Multi-Ethnic Coalitions in Africa Leonardo R. Arriola, 2013 Africa's long ruling incumbents stay in power because opposition politicians struggle to secure the finances required to build electoral coalitions The Crisis in Zaire Georges Nzongola-Ntalaja, 1986 Diplomacy and Nation-Building in Africa Mélanie Torrent, 2012-04-11 Cameroon stands as a remarkable example of nation building in the aftermath of European domination Split between the French and British empires after World War I it experienced a unique drive for self determination at the turn of the 1960s culminating in both independence from European power and the reunification of two of its divided territories This book investigates the influence of foreign policy on nation building in West Africa in the context of both the Cold War and European integration Shedding fresh light on the challenges of bridging the political economic and linguistic divide that France and Britain had left Melanie Torrent explores the evolution of a nation charting both Cameroon's importance in Franco British relations and Cameroon's use of bilateral and multilateral diplomacy in asserting its independence This work should be essential reading for students of African studies International Relations and the post colonial world Accessions List United States. Department of State. Library Division, 1963 Afrikaner Politics in South Africa, 1934-1948 Newell M. Stultz, 2023-11-15 This book examines the political landscape of South Africa from 1934 to 1948 focusing on the ideological conflict between Afrikaner nationalism and policies aimed at conciliation between Afrikaners and English speaking South Africans The Union of South Africa founded in 1910 unified the country under a government heavily influenced by British principles but also included leaders from the former Boer republics Early South African politics became a struggle between two major political ideologies one that promoted Afrikaner nationalism advocating for Afrikaner cultural and political interests and another that supported conciliation a philosophy attempting to bridge ethnic divides and foster unity among white South Africans The book highlights that conciliation parties faced significant challenges in gaining long term Afrikaner support as they needed to balance competing interests between English speaking South Africans and Afrikaners who felt a strong sense of ethnic identity Afrikaner nationalist parties however did not need this balance and could draw on the deep seated solidarity within their community The critical turning point in this era according to the author was Prime Minister Jan Smuts decision in 1939 to align South Africa with Britain in declaring war on Germany This move alienated a large portion of the Afrikaner electorate who saw it as a violation of the South Africa first principle and contributed significantly to the United Party s waning support This estrangement between Afrikaners and conciliation parties the author argues set the stage for the rise of the National Party and their victory in 1948 which marked the start of apartheid While many observers attributed the Nationalist victory to the appeal of apartheid policies this study suggests that the National Party s success stemmed more fundamentally from the longstanding disillusionment with conciliation policies and the failure of conciliation leaders to create integrative solutions that resonated with both Afrikaners and English speaking South Africans This historical analysis sheds light on how ethnic divisions and unresolved political conflicts laid the groundwork for South Africa s mid 20th century shift toward Afrikaner dominated governance This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974     Black Africa Robert C.
