Focus On Godard:

Focus on Godard Royal S. Brown, 1972 The New Wave James Monaco, 2004 Three decades after its first publication The New Wave is still considered one of the fundamental texts on the French film movement of the same name Led by filmmakers as influential as Truffaut and Godard the New Wave was a seminal moment in cinematic history and The New Wave has been hailed as the most complete book ever written about it The New Wave tells the story of the New Wave through examinations of five of the most important directors of the era Truffaut Godard Chabrol Rohmer and Rivette With detailed notes and over fifty breathtaking stills the book has appealed both to academics and interested novices alike The thirtieth anniversary edition includes a new afterword by the author Praise for the first edition of The New Wave The most complete book I know on the five most important directors of the New Wave Costa Gavras At last a book that intelligently and critically examines that remarkable phenomenon known as the New Wave Not just a book for film buffs it is essential reading for anyone interested in the interrelations between art politics and life in the second half of the twentieth century A remarkable achievement Richard Roud Founder New York Film Festival There is a genuine kind of honesty at work in the writing a sense that the author wishes to describe the subject more clearly help the reader and not explain in the pompous sense of the word or criticize for the sake of being superior It s refreshing Ted Perry Museum of Modern Art Cinema and Painting Angela Dalle Vacche, 1996 The visual image is the common denominator of cinema and painting and indeed many filmmakers have used the imagery of paintings to shape or enrich the meaning of their films In this discerning new approach to cinema studies Angela Dalle Vacche discusses how the use of pictorial sources in film enables eight filmmakers to comment on the interplay between the arts on the dialectic of word and image on the relationship between artistic creativity and sexual difference and on the tension between tradition and modernity Specifically Dalle Vacche explores Jean Luc Godard s iconophobia Pierrot Le Fou and Andrei Tarkovsky s iconophilia Andrei Rubleov Kenji Mizoguchi s split allegiances between East and West Five Women around Utamaro Michelangelo Antonioni s melodramatic sensibility Red Desert Eric Rohmer s project to convey interiority through images The Marquise of O F W Murnau s debt to Romantic landscape painting Nosferatu Vincente Minnelli s affinities with American Abstract Expressionism An American in Paris and Alain Cavalier s use of still life and the close up to explore the realms of mysticism and femininity Th r se While addressing issues of influence and intentionality Dalle Vacche concludes that intertextuality is central to an appreciation of the dialogical nature of the filmic medium which in appropriating or rejecting art history defines itself in relation to national traditions and broadly shared visual cultures Metafilm Music in Jean-Luc Godard's Cinema Michael Baumgartner, 2022 Hailed as a leading innovator of visual montage unique storytelling style and ground breaking cinematography Jean Luc Godard is a prominent pioneer in sculpting complex soundtracks altering the familiar relationship between sound and image but his achievements in sound have been largely overlooked Such a lacuna in the extensive research on Godard s work is unfortunate as Godard s lifelong preoccupation of exploring self reflexively all aspects of filmmaking particularly affects film music With the novel approach of metafilm music extrapolated from Jean Luc Godard s oeuvre this book not only closes up a crucial gap in Godard research but also offers detailed analyses of the music as metafilm music in Contempt Alphaville Band of Outsiders Pierrot le fou First Name Carmen Histoire s du cin ma among other films and video productions The innovative scholarly concept of metafilm music enriching the burgeoning field of music in audio visual media describes how Godard thinks about film music with film music This book thus provides a thorough examination of Godard s self reflexive approach to film music which has resulted in a lifelong creation of multi layered soundtracks pushing the envelope of film music and sound to the limit The Global Sixties in Sound and Vision T. Brown,A. Lison,2014-05-01 Despite the explosion of interest in the global 1968 the arts in this period both popular and avant garde forms have too often been neglected This interdisciplinary volume brings together scholars in history cultural studies musicology and other areas to explore the symbiosis of the sonic and the visual in the counterculture of the 1960s Innovators David W. Galenson,2025-01-21 Some innovators are luminous shooting stars think Pablo Picasso Albert Einstein Sylvia Plath Bob Dylan Steve Jobs who make bold leaps early and suddenly then lose their creativity Others are late bloomers Paul Cezanne Charles Darwin Virginia Woolf Alfred Hitchcock Warren Buffett who show little early promise but spend long periods doggedly pursuing distant goals and attain greatness in old age By analyzing the careers of scores of great innovators this book reveals systematic differences in the motivations and methods of these two types and their very different patterns of creativity over the life cycle The result is a new and deeper unified understanding of the sources of human creativity The Body in Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave Films Francesca Minnie Hardy,2023-10-30 This original study examines the representation of the body in French New Wave films through discussion of a series of films by Jean Luc Godard perhaps the central figure of the French New Wave Through analysis of bout de souffle Une femme est une femme Le M pris and Alphaville alongside discussion of some of Godard s lesser known French New Wave films the book explores the interrelation between bodies books and bathrooms that they facilitate In so doing it aims to destabilise the French New Wave s myth of male exceptionalism and denaturalise the gender dynamic most commonly viewed at its heart revealing that the women who make up a fundamental part of its fabric are not textually trapped by Godard s authorial presence Instead their corporeality disrupts any purported authorial and national ownership of their bodies Given the enduring popularity and visibility of the French New Wave and of Jean Luc Godard in universities and journals The Body in Jean Luc Godard s New Wave Films will appeal to scholars in the disciplines of French and film studies as well as to undergraduate and postgraduate students of these disciplines The Celluloid Madonna Catherine O'Brien,2011-12-20 The Celluloid Madonna is the first book to analyze the life of the Virgin Mary on screen from the silent era through to the present For decades Mary has caught the imagination of filmmakers from a range of religious backgrounds whether Catholic Protestant Muslim Marxist or atheist and film s intersection of theology and secular culture
