debated in the field Stephen Cole is currently professor of sociology at the State University of New York at Stony Brook and professor of sociology at the University of Queensland Australia He is the author of Making Science Between Nature and Society and with Jonathan R Cole Social Stratification in Science     The Cumulative Book Index ,1991 A world list of books in the English language     Reference Quarterly ,1989     Rip-Roaring Reads for Reluctant Teen Readers Gale W. Dowdall,2023-07-03 Drinking is recognized as one of the most important problems confronting students on campus today with major impacts on health and safety This book answers crucial questions about why students drink examines its complex links to campus crime and sexual assault and offers new insights on how to address the issue It differs from other studies of college drinking by dispelling the myth that the problem is universal Dowdall s research reveals that the incidence of alcohol abuse varies enormously between colleges and in doing so identifies interventions and policies that have been effective and those that have failed His study is also unique in looking upstream at the broader cultural organizational and social forces that shape this behavior where most studies focus only on downstream behaviors well after students have selected their college and have started drinking Students and parents can take action to lower the risk of binge drinking by following the book s recommendations and consulting the data it provides about alcohol violations and crime at thousands of colleges For administrators and student affairs personnel it both defines and illuminates the issue and outlines effective interventions     University of Wisconsin-Madison Almanac ,1991
