Flames A Chasidic Discourse By Rabbi Dovber Of Lubavitch:

Joseph Isaac Schneersohn, Yosef Marcus, Ari Sollish, 2007 In 1940 Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn the sixth Lubavitcher Rebbe delivered one of his very first discourses after settling on American shores Now for the first time HaChodesh HaZeh LChem an exploration of the mystical meaning of the Hebrew months of Tishrei and Nissan has been eloquently translated into English Rosh Hashanah the beginning of the New Year which also marks the creation of the physical natural universe is celebrated in the month of Tishrei In Nissan we commemorate the Exodus from Egypt a supernatural phenomenon by which the Jewish people transcended all constraints of the natural order and thus achieved their redemption Creation and Redemption illuminates this mystical dynamic expressed in terms of contraction and expansion as it exists within the world at large within the cycles of the year and within each individual as well Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 * , Joseph Isaac Schneersohn, 2008 " - Menachem Mendel Schneerson, 2005 Kuntres Purim Katan 5752 in the Chassidic Heritage series This work is both a historical meditation on the ages that enable provoke call for now one now another order of faith and a meditation on autonomy or how the transition from one order of faith to the next may be accomplished The discourse known as Ve atah Tetzaveh the last one personally edited and distributed by the Lubavitcher Rebbe has been fully elucidated in this the popular Chasidic Heritage Series format At its core it discusses the function of a nassi a Jewish leader who awakens within every single person the deepest part of the soul Similar to Moses the nassi inspires the person so that one's most basic faith in G d leaves the realm of the abstract and becomes real Dov Baer Schneersohn, 2002 What's In a Flame The Chanukah discourse Ki Atah Neri from Shaarei Orah employs the multiple images of the lamp the oil the wick and the different hues of the flame in order to express profound guidance in the divine service of every individual The popular Chasidic Heritage Series aims to present Chasidut to the reader in a truly user friendly format It is the text of choice for Shiurim and a great English companion to the text for any time use Includes the first ever English biography of the Mitteler Rebbe The Third Pillar Geoffrey Hartman, 2011-05-27 Why should we be excluded from the history and literature of Judaism because the world of our fathers and mothers became a secularized one Geoffrey Hartman asks or because religious literacy whatever our faith or community affiliation has gone into relative decline And why he asks do those who have no trouble finding pleasure and intellectual profit in the Greek and Roman classics or in the literary and artistic productions of two millennia of Western Christianity not easily find equal resonance and reward in the major texts in the Jewish tradition For if Christianity and the classical inheritance stand as two pillars of Western civilization surely the third pillar is the Jewish tradition In The Third Pillar Hartman one of the most influential scholars and teachers of English and comparative literature of recent decades has brought together some of the most important and eloquent essays he has written since the 1980s on the major texts of the Jewish tradition In three groupings on Bible Midrash and education

Hartman clarifies the relevance of contemporary literary criticism to canonical texts in the tradition while demonstrating what has been and what still remains to be learned from the Midrash to enrich the interpretation of commentary and art sacred or secular The map of the discipline of Jewish studies is still being drawn Hartman writes Barely known areas tempt the explorer and major reinterpretations remain possible This third pillar of our civilization is only now being fully excavated we have discovered something but not everything about its structure and upholding function 2003, Yom Tov Shel Rosh Hashanah Shalom Dov Baer Schneersohn, 2004 This Chasidic discourse delivered by the fifth Lubavitcher Rebbe at the turn of the twentieth century introduces some of the basic concepts of Chasidism and Kabbalah in a relatively easy to follow format its focus is on the faculty of speech Although geared for the advanced student of Chabad Chasidus it is one of the first discourses with which a student is initiated into the more complex Chasidic texts In addition to the lucid translation this edition offers extensive annotations which help the reader with the often obscure references Source references are provided for further study and captions are inserted throughout the text First in the Chasidic Heritage Series

Flames Dov Baer Schneersohn, 2002 With Light and with Might Shalom Dov Baer Schneersohn, 1993 In this volume two classic chassidic works of the Rebbe Rashab Rabbi Sholom DovBer Schneersohn of Lubavitch complement each other The discourse entitled Tanu Rabbanan Ner Chanukah 1982 celebrates the might of spiritual light which like the rays of the Chanukah lamp reaches out to illuminate a dark world the discourse entitled Kol HaYotzei LeMilchemes Beis David 1900 celebrates the light that is generated when an individual musters the self sacrificing might to go out to the battles of the House of David and to prepare himself and his environment for the coming of Mashiach This historical and conceptual background to the latter discourse is richly depicted in this volume in an appendix written by the author's son and successor Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn of Lubavitch who was present when it was first delivered The lucid translation is supplemented by source references explanatory footnotes and a comprehensive glossary Shema Yisrael Shalom Dov Baer Schneersohn, 2000 The Jewish mystics and philosophers call man medaber the speaker The capacity of speech is uniquely human and we make much use of it for better or worse Yet we rarely consider its workings how without any conscious premeditation words flow effortlessly out of our mouths Delivered on the second night of Rosh Hashanah 1898 Rabbi Shalom DovBer Schneersohn fifth Lubavitcher Rebbe this fundamental discourse is now presented as part of the Chasidic Heritage Series with extensive annotations and explanations Shneur Zalman (of Lyady), 2004 The Second Generation: R. Dovber of Lubavitch - Historical Sketches Rabbi Yosef Yitzchok Schneersohn, 2018-07-31 The fourth installment of Historical sketches this work focuses on the life of R DovBer Schneuri second Rebbe of the Chabad Lubavitch movement During the years of his leadership the sun of chabad Chasidism shone with all its might and glory as this was a time marked by tranquility from opposition and extensive efforts in studying and disseminating the teachings of Chasidut Penned by Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn sixth Lubavitcher Rebbe this monograph records R DovBer's concern with the economic plight of the Jewish masses which had been ravaged by the Napoleonic Wars and how he encouraged his Jewish brethren to engage in agriculture and basic trade even petitioning the Czar to improve the Jews financial position by granting them parcels of land to cultivate and settle thereon The monograph also describes the events surrounding the arrest and liberation of R DovBer toward the end of his life Challenge: an Encounter with Lubavitch-Chabad Lubavitch Foundation of Great Britain,1970 ספרים וספרות ספרים Samuel Schneersohn,2009 Channeling the Divine contains a discourse that focuses on the mitzva of tefilin and explores the mystery of how the most profound spiritual realities find expression in the very concrete act of binding boxes containing Torah parchments on one's arm and head Composed by the Rebbe for his son's bar mitzva the discourse has been repeated by Chabad bar mitzva boys for decades In this discourse the child who is turning into an adult faces the reality that very few can devote their lives entirely to the study of Torah Nonetheless even in the midst of worldly reality we are given a mitzva the mitzva of tefilin which affects us in the same way as if we had spent all our time in study The Third Judge Elchonon Lesches,2003 The third Rebbe of Lubavitch Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneersohn known as the Tzemach Tzedek served as a guiding light for the broad spectrum of Russian Jewry during the years 1828-1866 Though renowned for his superb Torah scholarship the Tzemach Tzedek's first and foremost role was that of a leader serving during a particularly trying time in our history This fascinating collection of stories and anecdotes now available in English vividly depicts the Rebbe's tremendous impact on all facets of Jewish religious life and the particular attention given to the most humble and downtrodden The Seven Chabad-Lubavitch Rebbes Chaim Dalfin,1998 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit www.rlpbooks.com Lessons in Kuntres Heichaltzu Rabbi Sholom DovBer Schneersohn,Shalom Dov Baer Schneersohn,2021-04-29 A Chassidic Discourse by Rabbi Shalom DovBer Schneersohn of Lubavitch Introduce Unity Within Diversity Heichaltzu a discourse delivered by the Rebbe Rashab creates a paradigm shift in human relationships Through understanding mystical and Chassidic teachings Heichaltzu gets to the crux of finding unity in diversity Lessons in Heichaltzu a reader friendly addition of this fundamental discourse is the magnum opus on human relations It addresses daily human irritability and judgmentalism as well as cosmic polarity and divisiveness The great underlying principle of the Torah as R Akiva taught is to love your fellowman as yourself And indeed Torah literature in general and Chassidus in particular overflows with instructive and inspiring advice on how one may bring oneself to truly love one's fellow Reading this literature to be sure is far more cheering than dwelling on disharmony and baseless hatred But the reality of the human condition cannot be ignored and the present discourse addresses itself to that all too human problem Borrowing the mystical terminology of Kabbalah and Chassidism this book deals with the spiritual roots of baseless hatred its cosmic repercussions and its attainable remedies This in depth discussion of the spiritual seeds of divisiveness and dissension did not sprout in a vacuum nor was it meant to be studied in a vacuum It was meant to be used In response to its call anyone who calls himself a chassid will surely concede that whatever his spiritual stature there is still room for making his own interpersonal contacts less judgmental and less abrasive a little mellower and a little humbler

□□□□ □□ Samuel Schneersohn, Avraham Vaisfiche, 2002 Delivered in 1869 by the fourth Lubavitcher Rebbe Rabbi Shmuel of Lubavitch this discourse clarifies monotheistic belief revolutionizing the way in which we are able to see the world as part of G d The masters of Chabad Chasidism wrote and often repeated discourses designated for the express purpose of mystically cleansing our environment It was this present treatise that Rabbi Shmuel utilized in this very fashion Includes brief biography of Rabbi Shmuel of Lubavitch Flames of Faith Mosheh Wolfson, 2005 The overwhelming majority of ideas contained herein has been gleaned from the lectures of my teacher Rav moshe Wolfson This work is based upon my notes from those lectures I have also added material from the writings of other Chasidic masters Introduction
