intellectual history The Yields of Transition Jana S. Rošker, Nataša Vampelj Suhadolnik, 2011-01-18 The present volume is dedicated to the Wei Jin and Southern and Northern Dynasties 220-589 AD which is generally regarded as one of the most fascinating phases in Chinese history. The collection opens new theoretical and methodological pathways in sinological studies, bringing to the forefront a new idea of intercultural encounters based upon a culture of recognition. It highlights the significance of transition in the making of Chinese culture and history, revises prevailing historical approaches in the study and research of China, and develops and enhances existing theories or methodologies in this specific area of research. The wide diversity of contributions to the present volume reflects the multifaceted potential for creativity and renewal of this period. The focus is upon the interaction of ideas, researches and perspectives concerning a broad scope of relevant and significant issues in contemporary sinology. In order to understand this diversity, a wide range of cultural, theoretical and historical aspects are considered. The book reveals a new image of the period, thereby undermining the absolute authority and putative objectivity of common historical sources and interpretations. It shows that this was a period rich with political, economic, cultural and theoretical achievements that would prove decisive for the future development of Chinese culture and society.

Orientalism and Modernism Zhaoming Qian, 1995 Chinese culture held a well-known fascination for modernist poets like Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams. What is less known but is made fully clear by Zhaoming Qian is the degree to which oriental culture made these poets the modernists they became. This ambitious and illuminating study shows that Orientalism no less than French symbolism and Italian culture is a constitutive element of Modernism. Consulting rare and unpublished materials, Qian traces Pound's and Williams's remarkable dialogues with the great Chinese poets Qu Yuan, Li Bo, Wang Wei and Bo Juyi between 1913 and 1923. His investigation reveals that these exchanges contributed more than topical and thematic ideas to the Americans' work and suggests that their progressively modernist style is directly linked to a steadily growing contact and affinity for similar Chinese styles. He demonstrates, for example, how such influences as the ethics of pictorial representation, the style of ellipsis, allusion and juxtaposition, and the Taoist/Zen Buddhist notion of nonbeing/being made their way into Pound's pre-Fenollosa Chinese adaptations Cathay, Lustra and the Early Cantos, as well as Williams's Sour Grapes and Spring and All. Developing a new interpretation of important work by Pound and Williams, Orientalism and Modernism fills a significant gap in accounts of American Modernism which can be seen here for the first time in its truly multicultural character.

Gems of Classical Chinese Poetry in Various English Translations Shu-xiang Lü, Yuanchong Xu, 1988 中國古典詩歌選, 1988 Seven Lectures on Wang Guowei's Renjian Cihua Florence Chia-Ying Yeh, 2018-12-12 Renjian cihua is a masterpiece of literary criticism written by Wang Guowei (1877-1927), a scholar of the Chinese classics who lived during the late Qing and early Republican periods.
