

WHAT IS A FABLE?

A fable is a story that features animals, plants or forces of nature which are anthropomorphised (given human qualities).

A fable always ends with a 'moral'. This is the lesson that is intended to be learnt through reading the story.

One of the most famous fables is The Hare and the Tortoise. In this fable, both animals are anthropomorphised in that they can speak and are competing against each other in a race.

Reading Undercover Anne L. Birberick, 1998-12 This study examines author audience relations in the works of the seventeenth century French poet Jean de La Fontaine Focusing on the Fables Les Amours de Psyche et de Cupidon and the Contes Anne L Birberick explores how La Fontaine remains a largely subversive artist even while he seeks to establish himself within a conventional system of literary patronage Birberick offers an anatomy of readers as she shows how La Fontaine simultaneously appeals to multiple readers whose tastes range from the literal to the ironic from the orthodox to the heterodox To negotiate successfully between and among such diverse audiences the poet employs techniques of concealment and disclosure to foster an anticanonical public

The Shape of Change, 2021-11-01 In The Shape of Change Anne L Birberick and Russell Ganim bring together essays by fourteen established scholars who dedicate their studies to David Rubin as they explore the ways in which artistic endeavor shapes and is shaped by literary memory The volume is divided into two sections The first section Continuity and Discontinuity offers essays by Jody Enders Timothy Reiss Twyla Meding Marie Odile Sweetser Robert Corum Jr and the editors themselves and considers the ways in which seventeenth century authors draw upon generic conventions or diverse artistic media to create works that reflect the aesthetic and moral values of their time The second section entitled La Fontaine focuses primarily on Jean de La Fontaine s masterpiece Les Fables Here the problem of imitation and innovation as it relates to genre influence and literary reputation is examined in essays by Jules Brody Richard Danner Judd Hubert Catherine Gris Michael Vincent Nicholas Cronk and Ralph Albanese Jr The Shape of Change serves as a fine scholarly contribution to the studies of French seventeenth century literature and La Fontaine The essays are thoughtful as well as thought provoking and the volume s critical diversity is nicely balanced by its thematic coherence In its ability to stimulate new thinking this collection of essays will be of interest to both students and scholars of early modern France

Borges, Buddhism and World Literature Dominique Jullien, 2019-01-04 This book follows the renunciation story in Borges and beyond arguing for its centrality as a Borgesian compositional trope and as a Borgesian prism for reading a global constellation of texts The renunciation story at the heart of Buddhism that of a king who leaves his palace to become an ascetic fascinated Borges because of its cross cultural adaptability and metamorphic nature and because it resonated so powerfully across philosophy politics and aesthetics From the story and its many variants Borges's essays formulated a morphological conception of literature borrowing the idea from Goethe whereby a potentially infinite number of stories were generated by transformation of a finite number of archetypes The king and ascetic encounter also tells a powerful political story setting up a confrontation between power and authority Borges's own political predicament is explored against the rich background of truth telling renouncers In its poetic variant the renunciation archetype morphs into stories about art and artists with renunciation a key requirement of the creative process the discussion weaves in and out of Borges to highlight modern writers debt to asceticism Ultimately the enigmatic appeal of the renunciation story aligns it with the open endedness of modern parables

The Shaping of Text John Porter Houston, 1993 The Shaping of Text pays homage to the work of the late John Porter Houston who wrote extensively on style rhetoric and narrative and poetic techniques in Western European literature It is appropriate that the essays in this volume focus on the form of the literary work and the ways in which form determines meaning William Calin's essay on the saint's life analyzes the use of antithesis as a poetic and structural device that illustrates the saint's fundamental understanding of the relationship between the ephemeral reality of his physical existence and the absolute timeless reality to which he aspires Raymond LaCharite's study of Rabelais focuses on the author's self conscious awareness of this relationship and of Renaissance preoccupation with reading as both an act of creation and interpretation George Joseph's study of three Renaissance poets focuses on the use of paradox as both a figure of speech and as a genre that serves both as a structure and as a basis for the interaction in the poetry David Rubin's essay on La Fontaine emphasizes the ways in which the register of style in the Fables is used to set the tone and control the meaning of the language In the chapters devoted to nineteenth and twentieth century literature one can see the continuing closer relationship between the book as a work of art and the reality in which it interacts Suzanne Nash analyzes the strategy Mme de Stael uses in writing De l'Allemagne a book written less to present an accurate portrayal of Germany than to promote her own republican ideals for France Ross Chambers's essay probes the question of the theme of melancholy in Romantic writing and its relationship to the social and political structures of the period Edward Kaplan shows how a growing ethical social concern can be seen in Baudelaire's revised Les Fleurs du Mal Rima Reck and Edward Kaplan reflect the growing use of literature as a vehicle for influencing public opinion Stirling Haig analyzes Flaubert's careful use of style and his awareness that reality is ultimately shaped by the beholder's perspective Finally Virginia La Charite's chapter on Proust returns to the idea of a structure within a structure in this case the architecture of the cathedral as a metaphor of synthesis an aesthetic device that gives an intelligible structure to Proust's enormous but intricately complex mass of details If John Porter Houston focused on form and style it is because he understood the semiotic nature of all things that a writer's style is a subtle form of refined communication or as Houston wrote style is an absolute manner of seeing things for Proust a question of vision and so constitutes the ultimate reality of literature
