Folk Tunes For Fun Sheet Music:

American Folk Songs Norman Cohen, 2008-09-30 This state by state collection of folksongs describes the history society culture and events characteristic of all fifty states Unlike all other state folksong collections this one does not focus on songs collected in the particular states but rather on songs concerning the life and times of the people of that state The topics range from the major historical events such as the Boston Tea Party the attack on Fort Sumter and the California Gold Rush to regionally important events such as disasters and murders labor problems occupational songs ethnic conflicts Some of the songs will be widely recognized such as Casey Jones Marching Through Georgia or Sweet Betsy from Pike Others less familiar have not been reprinted since their original publication but deserve to be studied because of what they tell about the people of these United States their loves labors and losses and their responses to events The collection is organized by regions starting with New England and ending with the states bordering the Pacific Ocean and by states within each region For each state there are from four to fifteen songs presented with an average of 10 songs per state For each song a full text is reprinted followed by discussion of the song in its historical context References to available recordings and other versions are given Folksongs such as those discussed here are an important tool for historians and cultural historians because they sample experiences of the past at a different level from that of contemporary newspaper accounts and academic histories These songs in a sense are history writ small Includes Away Down East The Old Granite State Connecticut The Virginian Maid s Lament Carry Me Back to Old Virginny I m Going Back to North Carolina Shut up in Cold Creek Mine Ain t God Good to Iowa Dakota Land Dear Prairie Home Cheyenne Boys I m off for California and others To Do This, You Must Know How Lynn Abbot, Doug Seroff, 2013 A landmark study tracing the current of music education that gave form and style to the black gospel quartet tradition Traditional Songs and Music of the Korçë Region of Albania Eno Koço, 2018-04-18 This book is concerned with the repertory of traditional urban song and music of the Kor area in general and more specifically the karakteristike characteristic or distinctive song associated with Kor city Albania The first half of the 20th century marked the climax of an evolution which started in the mid 19th century with the oral tradition of urban song in Kor While the translation of K nga Karakteristike Kor are into Kor are Distinctive Song seems to be an odd name for a genre it is however a translation as close as possible to the original Albanian denoting the characteristic songs of Kor The term characteristic implies peculiar or specific songs different not only from the traditional urban song of Kor but also from any kind of song whether folk popular traditional urban or art composed and performed among the Kor people The book also introduces the Kor are urban song and urban lyric song as well as the Saze music which were introduced during the Ottoman domination of the Balkans The Globalization of Irish Traditional Song Performance Susan H. Motherway, 2016-03-09 In The Globalization of Irish Traditional Song Performance Susan Motherway examines the ways in which performers mediate the divide between local and global markets by negotiating this dichotomy in performance practice In so doing she discusses the globalizing processes that exert transformative influences upon traditional musics and examines the response to these influences by Irish traditional song performers In developing this thesis the book provides an overview of the genre and its subgenres illustrates patterns of musical change extant within the tradition as a result of globalization and acknowledges music as a medium for re negotiating an Irish cultural identity within the global Given Ireland s long history of emigration and colonisation globalization is recognised as both a synchronic and a diachronic phenomenon Motherway thus examines Anglo Irish song and songs of the Irish Diaspora Her analysis reaches beyond essentialist definitions of the tradition to examine evolving sub genres such as Country Irish Celtic and World Music She also recognizes the singing traditions of other ethnic groups on the island of Ireland including Orange Order Ulster Scots and Traveller song In so doing she shows the disparity between native conceptions and native realities in respect to Irish cultural Identity Music, Sound and Space Georgina Born, 2013-01-17

Music Sound and Space is the first collection to integrate research from musicology and sound studies on music and sound as they mediate everyday life Music and sound exert an inescapable influence on the contemporary world from the ubiquity of MP3 players to the controversial use of sound as an instrument of torture In this book leading scholars explore the spatialisation of music and sound their capacity to engender modes of publicness and privacy their constitution of subjectivity and the politics of sound and space Chapters discuss music and sound in relation to distinctive genres technologies and settings including sound installation art popular music recordings offices and hospitals and music therapy With international examples from the Islamic soundscape of the Kenyan coast to religious music in Europe to First Nation musical sociability in Canada this book offers a new global perspective on how music and sound and their spatialising capacities transform the nature of public and private experience Focus: Irish Traditional Music Sean Williams, 2020-03-24
