Focus On Howard Hawks Film Focus:

Focus on Howard Hawks Joseph McBride, 1972 Hawks on Hawks Joseph McBride, 2013-12-03 I read Hawks on Hawks with passion I am very happy that this book exists François Truffaut Howard Hawks 1896-1977 is often credited as being the most versatile of all of the great American directors having worked with equal ease in screwball comedies westerns gangster movies musicals and adventure films He directed an impressive number of Hollywood's greatest stars including Humphrey Bogart Cary Grant John Wayne Lauren Bacall Rosalind Russell and Marilyn Monroe and some of his most celebrated films include Scarface 1932 Bringing Up Baby 1938 The Big Sleep 1946 Red River 1948 Gentlemen Prefer Blondes 1953 and Rio Bravo 1959 Hawks on Hawks draws on interviews that author Joseph McBride conducted with the director over the course of seven years giving rare insight into Hawks's artistic philosophy his relationships with the stars and his position in an industry that was rapidly changing In its new edition this classic book is both an account of the film legend's life and work and a guidebook on how to make movies Focus on Film, 1974 Bringing Up Baby Gerald Mast, 1988 Bringing Up Baby 1938 is the essence of thirties screwball comedy It is also quintessential Howard Hawks treating many of the director's favorite themes particularly the loving war between the sexes Bringing Up Baby features Katharine Hepburn as a flaky heiress and Cary Grant as an absentminded paleontologist roles in which they come into their own as stars and deliver particularly fine comic performances Pauline Kael has called the film the American movie closest equivalent to Restoration comedy The comparison is based on the quick repartee and witty dialogue a hallmark of Hawks's work and well conveyed here by Gerald Mast's transcription from the screen The Films of Walter Hill Brian Brems, 2022-09-09 In The Films of Walter Hill Another Time Another Place Brian Brems explores how action emerged as a full fledged genre of cinema Walter Hill established his position in the genre first as a screenwriter and then as a director Hill Brems argues helped merge the thematic and stylistic concerns of the Western and film noir into a new action cinema establishing a reputation for mythic highly stylized storytelling driven by a relentless pace Through analyses of Hill's filmography this book demonstrates his consistent use of the architecture of classical storytelling to help codify the language of the action movie These observations are supported by extensive conversations with Walter Hill and several of his on screen collaborators including Lance Henriksen Sigourney Weaver David Patrick Kelly James Renner and William Sadler Ultimately Brems positions Hill as a key American film artist whose work has inspired countless imitations Howard Hawks Jim Hillier, Peter Wollen, 1996-12 This is an anthology of the best criticism produced about Hawks films Among the critics collected together in this book are Andrew Sarris and Robin Wood who go towards demonstrating the coherence and integrity of Hawks work A Hidden History of Film Style Christopher Beach, 2015-04-30 The image that appears on the movie screen is the direct and tangible result of the joint efforts of the director and the cinematographer A Hidden History of Film Style is the first study to focus on the collaborations between directors and cinematographers a partnership that has played a crucial role in American cinema since the early years of the silent era Christopher Beach argues that an understanding of the complex director cinematographer collaboration offers an important model that challenges the pervasive conventional concept of director as auteur Drawing upon oral histories early industry trade journals and other primary materials Beach examines key innovations like deep focus color and digital cinematography and in doing so produces an exceptionally clear history of the craft Through analysis of several key collaborations in American cinema from the silent era to the late twentieth century such as those of D W Griffith and Billy Bitzer William Wyler and Gregg Toland and Alfred Hitchcock and Robert Burks this pivotal book underlines the importance of cinematographers to both the development of cinematic technique and the expression of visual style in film

Film Dialogue Jeff Jaeckle, 2013-07-09 Film Dialogue is the first anthology in film studies devoted to the topic of language in cinema bringing together leading and emerging scholars to discuss the aesthetic narrative and ideological dimensions of film speech that have largely gone unappreciated and unheard Consisting of thirteen essays divided into three sections genre auteur theory and cultural representation Film Dialogue revisits and reconfigures several of the most established topics in film studies in an effort to persuade readers that spectators are more accurately described as audiences that the gaze has its equal in eavesdropping and that images are best understood and appreciated through their interactions with words Including an introduction that outlines a methodology of film dialogue study and adopting an accessible prose style throughout Film Dialogue is a welcome addition to ongoing debates about the place value and purpose of language in cinema Movies and Methods Bill Nichols,1985-09-06 The original Movies and Methods volume 1976 captured the dynamic evolution of film theory and criticism into an important new discipline incorporating methods from structuralism semiotics and feminist thought Now there is again ferment in the field Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties The writings collected in this volume exhibit not only a strong sense of personal engagement but als a persistent awareness of the social importance of the cinema in our culture Movies and Methods Volume II will prove as invaluable to the serious student of cinema as its predecessor it will be an essential reference work for years to come Running Scared Peter Lehman,2007 Investigates the patriarchal culture that keeps the male body and especially male genitals out of sight This book examines representations of the male body and male sexuality in a variety of settings and through many different lenses It is useful for scholars of film studies cultural studies and gender studies and general readers Catalog of Copyright Entries.
