Seeing Christopher Hatchell,2014 Buddhism is in many ways a visual tradition with its well known practices of visualization its visual arts its epistemological writings that discuss the act of seeing and its literature filled with images and metaphors of light Some Buddhist traditions are also visionary advocating practices by which meditators seek visions that arise before their eyes Naked Seeing investigates such practices in the context of two major esoteric traditions the Wheel of Time Kalacakra and the Great Perfection Dzogchen Both of these experimented with sensory deprivation and developed yogas involving long periods of dwelling in dark rooms or gazing at the open sky These produced unusual experiences of seeing which were used to pursue some of the classic Buddhist questions about appearances emptiness and the nature of reality Along the way these practices gave rise to provocative ideas and suggested that rather than being apprehended through internal insight religious truths might also be seen in the exterior world realized through the gateway of the eyes Christopher Hatchell presents the intellectual and literary histories of these practices and also explores the meditative techniques and physiology that underlie their distinctive visionary experiences The book also offers for the first time complete English translations of three major Tibetan texts on visionary practice a Kalacakra treatise by Yumo Mikyo Dorj The Lamp Illuminating Emptiness a Nyingma Great Perfection work called The Tantra of the Blazing Lamps and a B n Great Perfection work called Advice on the Six Lamps along with a detailed commentary on this by Drugom Gyalwa Yungdrung

Global Intelligence Oversight Zachary K. Goldman, Samuel J. Rascoff, 2016-04-26 In a world that is increasingly unstable intelligence services like the American CIA and the United Kingdom s MI6 exist to deliver security Whether the challenge involves terrorism cyber security or the renewed specter of great power conflict intelligence agencies mitigate threats and provide decisional advantage to national leaders But empowered intelligence services require adequate supervision and oversight which must be about more than the narrow if still precarious task of ensuring the legality of covert operations and surveillance activities Global Intelligence Oversight is a comparative investigation of how democratic countries can govern their intelligence services so that they are effective but operate within frameworks that are acceptable to their people in an interconnected world The book demonstrates how the institutions that oversee intelligence agencies participate in the protection of national security while safeguarding civil liberties balancing among competing national interests and building public trust in inherently secret activities It does so by analyzing the role of courts and independent oversight bodies as they operate in countries with robust constitutional frameworks and powerful intelligence services The book also illuminates a new transnational oversight dynamic that is shaping and constraining security services in new ways It describes how global technology companies and litigation in transnational forums constitute a new form of oversight whose contours are still undefined As rapid changes in technology bring the world closer together these forces will complement their more traditional counterparts in ensuring that intelligence activities remain effective legitimate and sustainable cruise ship the magnificent Amsterdam Holland America Lines flagship This book reflects on my time in New Zealand during the first visit The second visit was a time of increasing awareness of the dangers of Covid 19 soon causing many countries to close their ports to visitors My review and analysis of New Zealand begin with its geography reviewing the micro continent now reflecting but the remnant of a larger and now non existent landmass I focus on New Zealand's three main islands its geography flora and fauna I then discuss the arrival of the Maori a controversial topic with most scholars agreeing to the 1280 CE year when they arrived on these islands An alternate view claims the Maori arrived here many centuries earlier though no evidence validates this claim Regardless of when they arrived the Maori retain their own culture cuisine dress and way of living Modern New Zealand's history begins with the arrival of the famed English explorer James Cook in 1769 followed by English settlers The arrival of Europeans changed the country and the way the Maori related to each other as well as to the new European arrivals The Musket Wars saw the first change These were wars fought between the Maori with added lethality of using European weaponry That consequence of the wars prompted the signing of the Waitangi Treaty which many Maori chieftains agreed to in exchange for receiving Crown protection and citizenship This Treaty however was in two versions an English and another in Maori resulting in the debate of what the Maori actually agreed to and if they surrendered sovereignty by signing the document The Treaty and its provisions are today the subject of controversy with the government agreeing to compensations for Maori losses Some of those losses resulted from confiscations during the New Zealand Wars when rebellious Maori were suppressed and the land was taken from them I also review the different wars fought by New Zealand first as a British colony and later as an independent Commonwealth New Zealanders are proud of their connection to the Mother Country When Britain was involved in the conflict New Zealand immediately stood at her side committing soldiers in her defense also review the French attack on the Rainbow Warrior a Greenpeace ship an act sanctioned by the highest echelon of the French government New Zealand was shocked by the reticence of Western world powers against this attack The fact New Zealand stood alone in the face of this attack on its territory made it realize it had to adopt its own political agenda Perhaps because New Zealand stood alone in the aftermath of this French attack on its soil bolstered its leadership to declare a national anti nuclear policy That policy resulted in harsh rhetoric and distance from the United States though the ANZUS Treaty was not abrogated as a result New Zealand today remains a member of the Five Eyes consisting of a consortium of English speaking countries that gathers and shares intelligence New Zealand has a small but active Jewish community primarily in Auckland and Wellington I visited the Auckland Jewish community and was able to assess the country's relationship with the State of Israel The section on My Visit reflects visiting Waitangi House in the Bay of Islands Tauranga Rotorua as well as Auckland New Zealand is a beautiful country and I was enriched by visiting and becoming aware of its history traditions and people I hope that the pandemic will be history to once again sail the waters and visit this distant land      Annual Report of the Department of Agriculture and Food Ontario.
