Printed Book and Libraries H. Vervliet,2013-11-11 The history of printing books and libraries is confined only to a limited extent within the boundaries of individual countries There are indeed few historical developments which have played a more universal role in reaction against all kinds of particularism than type design printing book production publishing illustration binding librarianship journal ism and related subjects Their history should be assessed and studied primarily in an international not in a local context The bibliographical resources however which the historian of these sub jects has at his disposal correspond hardly at all to the essentially inter national character of the object of his studies Since the appearance of the retrospective bibliography of BIG MORE and WYMAN covering the subject comprehensively up to 1880 the only current bibliography has been the Internatwnale Bibliographie des Buch und Bi bliothekswesens Covering a representative part of newly published liter ature it appeared from 1928 but did not survive the Second World War More recently several
