,Raymond A. Moody,1989-01-01 This collection of papers inaugurates a new series which will present work from a two year study at the U of Hawaii The research addresses commonalities and differences in topics and methodology changing values and the portrayal of the self in different cultures No index Annotation copyright B Bat Tessa Laird,2018-05-15 Bats have been maligned in the West for centuries Unfair associations with demons have seen their leathery wings adorn numerous evil characters from the Devil to Bram

Stoker's Dracula But these amazing animals are ecological superheroes Nectar feeding bats pollinate important crops like agave fruit eating bats disperse seeds and encourage reforestation and insect eating bats keep down mosquito populations and other pests saving agricultural industries billions of dollars Ranging in size from a bumblebee to creatures with a wingspan the length of an adult human found on all continents except Antarctica and displaying extraordinary abilities like echolocation a built in sonar system that enables many bats to navigate in the dark these incredibly diverse mammals are as surprising as they are misunderstood In Bat Tessa Laird challenges our preconceptions as she combines fascinating facts of bat biology with engaging portrayals of bats in mythology literature film popular culture poetry and contemporary art She also provides a sobering reminder of the threats bats face worldwide from heatwaves and human harassment to wind turbines and disease Illustrated with incredible photographs and artistic representations of bats from many different cultures and eras this celebration of the only mammals possessing true flight will enthrall bat fans skeptics and converts alike

Theatre Don Rubin, 2001 This new in paperback edition of World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina including the United States Volume 5 covers Asia Pacific Entries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post Colonial Latin America Theatres of North America Puppet Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Music Theatre and Dance Theatre The essays follow the series format allowing for cross referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes Each country entry is written by specialists in the particular country and the volume has its own teams of regional editors overseen by the main editorial team based at the University of York in Canada headed by Don Rubin Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature

The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner, 1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature

Postcolonial Pacific Writing Michelle Keown, 2004-12-17 This major new interdisciplinary study focuses on the representation of the body in the work of eight of Polynesia's most significant contemporary writers Drawing on anthropology psychoanalysis philosophy history and medicine Postcolonial Pacific Writing develops an innovative postcolonial framework specific to the literatures and cultures of this region

Be Always Converting, be Always Converted Rob Wilson, 2009 Wilson's reconceptualization of the American project of conversion begins with the story of Henry p kaha ia the first Hawaiian convert to Christianity torn from his Native Pacific homeland and transplanted to New England Wilson argues that p kaha ia's conversion is both remarkable and prototypically American

Samoan Art and Artists Sean Mallon, 2002-01-01 Samoan Art and Artists is a wide ranging survey of both the traditional and contemporary arts of Samoa The author has drawn on an extensive research base to present a contemporary and accessible picture of a vibrant culture The book has a broad sweep covering all facets of the Samoan arts including canoe and house building siapo tapa weaving tattooing oratory adornment all forms of performance art the visual arts and literature An important feature of the book is the inclusion of profiles of living practitioners both from Samoa and the large Samoan communities in other Pacific countries Publisher description

Postcolonial Theory and Crisis Paulo de Medeiros, Sandra Ponzanesi, 2024-04-01 In the millennial transition the prefix post had come to signify more and more not just the realisation of a coming after but also of the impossibility of not seeing the present as still very much working through the wounds of the past Yet with the appearance of pseudo concepts such as post truth after an equally imaginary death of History the logic of the post itself always already under questioning may appear to have outlived its usefulness How to make sense of postcolonial theory in Europe in the present One way might be to renew its significance as world conflicts have entered a new post imperial phase with the return of ideologies of empire in various parts of the world The essays in this volume address those questions at both a conceptual theoretical level and through the analysis of specific case studies In the Introduction Paulo de Medeiros and Sandra Ponzanesi review the main questions outlined above in relation to the current debates in the Humanities from their respective disciplinary perspectives The volume is organised in four sections each containing four chapters Even though all the chapters present a reflection on Postcolonial Theory and Crisis some focus more specifically on aspects of the crisis in a global perspective such as humanitarian crisis and the role of mediatization of conflicts to issues related to human rights refugees migrancy environmental crisis to questions of memory and postmemory as well as the critique of art and utopian thought South Pacific Literature Subramani,1992

Camus's L'Etranger: Fifty Years on Adele King,1992-06-12 These essays on L Etranger celebrate its continuing influence throughout the world Contributors come from Algeria Samoa India Russia France Britain and the United States Included are essays by prominent French and English language authors for whom the novel has been an influential expression of contemporary sensibility Other essays include feminist interpretations of Meursault studies of Camus s narrative form and explorations of the Algerian setting of the novel Comparative studies show Camus s relation to the New Novel to Greene and Orwell to Jules Roy and to Sartre

Out of the Vaie, the Deadwater Albert Wendt,2015-09-11 The Vaie has the Roman Catholic Cathedral at its western boundary the court and police station to the east the market and harbour in front and the swamps behind it These are convenient boundaries that I ve turned into a symbolic fence for the marvellous world of the Deadwater Albert Wendt crosses into new and deeply personal territory in this stirring BWB Text Returning to his boyhood in the Vaie a suburb of Apia in Samoa sees Wendt confront elemental questions Is the Vaie he has created in his stories poetry and novels really the Vaie that existed and exists in real life Or is it real only in his books Is there a difference between the two And does it matter The responses form a vivid narrative that draws on a life of award winning writing and returns full circle to the symbolic world of the Deadwater An Indigenous Ocean Damon Salesa,2023-11-01 The Pacific s Indigenous times are not just smaller sections of larger histories but dimensions of their own Histories of our Pacific world are richly rendered in these essays by Damon Salesa From the first Indigenous civilisations that flourished in Oceania to the colonial encounters of the nineteenth century and on to the complex contemporary relationships between New Zealand and the Pacific Salesa offers new perspectives on this vast ocean its people its cultures its pasts and its future Spanning a wide range of topics from race and migration to Pacific studies and empire these essays demonstrate Salesa s remarkable scholarship Bridging the gap between academic disciplines and cultural traditions Salesa locates Pacific peoples always at the centre of their stories An Indigenous Ocean is a pivotal contribution to understanding the history and culture of Oceania
