Ezra Pound Reads Selected Cantos And Others:

The Cantos of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, 1996 The Cantos of Ezra Pound is the most important epic poem of the twentieth century Selected Poems Hélène Aji, Jennifer Kilgore-Caradec, 2013-01-16 Complete poems are bulky and too heavy to carry around Collected poems pretend to be complete but usually are not Selected poems are altogether unpretentious and reader friendly But they can be problematic Who decides what poems are important for inclusion in a volume of selected poems When the selection occurs during the author's lifetime may one assume that the author was involved What motivates the choice of one poem over another How do readers' preferences influence this choice How do new readers and familiar readers of a poet negotiate the poems that are left out of the selection The essays in this volume address these questions in a variety of ways and also provide an overview of poetic writing from modernist poets to the present day using selections from the 1940s until now They offer new insight into the uses both pedagogical and critical of selection Because Selected Poems usually address a large general public these essays have also been written for all those who wish to know more about how these slimmer more attractive volumes are produced Approaches to Teaching Pound's Poetry and Prose Demetres P. Tryphonopoulos, Ira B. Nadel, 2021-04-05 Known for his maxim Make it new Ezra Pound played a principal role in shaping the modernist movement as a poet translator and literary critic His works with their complex structures and layered allusions remain widely taught Yet his known fascism anti-Semitism and misogyny raise issues about dangerous ideologies that influenced his work and that must be addressed in the classroom The first section Materials catalogs the print and digital editions of Pound's works evaluates numerous secondary sources and provides a history of Pound's critical contexts The essays in the second section Approaches offer strategies for guiding students toward a clearer understanding of Pound's difficult works and the context in which they were written Selected Cantos Ezra Pound, 1987 A Preface to Ezra Pound Peter Wilson, 2014-09-11 Provides an introduction to the life and works of Ezra Pound a major modernist poet theorist and literary critic Throughout his life Pound was regarded by many to be a contentious and controversial figure and since his death in 1972 theoretical literary political and biographical commentators have done much to perpetuate this view Peter Wilson's survey however presents a balanced view of his life and work allowing the reader to judge for themselves The major sections of the book offer introductions to the complex life and work of Pound outlining the various cultural political and literary issues which are important to a full understanding of his place in twentieth century English literature Critical commentaries are then given on all of Pound's major poetry adopting some analytical techniques from stylistics Brief biographies of important figures in Pound's career and in the development of literary modernism are provided A gazeteer glossary and suggestions for further reading complete the book Ezra Pound's Adams Cantos David Ten Eyck, 2012-11-29 W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Sean Pryor, 2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor s discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature

Death, Sleep & the Traveler: Novel John Hawkes, 1975-01-17 Death Sleep The Traveler is about a middle aged Dutchman his dissolving marriage his involvement in two sexual triangles his obsession with the murder he is accused of having committed on a pleasure cruise The author of seven full length novels several plays and numerous short fictions John Hawkes over the course of two and a half decades has won international acclaim Death Sleep The Traveler is about a middle aged Dutchman his dissolving marriage his involvement in two sexual triangles his obsession with the murder he is accused of having committed on a pleasure cruise It is an exceptionally concise and beautiful work writes the novelist critic Jonathan Baumbach delicate erotic dreamlike in all a luminous novel by the richest prose stylist in American letters since Faulkner

The Complete Stein Poems, 1998-2003 Jackson Mac Low, 2025-08-19 A landmark publication in computer generated poetry drawn from the works of Gertrude Stein The Stein poems of Jackson Mac Low 1922 2004 were written between 1998 and 2003 Comprising more than 500 pages of text this edited series of 161 poems most of them never published is the poet s last great work composed during the final years of a lifetime of prolific creation The raw material of each poem was produced through Mac Low s diastich text selection method of reading through passages of either Ulla E Dydo s A Stein Reader or a corrected version of Gertrude Stein s Tender Buttons Guided by Charles O Hartman s 1994 DIATESTX5 computer program which replicates the diastich method first developed by Mac Low in 1963 the process requires that words be drawn sequentially from the source text in accordance with their rule driven algorithmic correspondence with a seed text Taken as a whole these poems are a breathtaking invitation to the reader into a space of creative possibilities and unforeseen encounters

Image and Ideology in Modern/Postmodern Discourse David B. Downing, Susan Bazargan, 1991-09-27 This book addresses the function and status of the visual and verbal image as it relates to social political and ideological issues The authors first articulate some of the lost connections between image and ideology then locate their argument within the modernist postmodernist debates The book addresses the multiple trans disciplinary problems arising from the ways cultures authors and texts mobilize particular images in order to confront conceal work through or resolve contradictory ideological conditions Poetry as Re-Reading Ming-Qian Ma, 2008-08-20 Grounded in a detailed and compelling account of the philosophy guiding such a project Ma's book traces a continuity of thought and practice through the very different poetic work of objectivists Louis Zukofsky George Oppen Carl Rakosi and John Cage and language poets Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein His deft individual readings provide an opening into this notoriously difficult work even as his larger critique reveals a new and clarifying perspective on American modernist and post modernist avant garde poetics Ma shows how we cannot understand these poets according to the usual way of reading but must see how they deliberately use redundancy unpredictability and irrationality to undermine the meaning oriented foundations of American modernism and to force a new and different kind of reading Pub desc

Money and Modernity Alec Marsh, 2011-09-23 Marsh locates Pound and Williams firmly in the Jeffersonian tradition and examines their epic poems as manifestations of a Jeffersonian ideology in modernist terms The modernist poets William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound were latter day Jeffersonians whose politics and poetry were strongly marked by the populism of the late 19th century They were sharply aware of the social contradictions of modernization and were committed to a highly politicized often polemical poetry that criticized finance capitalism and its institutions notably banks in the strongest terms Providing a history of the aesthetics of Jeffersonianism and its collision with modernism in the works of Pound and Williams Alec Marsh traces the money question from the republican period through the 1940s Marsh can thus read two modernist epics Pound's Cantos and Williams's Paterson as the poets hoped they would be read as attempts to break the hold of false financial values on the American imagination Marsh argues that Pound's and Williams's similar Jeffersonian outlooks were the direct result of the political battles of the 1890s concerning the meaning of money Although Pound's interest in money and economics is well known few people are aware that both poets were active in the Social Credit monetary reform movement of the 1930s and 1940s a movement shown by Marsh to have direct links to Jeffersonianism via American populism Ultimately the two poets took divergent paths with Pound swerving toward Italian fascism as exemplified in his Jefferson and or Mussolini and Williams becoming deeply influenced by the American pragmatism of John Dewey Thus Marsh concludes Pound embraced the fascist version of state capitalism whereas his old friend proclaimed a pragmatic openness to the new selves engendered by corporate capitalism Money and Modernity exemplifies the best of recent literary criticism in its incorporation of American studies and cultural studies approaches to bring new insight to modern masterworks

The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1980 Ezra Pound: Poet A. David Moody, 2015-09-24 This third and final volume of A David Moody s critical life of Ezra Pound presents Pound s personal tragedy in a tragic time In this volume we experience the 1939 1945 World War and Pound s hubristic involvement in Fascist Italy s part in it we encounter the grave moral and intellectual error of Pound holding the Jewish race responsible for the war and his consequent downfall being charged with treason condemned as an anti Semite and shut up for twelve years in an institution for the insane Further we see Pound stripped for life by his own counsel and wife of his civil and human rights Pound endured what was inflicted upon him justly and unjustly without complaint and continued his lifetime s effort to promote in and through his Cantos and his translations a consciousness of a possible humane and just social order The contradictions run deep and compel as tragedy does a steady and unprejudiced contemplation and an answering depth of comprehension

The Wall (Intimacy) and Other Stories Jean-Paul Sartre, 1969 One of Sartre's greatest existentialist works of fiction The Wall contains the only five short stories he ever wrote Set during the Spanish Civil War the title story crystallizes the famous philosopher's existentialism

Reading Literature After Deconstruction , We'll to the Woods No More Edouard Dujardin, 1990 A delightful period piece of Paris in the late 1880's We'll to the Woods No More Les lauriers sont coupés retains its importance as the first use of the monologue intérieur and the inspiration for the stream of consciousness technique perfected by James Joyce Dujardin's charming tale told with insight and irony recounts what goes on in the mind of a young man about town in love with a Parisian actress Mallarmé described the poetry of the telling as the instant seized by the throat Originally published in France in 1887 the first English translation by Joyce scholar Stuart Gilbert was published by New Directions in 1938 In 1957 Leon Edel's perceptive historical essay reintroduced the book as the rare and beautiful case of a minor work which launched a major movement

A Door in the Hive Denise Levertov, 1989 In her sixteenth collection of new poetry from New Directions Denise Levertov displays what The Village Voice has called all her virtues of musicality mystery and directness A Door in the Hive addresses paintings music landscapes terror in El Salvador but the emphasis again as in her recent Breathing the Water is on the contemplative Her dialogue between the eager inward gaze and the vast enigma deepens Meditative the poems are at the same time informed by a keenly felt urgency
